PETITIONS AND COMMUNICATIONS.

No. 1652.

February 17, 1903.

The Board of Aldermen of The City of New York:

Gentlemen—Permission was given the National Maine Monument Committee by your honorable body to erect the Maine Monument in the northern end of Longacre Square, and it now becomes necessary to request your honorable body for permission for a change of site. It has been found that the Longacre Square site is not a desirable one for this memorial, which is to commemorate the men who lost their lives on the battleship Maine and the soldiers who fell in the Spanish-American war. Criticism has been made that a memorial of this character to be placed in the Longacre Square locality would not be in harmony with the project. It has also been found that owing to the new rapid transit tunnel which runs through the square and close to the present undesirable monument site, that it will be impossible to carry out the full plans for a large electrical fountain which is to be erected in connection with the monument. This fountain will necessitate spacious underground quarters for the electrical equipments. Still another objection to the site is the fact that Longacre Square would have to be regraded before the monument could be accommodated. This would undoubtedly interfere with existing property conditions in the square. Mr. H. Van Buren Magonigle, architect for the memorial, states after studying the survey of that portion of Longacre Square on which it was intended to erect the monument, that there is "quite a grade falling from the north-western to the southeastern direction, and it is absolutely essential that the outer curb of the platform on which the monument stands should be of the same height throughout the whole extent," thus necessitating the regrading. It is believed that a much more desirable site can be secured in this City if your honorable body will grant permission for the change—a site which will not only be more in harmony with the idea of the memorial itself, but would also help to enhance the artistic beauty of the structure, which will cost something over one hundred thousand dollars.

With great respect, I remain, sincerely yours, C. J. MAR, for the Contributors to the Maine Monument Fund.

Which was referred to the Committee on Parks.

United Real Estate Owners' Associations of The City of New York (Incorporated 1902), Office No. 99 Nassau Street, New York, February 12, 1903.

Hon. CHARLES V. FORNES, President, Board of Aldermen of The City of New York, City Hall, New York:

Sir—At a meeting of the above Associations, held at Terrace Garden, New York, on the 2d ult., the Recorder was directed to forward to you a copy of the resolution herewith enclosed. Trusting that you will give the same your early and favorable consideration.

Very respectfully, GEORGE B. CHRISTMAN, President; W. C. PRATT, Recorder.

The United Real Estate Owners' Associations of The City of New York, No. 99 Nassau Street, New York City.

Copy of resolution passed at meeting of the above organization, held at Terrace Garden, New York, on January 22, 1903:

Whereas, The City authorities have seen fit to suspend the ordinance against the discharge of fireworks in the City prior to Election; and

Whereas, Our protest against the so-called Election Day bonfires has gone practically unheeded; and

Whereas, The City is again called upon to expend in the neighborhood of $75,000 for the repair of asphalt pavements destroyed by fires on Election Day; and

Whereas, The City Magistrates and Judges of the Children's Court look rather with favor than disfavor upon youths brought before them charged with the building of such fires and the stealing of material for same; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, the United Real Estate Associations, do again earnestly protest to the Mayor, the Board of Aldermen, the Board of City Magistrates and Judges of the Children's Court, against the continuance of said nuisances, and respectfully request the Mayor, as well as the Board of Aldermen, to use their best endeavors to suppress all fireworks and bonfires in The City of New York at all times in the future.

Which was referred to the Committee on Laws and Legislation.

No. 1655.

No. 44 West Seventeenth street,
New York, February 10, 1903.

Hon. CHAS. V. FORNES:

Dear Sir—I hereby beg leave to suggest to you a new system for renumbering the avenues. Beginning on the north side of Fourteenth street and First avenue give the number 1400, and so with each avenue west. Madison avenue at Twenty-third street would be 2300, Lexington avenue 2200, St. Nicholas avenue 11000, or One Hundred and Tenth street. I believe this system is much more simple and efficient than the one used at present. It has been found very effective in Chicago, St. Louis, Philadelphia and other cities. Hoping some time to see this much-needed reform,

I remain, loyally a citizen, JAMES W. CONE.

Which was referred to the Special Committee on House Numbering.

No. 1656.

To the Honorable the Board of Aldermen of The City of New York:

The undersigned property owners on Eldert street, in the Borough of Brooklyn, respectfully call the attention of your honorable body to the following facts: That within the past ten days a corporation known as the Edison Electric Illuminating Company has erected on the east side of Eldert street, from Broadway to Knickerbocker avenue, thirty-four poles each thirty-five feet high, carrying four overhead feeding wires, said wires being connected with the company's system on Broadway and being extended into a private factory at 277-279 Eldert street, to supply electricity as the motive power for machinery. Your petitioners complain to your honorable body that said poles were erected without the consent of the property owners; that they constitute an obstruction in the street and a menace to human life, and that the sole authority for their erection appears to be a certain permit granted on or about January 30, 1903, by Deputy Commissioner of Water Supply, Gas and Electricity of the Borough of Brooklyn. Wherefore your petitioners ask of your honorable body such redress as may be lawful, to the end that said poles unlawfully erected may be removed at once.

