MAYOR'S OFFICE, NEW YORK, 21st April, 1883.

DEAR SIR—On the 3d instant, I took occasion to call the attention of the Police Department, through you, to a statement made to me by a private citizen, that a number of gambling houses were in full operation daily in this city, and to ask for a report as to its truth or falsity.

As a result of my communication, the Department took measures with regard to the houses indicated, but with little apparent success, owing to the difficulty of obtaining sufficient evidence to warrant the police in acting, even in cases where they felt assured these illegal practices were carried on. I have observed, however, with great satisfaction, that more recently the Commissioners have placed the whole matter in charge of Inspector Byrnes, who, with the hearty co-operation, as I am informed, of Inspectors Murray and Thorne, was given authority to do whatever in their judgment should be deemed necessary for eradicating such resorts from the city.

I desire to express to them, through you, my great gratification at the manner in which they have entered upon this work, and my confidence that they will continue in the course adopted until no place of the kind shall be able to exist in the City of New York.

FRANKLIN EDSON, Mayor.

STEPHEN B. FRENCH, Esq., President Board of Police.

The following communication from Mr. John Jay, was ordered on file, and to be entered in the minutes:

No. 191 SECOND AVENUE, April, 1883.

The Honorable The Police Commissioners of the City of New York:

SIRS.—On behalf of the Citizens' Committee appointed by the mass meeting at Steinway Hall, called by the Church Temperance Society, I beg to acknowledge your letter of the 9th of April, with answers appended to the various questions asked in our communication of March the 20th. It may be proper for me to say in regard to our questions, that in the course of our endeavors to discover the reasons why the Excise Law is so imperfectly executed, and why offenses against it committed flagrantly and with scarcely a pretense of concealment, have been allowed to continue, in disregard of the complaints of the press and the irritation of the public, marking the Excise Law as a dead letter, we had been met by a seeming disposition, first to throw the responsibility upon defects in the law, and then to shift it from one Department to another.

Under these circumstances it was deemed desirable by the honorable and learned gentlemen of the Committee to whom you allude, and to whose skillful and ready assistance those interested in a reform of the Excise Law are greatly indebted, to make our inquiries with some minuteness in regard to the mode of procedure adopted by the Police Department, and to learn in some cases their interpretation of the law, as bearing on the responsibility for its enforcement. It was not intended that the interrogatories should express or imply censure or imputation, and I beg to acknowledge the fullness of your replies, although perhaps in one or two cases, the extent of your information is, I think, less than we had expected. Many of them, however, furnish advice which may be useful to the Society, although the Committee may not always concur in the opinions you express.

As for example, where, in speaking of the frequent dismissal of the charge against the arrested party by the magistrate, you say "it is an admonition that arrests in like cases are unlawful." But the facts are important, however different the conclusions that may be drawn from them.

I have to thank you, especially, for the distinct expression of your "sympathy with the avowed object of the movement which the Committee represent," and for your practical suggestions for the reform of the system, among which we note the following:

1st. That offenders against the Excise Law are almost invariably held to bail in small sums, usually $100; that the penalties in cases of conviction are light fines, and that "more severity in this direction would seem to be expedient."

2d. That the enactment in a new law of a higher license fee would assist in making "the licensed liquor dealers themselves the most interested, active and efficient agents in the prevention of the unlicensed traffic."

3d. That a reduction in the number of liquor saloons to 1 in 500 of the population and an increase of the license fee to a minimum sum of $500 per annum would have "a most beneficial effect" on crimes against the person and property, prostitution and gambling.

4th. That you regard concert halls and dance houses in connection with liquor saloons as "exceedingly injurious."

All of these suggestions appear to be judicious, and the second, if it shall secure, as you suggest, "active and efficient agents in the prevention of the unlicensed traffic," will accomplish a work demanded by good citizens, and one to which the existing system with all its departments and machinery seems certainly unequal.

The Committee, after continuing their inquiries into the causes of the non-execution of the existing laws, and considering the amendments desirable in the statute, propose to draft a new law, that passed by the present Legislature seeming to be regarded as an aggravation of the present evils. This draft will contain important provisions, suggested or approved by your Department; and when it has been carefully considered, we will be glad to avail ourselves of your proffered courtesy, and to learn in a personal conference what additional features it may, in your judgment, require to make it easily and practically effective.

The Committee are conscious of the weight which will be given to their recommendations to the Legislature by the indorsement, by your Department, of the wisdom and practicability of the methods proposed; and the citizens interested in the work will cordially appreciate the fact that the difficulties with which it is surrounded can in no manner be so speedily or effectually overcome as by the loyal tender by the official departments of their experience and their wise suggestions.

I am, sirs, very respectfully yours, JOHN JAY, Chairman.

The following opinion of the Counsel to the Corporation was ordered on file and to be entered in the minutes:

LAW DEPARTMENT, OFFICE OF THE COUNSEL TO THE CORPORATION, NEW YORK, April 21, 1883.

SETH C. HAWLEY, Esq., Chief Clerk of the Police Department:

SIR—I am in receipt of your letter of the 19th instant, asking my opinion whether the Atlantic Garden in the Bowery can be lawfully opened on Sunday night, for the purpose of a concert, and making certain other inquiries.

