- If you do not usually file taxes and do not receive federal benefits, you must use the IRS Non-Filers: Enter Payment Info Here tool by November 21, 2020 to get your Economic Impact Payment (stimulus payment) this year. The tool will close November 21.
 See page 3 for more information.
- The faster and safer way to receive your payment is by direct deposit.

What You Need to Know about Economic Impact Payments

Under the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act, eligible individuals and families will receive by direct deposit or mail Economic Impact Payments of up to $1,200 (for single filers) and $2,400 (for married couples filing jointly) plus an additional $500 for each dependent child under age 17. No action is required by most eligible recipients. Many may have received payments by direct deposit already. Below is a quick overview.

Eligibility and Payment Amount

Eligibility For more information, visit irs.gov/eipFAQ	Payment Amount – Single Filer	Payment Amount – Joint Filers
To be eligible, you must:	AGI up to $75,000:	AGI up to $150,000:
 Be a U.S. citizen, permanent resident, or resident alien. Have a valid Social Security number (SSN). Have Adjusted Gross Income (AGI) in 2019 that is under: 	 $1,200 not automatically included in payment: additional $500 for each dependent child under age 17 	 $2,400 not automatically included in payment: additional $500 for each dependent child under age 17
$99,000 (single filer)$198,000 (joint filers) To be eligible, you cannot:	AGI between $75,001 and $99,000: • $5 less for each $100 above $75,000	AGI between $150,001 and $198,000: • $5 less for each $100 above $150,000
Be claimed as a dependent on someone else's tax return.	 $950 ($80,000 AGI) See above regarding dependent children under age 17. 	 $2,150 ($155,000 AGI) See above regarding dependent children under age 17.

Note:

If you claim a dependent who is older than 17:

- You will not receive a $500 payment for that dependent. AND
- That dependent will not be eligible to receive a payment up to $1,200.

Payments will not.

- Be considered taxable income.
- Count as income when determining eligibility for means-tested benefits such as Medicaid, Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP), and public housing.
- Count as resources for 12 months (for the purposes of public benefits).

Who WILL Receive Automatic Payments

You will receive an automatic payment if you:

- Filed your 2018 and/or 2019 tax return before April 13, 2020 and meet the income criteria.
- Receive one of the federal benefits below and are not required to file a tax return:
 - Veterans Affairs (VA) Compensation & Pension benefits
 - Social Security Administration (SSA) benefits (includes retirement and Social Security Disability Income (SSDI))
- Supplemental Security Income (SSI)
- Railroad Retirement Board (RRB) benefits
- Survivors benefits (VA, SSA, RRB)

The IRS has tools to help you check the status of your payment; get your full payment if you have dependent children under age 17; and get your payment by direct deposit. See the table below for guidance.
