Dear Dana Williams:

The FDNY is elated to announce that the filing period for our Firefighter exam is now open. This legendary career focuses on helping people and we want young leaders like you to become the next generation of firefighting heroes in the communities of New York City.

As a veteran Firefighter and the Department's first African-American Outreach Coordinator, I want you to know that I'm here to help you with any career questions that you may have during this journey. You will have plenty of support and guidance here at the Department to assist you throughout the hiring process, but it's up to you to take the first step to join this rewarding career. Apply Here!

Don't forget that you can also visit one of our filing sites and our recruiters will register you for the exam. To select a location, check out our interactive map.

Good luck with the application process and I look forward to seeing you at our upcoming Firefighter tutorials and events!

Firefighter John Coombs

Meet Ladder 176 Lieutenant Andrew Brown

“As a mentor, I pay it forward by being consistent and leading by example – if you want to become a leader in the greatest Fire Department in the world – join the FDNY. It’s hard work, but it’s the best decision you will ever make” – Lt. Andrew Brown of Ladder Company 176.

Vulcan Society/UWF to Host a Firefighter 5K Race

The FDNY Vulcan Society and United Women Firefighters are hosting their Inaugural Are You Brave Enough event on April 8 at St. Mary’s Park in the Bronx from 9 a.m. 5 p.m. The event will feature a Firefighter-themed 5K Adventure Race, CPR Training, a free community festival, games, prizes and much more.
