CERTIFICATE 24016

RESOLVED That the Design Commission, having considered designs for the installation of interactive touch screens in public payphone kiosks citywide, submitted by the Department of Information Technology and Telecommunications, represented by exhibits 6583-J & K of record in this matter, hereby gives to the same unanimous preliminary and final approval with the understanding that the curved type treatment on the side of the Telebeam kiosk will be revised, so it is less awkward, and submitted for review. The Commission also noted that if, after evaluating the pilot, the Department of Information Technology and Telecommunications decides to implement a permanent program and a standalone kiosk is required to do so, (1) a prototype should be developed in consultation with the Design Commission that maintains the aesthetic established by the City's Street Furniture Franchise; and (2) the prototype, once approved, should be installed throughout the City, including the outer boroughs, which are not as well represented in the pilot due to the locations of the existing double telephone kiosk, with the understanding that there are franchise limitations and other siting considerations.

Final approval is conditioned upon commencement of work before November 15, 2012 and submission of a minimum of three (3) 8" x 10" color archival-quality photographs of the completed project.

CERTIFICATE 24021

RESOLVED That the Design Commission, having considered designs for the construction of the Arts Plaza as part of the BAM Cultural District master plan, Ashland Place between Lafayette Avenue and Fulton Street, Brooklyn, submitted by the Economic Development Corporation and the Department of Cultural Affairs, represented by exhibits 3257-AQ, AS, BA & BB of record in this matter, hereby gives to the same unanimous preliminary approval with the understanding that the designers will address the visibility of the “blade” pylons by raising the height and ensuring the LED images are not washed out during the day. Commissioner Nordenson recused himself.

With regard to Percent for Art, the Commission feels that artwork(s) should be commissioned for the site, rather than purchased, and consequently both the gateway and sculpture park strategies are viable. Regardless of which strategy is pursued, the Commission encourages the agencies to reopen the park.

Preliminary approval is conditioned upon submission of this project for final review and approval before November 15, 2012.
