OFFICIAL NOTICE

Get ready for your brown bin!

DSNY will collect your organics — food scraps and yard waste — to turn them into compost or clean energy.

Put items like these in your brown bin.

Food Scraps fruit, meat, bones, dairy, prepared food

Food-soiled Paper napkins, towels, tea bags, plates

Leaf + Yard Waste plants, leaves, twigs, grass

Your brown bin is arriving in April!

DSNY will be delivering free brown bins to residential buildings with up to nine apartments. Residents on commercial blocks or in larger buildings with 10 or more apartments can request a free bin. Visit nyc.gov/organics or call 311.

We'll start collecting your organics in May!

Line your brown bin with a bag. Set your brown bin at the curb for collection. Organics collection starts the week of April 29th on your recycling day.

Find your collection schedule by visiting nyc.gov/organics or calling 311.

NEW SERVICE COMING SOON!

Organics collection starts the week of April 29th on your recycling day.