(Signed.)

Department of Finance, City of New York, February 16, 1903.

Hon. CHARLES V. FORTES, President, Board of Aldermen:

Sir—I send you herewith certified copy of resolution adopted by the Board of Estimate and Apportionment February 13, 1903, fixing the salaries of certain employees in the Law Department (including the Bureau of Street Openings of that Department), together with a communication from the Corporation Counsel relative thereto. I also send you form of resolution for adoption by the Board of Aldermen to indicate its concurrence therein.

Very truly yours, J. W. STEVENSON, Deputy Comptroller.

Law Department, Office of the Corporation Counsel, New York, February 2, 1903.

Honorable SETH LOW, Mayor.

Sir—I submit herewith, as requested, a draft of a resolution adopting a schedule of positions and salaries in the Law Department, including the Bureau of Street Openings for the year 1903. The schedule as submitted includes all of the changes in salaries which I have previously recommended to the Board of Estimate and Apportionment, except that in the case of Mr. Chittenden, I have reduced the salary recommended from $7,500 to $7,000, understanding this to be the order of the Board. The schedule does not include positions in Civil Service Schedule "B" up to and including the Fifteenth Grade, for the reason that I have already advised the heads of departments that appointments and promotions may be made within these grades, subject to Civil Service regulations, without any further authority from the Board of Estimate and Apportionment and the Board of Aldermen. The total amount of the salaries recommended for these positions is $354,950. The amount allowed for the same purpose in the schedule now in effect, which was approved in April, 1902, is $352,550. The new schedule, therefore, calls for an increase of only $2,400 per year. The Board of Estimate and Apportionment has already appropriated a sufficient sum of money for "Salaries of Assistants, Clerks, etc.," to provide for the payment of the salaries recommended herewith. In drawing the resolution I have followed the custom of the United States Congress and the Legislature of the State of New York of fixing the salary of the office rather than of the person.

Respectfully yours, G. L. RIVES, Corporation Counsel.

Whereas, the Board of Estimate and Apportionment, at a meeting held February 13, 1903, adopted the following resolution:

"Resolved, That the Board of Estimate and Apportionment recommend to the Board of Aldermen for adoption the following schedule of positions and salaries of persons employed in the Law Department (including the Bureau of Street Openings of that Department), which shall include all positions in the Department, except those which come within Civil Service Schedule 'B' up to and including the fifteenth grade:

Hon. CHARLES V. FORNES, President, Board of Aldermen:

Sir—I send you herewith certified copy of a resolution adopted by the Board of Estimate and Apportionment February 13, 1903, fixing the salaries of certain employees of the Surrogate's Court, Borough of Brooklyn, together with copies of communications from the Surrogate of Brooklyn and Secretary of the State Civil Service Commission relative thereto. Chambers of Surrogate's Court, Brooklyn, N. Y., February 9, 1903.

Board of Estimate and Apportionment, New York City, N. Y.:

Gentlemen—I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your communication of the 28th inst., transmitting to me copy of the opinion of the Hon. G. L. Rives, Corporation Counsel, dated January 14, 1903, and asking that a new communication be transmitted to the Board of Estimate and Apportionment requesting the fixing of the salaries of positions in my office not affected by said opinion. As I read said opinion the difficulty seems to have arisen from the fact that without increasing the number of employees in the office it was desired to change John R. McDonald from Court Officer to Certificate Clerk, and to change Lorenzo O'Connor from Recording Clerk to Court Officer. As the opinion of the Corporation Counsel would seem to affect such a change the request for the change of name of the positions of these two gentlemen is withdrawn, and they will be designated by the same titles as heretofore. This then leaves the matter simply in this shape: A request for an increase of $100 each in the salaries of John F. Kidd, John R. McDonald, Frank A. Crowe and Mary L. Murphy, and the salary of the Guardian Accounting Clerk (to be appointed) is to be fixed at $2,400, instead of $2,500, as heretofore. As stated in my communication of the 15th ult., which is returned herewith for your information, this can be done without exceeding the aggregate amount appropriated for salaries by your Honorable Board. I transmit herewith a communication from the State Civil Service Commission, dated February 5, 1903, approving of the increase in salaries and promotions involved, and also a copy of my letter of January 29, 1903, requesting this action on the part of the Board of Estimate. I also inclose a resolution, which, if adopted by your Honorable Board, it appears to me, will accomplish the result without any difficulty whatever. As it only involves the addition of $100 to each of the minor clerks in my office, I ask that your early approval be given to the same.