It was held by Judge Arnoux, of the Superior Court, in December last, in the case of Koster and others, against the Board of Police, that "Sunday" concerts and lectures are not, in and of themselves, "forbidden by law" in this city. Under this decision, it seems to me that the said garden can be lawfully opened for the purpose of a concert on Sunday, provided that the provisions of law forbidding the sale of liquors on Sunday are not violated. In view of the above expression of opinion, it is unnecessary to answer the other inquiries contained in your letter.

Respectfully yours, GEORGE P. ANDREWS, Counsel to the Corporation.

LAWS OF NEW YORK, 1883.

CHAPTER 189

AN ACT to authorize the dock department of the city of New York to construct a pier for the use of the police department of said city.

Passed April 4, 1883; three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The dock department of the city of New York is hereby authorized and required to construct a pier for the use of the police department of the city of New York, of such dimension and material as to said dock department may seem proper, upon the lands under water, situate and belonging to said city, between the new pier, number one, North river, and Castle Garden. The work of such construction shall be performed and the expense thereof shall be paid in the same manner as if said pier was shown upon the plans for the water front of said city, heretofore determined upon by the department of docks, and adopted by the commissioners of the sinking fund of said city, pursuant to the provisions of section ninety-nine of chapter one hundred and thirty-seven of the laws of eighteen hundred and seventy, as amended by section six of chapter five hundred and seventy-four of the laws of eighteen hundred and seventy-one.

Sec. 2. When said pier shall be completed, the said dock department shall set apart the same for, and the police department shall have the exclusive use of said pier and of the waters adjacent thereto.

Sec. 3. But in all cases the use of said streets and avenues for the purposes of said railroad, as herein authorized, shall be considered a public use, consistent with the uses for which the mayor, aldermen, and commonalty of said city hold said streets and avenues. Nothing in this act contained shall authorize or allow the existence of more than two tracks in any part of said streets or avenues, and the road herein authorized shall be used for the conveyance of passengers exclusively, and the cars shall be drawn or propelled by horses or mules or by cables moved by stationary engines. NOTICE

IN RELATION TO JURORS FOR STATE COURTS.

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER OF JURORS, NEW COUNTY COURT-HOUSE, NEW YORK, SEPT. 15, 1881.

APPLICATIONS FOR EXEMPTIONS WILL BE heard here, from 10 to 3 daily, from all persons hitherto liable or recently serving who have become exempt, and all needed information will be given.

Those who have not answered as to their liability, or proved permanent exemption, will receive a "jury enrollment notice," requiring them to appear before me this year. Whether liable or not, such notices must be answered (in person, if possible, and at this office only) under severe penalties.

Persons "enrolled" as liable must serve when called or pay their fines. No mere excuse will be allowed or interference permitted. The fines if unpaid will be entered as judgments upon the property of the delinquents.

All good citizens will aid the course of justice, and secure reliable and respectable jurors, and equalize their duty by serving promptly when summoned, allowing their clerks or subordinates to serve, reporting to me any attempt at bribery or evasion, and suggesting names for enrollment.

Persons between sixty and seventy years of age, summer absentees, persons temporarily ill, and United States and District Court jurors are not exempt.

Every man must attend to his own notice. It is a misdemeanor to give any jury paper to another to answer. It is also punishable by fine or imprisonment to give or receive any present or bribe, directly or indirectly, in relation to a jury service, or to withhold any paper or make any false statement, and every case will be fully prosecuted.

GEORGE CAULFIELD, Commissioner of Jurors, Room 17, New County Court-house.

That no member of the Common Council, head of a department, chief of a bureau, deputy thereof, or clerk therein, or other officer of the Corporation is directly or indirectly interested in the estimate or in the work to which it relates or in the profits thereof.

Each estimate must be verified by the oath, in writing, of the party making the same, that the several matters therein stated are true, and must be accompanied by the consent, in writing, of two householders or freeholders in the City of New York to the effect that if the contract is awarded to the person making the estimate, they will, upon its being so awarded, become bound as his sureties for its faithful performance; and that if he shall refuse or neglect to execute the same, they will pay to the Corporation any difference between the sum to which he would be entitled upon its completion, and that which the Corporation may be obliged to pay to the person to whom the contract shall be awarded at any subsequent letting; the amount to be calculated upon the estimated amount of the work by which the bids are tested.

No estimate will be considered unless accompanied by either a certified check upon one of the national banks of the City of New York, drawn to the order of the Comptroller, or money, to the amount of five per centum of the amount of the security required for the faithful performance of the contract. Such check or money must not be inclosed in the sealed envelope containing the estimate, but must be handed to the officer or clerk of the Department who has charge of the Estimate-box, and no estimate can be deposited in said box until such check or money has been examined by said officer or clerk and found to be correct. The adequacy and sufficiency of the security offered is to be approved by the Comptroller of the City of New York, after the award is made and prior to the signing of the contract.

No estimate will be received or considered unless accompanied by either a certified check upon one of the National Banks of the City of New York, drawn to the order of the Comptroller, or money to the amount of five per centum of the amount of security required for the faithful performance of the contract. Such check or money must not be inclosed in the sealed envelope containing the estimate; but must be handed to the officer or clerk of the Department who has charge of the Estimate Box, and no estimate can be deposited in said box until
