NEW YORK, October 15, 1887.

New York, October 15, 1887. We are of the opinion that the representatives of the United Labor Party, who were sworn in by the Chief of the Bureau of Elections, are being deprived of their legal rights. That the act of Legislature, providing for a fifth Inspector, was designed to apply to that organization, and they have just cause to complain of injusice. This Board has already declared that the action of the Chief of the Bureau of Elections was unwarranted and has reversed that action, but the action was only what we believe the Labor candi-dates for inspectors would have been entitled to had this Board done its duty. We are on the eve of election i, the whole subject is before the Courts for determination ; to try and punish the officer whom the injured party naturally regard as seeking to give them their rights would add to their sense of wrong and just resentment. We do not think this the proper time to consider the question of justification of the Chief of the Bureau of Elections and therefore vote to postpone the resolution until after the Sth day of November.

S. B. FRENCH, JOHN McCLAVE.

The question was taken on the preamble and resolution of Commissioner Porter and lost-missioners Porter and Voorhis voting aye; Commissioners French and McClave voting no. Adjourned.
