DSNY Chief Presents His Mother with NYC Organics Bin

WHAT: The New York City Department of Sanitation continues to expand curbside collection of food scraps, food-soiled paper and yard waste through its NYC Organics program. Starting next month, all residents in Brooklyn's Community Board 1 will have access to the program.

To mark the occasion, a DSNY Chief will present his mother with an NYC Organics bin. His mother lives in the area that will soon receive collection.

VISUALS: NYC Organics bin; compost made from previously collected food scraps/yard waste

WHO: Kathryn Garcia, Sanitation Commissioner
DSNY Chief and his mother
