APPORTIONMENTS FOR 1873.

From the proceedings of the Board of Aldermen, July 3d, 1873:

MAYOR'S OFFICE NEW YORK, July 3, 1873.

To the Honorable the Common Council of the City of New York:

GENTLEMEN-I herewith transmit to your Honorable Body the enclosed communication, received from Andrew H. Green, Esq., Comptroller, in relation to the apportion tments for the

City of New York, Department of Finance, Comptroller's Office, June 27, 1873. HON. WILLIAM F. HAVEMEYER, Mayor

Hon. WILLIAM F. HAVEMEYER, Mayor:

Siz—The expenses of the City and County Government for the year 1871 were $36,567,825,17.

If this amount had been raised by tax, like the expenses of 1872 and 1873, the tax would have been 3.397 per cont., or $36,567,825,17. The tax of 1872 was 2.3054 per cont., or $32.036,290.51. The tax of 1873, which will not exceed 2½ per cent., $27,098,767.77.

The following is a summary of the estimates for 1873 as fixed by the Board of Estimate and Apportionment, $12.

 viz.'
 $6,117,365 og

 $6,117,365 og

775,287 02 533,128 00 It will thus be seen that substantial progress is being made in the reduction of the expenditures of the city, and that another year will show further reduction. The revenues of the city have largely increased, and it is not too much to say that it is entirely practicable to further augment them by energetic measures in collections and proper administration of the property and franchises of the city.

This great improvement is the and proper ammission of the city.

This great improvement in the expenses of the city will. I think, give general satisfaction.

The amount allowed to the Board during the summer vacation to put in good repair the school buildings, which appear to have heretofore been sadly neglected, and are now represented to be in a very bad condition. The amount allowed is believed to be entirely adequate for this propose.

The amount allowed is believed to be entirely adequally for this purpose.

Allowance has been made to the Police Departm for one hundred extra men during the remainder of year.
The Board of Health has also been liberally provided for one hundred extra men during the remainder of the year.

The Board of Health has also been liberally provided for, as have other departments.

Further reductions in the expenses of conducting the city business can and ought to be made.

It is to be remembered that the rate of expenditure of the old departments has continued for nearly one-half the present year, and the Board of Estimate and Apportionment was limited in the reductions to what could be saved in the latter months of the year.

It is to be hoped that the newly-organized departments will do much to bring the city out of the condition of dilapidation that its streets and buildings and institutions were left in.

There are other expenditures which should be greatly reduced that are not paid out of taxation—to wit, those paid from fresh issues of bonds of the city, and these require to be further looked into with the view of diminishing them. Laws for the issue of bonds were obtained last winter by at least one of the departments at the hands of the Legislature without consultation with the Mayor, and without the approval of the Common Council which call for large expenditures.

Well considered improvements are needed in various parts of the city, no wise man will object to their being vigorouslyprosecuted if the moneys appropriated for them are so expended, and the works so administered as to show adequate results. I think measures must be taken to have the public moneys expended on these improvements—show returns somewhere approaching a proper proportion to the amount expended.

It may be suggested that the business of opening and extending streets, boulevards, &c., is going on in certain portions of the city more rapidly than the wants of the public require. The laws regulating assessments have become greatly confused by the operations of designing men at Albany, and it is indispensably necessary that these laws be rectified. To this subject I have previously called your attention.

The cost and expenses and award in opening streets and avenues
