

Be Ready.
Be Safe.

Be Ready.
Be Safe.

A ready New Yorker is what I'll be
In case there is an emergency.

A radio is one thing I must get.
If it has batteries, I'll be all set.

If the power goes out, a flashlight is key
To helping everyone see safely.

Keep a Go Bag in a safe place.
It's wise to be ready—just in case!

Name _____

Bright Idea

Color the ● spaces blue. Color the ○ spaces yellow.

Name _____

Help Dino Get to Radio!

Draw a path from Dino to Radio.

Dino needs to listen to updates, it's true.
That's how he'll know just what to do!

Name _____

Scrambled Supplies

Which supplies go together?

Draw a line from each picture in the top row to the matching picture in the bottom row.

Name _____

Smart Shopper

Help Dino shop. Circle five emergency supplies.

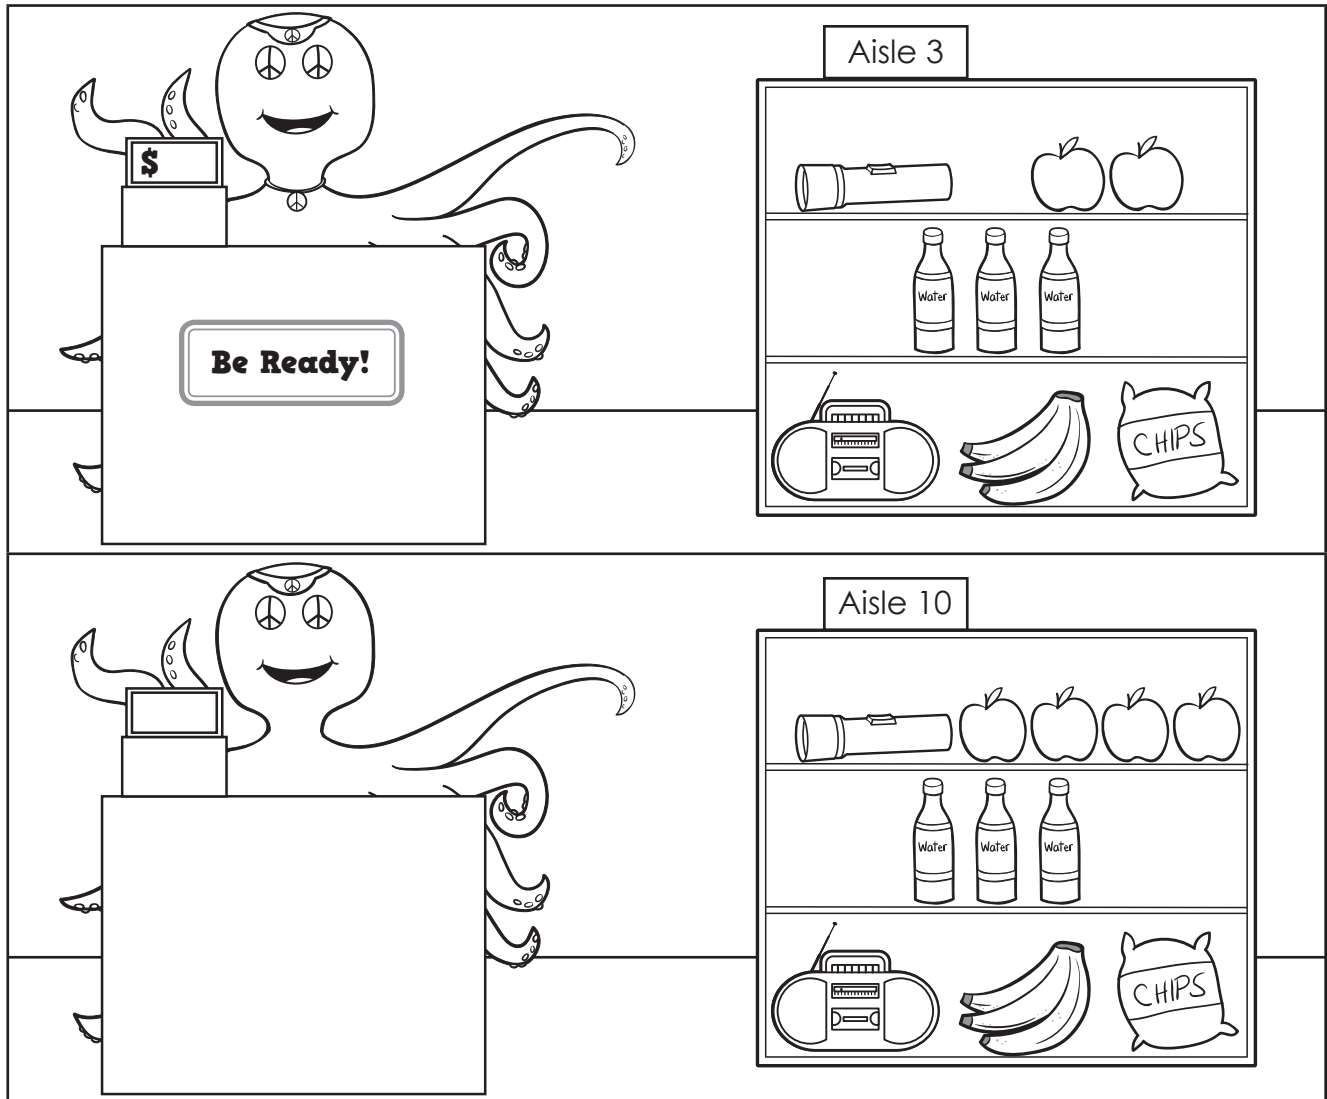

If it must stay cold,
it's not something my
Go Bag should hold.

Name _____

What a Difference!

These pictures have five differences. Circle them on the top picture. Make an X on them on the bottom picture.

Stick Puppet Patterns

Directions

Cut out each puppet and tape a craft stick or straw to the back. Then use the story starters to act out the safety scenarios.

Story Starters

- It is very windy. A hurricane is headed your way!
- It's July. The power is out, and your apartment is very hot.
- You hear a rumble. It's an earthquake.
- You hear sirens and look out the window. There is a fire on the next block.
- The snow is piling up fast. The TV weather person says the blizzard will last until tomorrow night.

Congratulations!

---

is a Ready New Yorker!

Signed _____ Date _____

©2014 Ad Council and the New York City Office of Emergency Management.
Text and design by The Education Center, LLC
For more tips on getting prepared for emergencies of all types, visit www.nyc.gov/readyny.

