Whereas, In the opinion of this Board, no question more directly affecting the welfare of the people of this State, and in an especial manner the people of this city, has ever been submitted for their consideration, than the amendments proposed to the present Constitution of this State, which are to be submitted to them for ratification or rejection at the ensuing election; and

Whereas, Measures of such vital importance to the good government of our people should be thoroughly understood and fully comprehended by all our citizens previous to their submission for decision at the polls, and the greatest possible publicity should be given to each proposed amendment; to that end, therefore, publication should be made in the most important, if not all the daily and weekly newspapers in this city, for two weeks previous to the day of election, as it is clear that an intelligent comprehension of the benefits certain to result from their adoption can be best effected in this manner; and

Whereas, The Common Council, by section 111 of chapter 335, Laws of 1873, is debarred from the privilege of publishing any subject or matter at the public expense, in any other paper than the CITY RECORD, and the Secretary of State, in giving notice to the amendments proposed, is restricted to two publications in two or three newspapers in this city, consequently, unless the proprietors of the other newspapers will gratuitously publish the amendments, the needed and much desired publicity will not be obtained; be it therefore

Resolved, That the proprietors of the several daily and weekly newspapers published in this city, irrespective of political affiliations or bias, be and they are hereby respectfully requested to publish, without expense to the city, the said several proposed amendments to the Constitution of the State, or a comprehensive synopsis thereof, as frequently as possible, previous to the next election, November 3, 1874, in order that their provisions may be clearly understood, and the beneficial effects of their adoption be fully appreciated by all our citizens.
