

Show Your Gratitude for Volunteer Appreciation Month

VOLUNTEER APPRECIATION MONTH

Volunteer Appreciation Month is a time to celebrate volunteers for their amazing work in their communities. Volunteers donate their time to help non-profits, faith-based groups, and their communities to grow and stay connected.

Have you shown your appreciation for your volunteers? Here are some tips:

- Create a personalized video, showing their impact to their communities and your gratitude towards their positive actions.
- Make individual notes for each volunteer, showing your appreciation.
- Hosting an event specifically for the volunteers, providing food, drink and the chance for the volunteers to mingle.

Volunteers are a vital part to our communities, and without them many non-profit and faith-based organizations would struggle. Let us take this time to properly say thank you to them.

National Stress Awareness Month is an annual campaign that began back in 1992 and has taken place every April since, to raise awareness of the causes and cures for our modern-day stress epidemic.

It is the time when we have an opportunity for an open conversation on the impact of stress – a dedicated time to removing the guilt, shame, and stigma around mental health; to talking about stress, and its effects; to being open about our mental and emotional state with friends, families, colleagues, and professionals. It's critical to recognize what stress and anxiety look like, take steps to build resilience and manage job stress, and know where to go for help.