I remain, very truly yours, (Signed) JAMES C. CHURCH.

February 5, 1903.

Hon. JAMES C. CHURCH, Surrogate, Kings County, Brooklyn, New York City:

Dear Sir—Your communication of the 4th instant is at hand. Replying to your request I have to advise you that the increases in salaries noted in your letter of January 29, 1903, except in the case of John R. McDonald, $1,200 to $1,300, and Mary L. Murphy $600 to $700, are not deemed promotions under the Civil Service rules, as a change in grade is not made. The promotions of Mr. McDonald and Miss Murphy are approved under the provisions of Civil Service Rule XIV, paragraph 9, it appearing that the promotions involve merely an increase in salary and not a change of duties. It is not the province of this Commission to issue a formal certificate of approval of promotions in any department for the information of the Board of Estimate. The proper course of procedure would be to have the increases in salaries allowed by the Board of Estimate and not to report promotions to the Commission until the changes in salaries have been duly allowed and approved by the proper officials. If, however, this letter will be of any benefit to you in this matter, I am glad to advise you and through you to the Board of Estimate that the promotions and increases indicated by you can be made without violations of the Civil Service law or rules, or specific approval by the State Civil Service Commission.

Yours very respectfully, (Signed) JOHN C. BIRDSEYE, Secretary.

Whereas, The Board of Estimate and Apportionment, at a meeting held February 13, 1903, adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Board of Estimate and Apportionment hereby recommends to the Board of Aldermen, in accordance with the provisions of Section 56 of the Greater New York Charter, that the salaries of the following employees of the Surrogate's Court, Borough of Brooklyn, be fixed as follows:

	Per Annum.
John F. Kidd, Assistant Clerk.....	$1,400 00
John R. McDonald, Court Officer.....	1,300 00
Frank A. Crowe, Clerk or Stenographer to the Surrogate.....	1,100 00
Mary L. Murphy, Stenographer's Amanuensis.....	700 00

Resolved, That the Board of Aldermen hereby concurs in said resolution and fixes the salaries of the above named employees of the Surrogate's Court, Borough of Brooklyn, as set forth therein.

To the Board of Estimate and Apportionment:

Gentlemen—Referring to the resolution adopted by the Board of Trustees of the College of The City of New York requesting your honorable body to fix the salary of Arvid D. Anderson, Assistant Secretary of the College at $1,250 per annum, I have the honor to submit the following facts: a. He attends to the correspondence of the Faculty and transacts a great deal of its business. b. He communicates with the parents of students whenever necessary. c. He keeps the records of "absences" and "demerits," which latter is the means of discipline employed in the college. d. He prepares the payrolls, checks, etc., for the teaching staff, and certificates of attendance for the parents. e. He keeps the records of the students' marks, and on the basis of these marks prepares a "Merit Roll," i. e., a graded list giving the relative standing of the students in each subject and in toto. f. In the absence of the college secretary he performs all the duties of the said official. You will, no doubt, see the justice of confirming this young man's salary as soon as practicable, particularly in view of the fact that he has been attending faithfully to all the duties mentioned for some time.

Yours respectfully, (Signed) CHAS. PUTZEL, Secretary, Board of Trustees.

City of New York—Department of Finance, Comptroller's Office, January 21, 1903.

"Investigations."

Hon. EDWARD M. GROUT, Comptroller:

Sir—Pursuant to your instructions, I have made inquiry regarding the recommendation for an increase in the salary of Arvid D. Anderson, Assistant Secretary to the Board of Trustees of the College of The City of New York, transmitted for approval to the Board of Estimate and Apportionment. As a result of such inquiry I beg to report as follows: Arvid D. Anderson was appointed to his present position in February, 1897. His salary was fixed at $850, that being the amount now paid him. At a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the College, held December 15, 1902, a resolution was adopted recommending to the Board of Estimate and Apportionment that Mr. Anderson's salary be fixed at the rate of $1,250 per annum. Mr. Alfred G. Compton, Acting President of the College, stated to an Examiner of this Division that Mr. Anderson's duties were such that it would be practically impossible to find any other person in the service of the City with whose compensation comparison could be made with that recommended for Mr. Anderson. In addition to the ordinary services of a Secretary, keeping of Minutes, etc., Mr. Compton stated that Mr. Anderson, by reason of his thorough familiarity with the needs of the college, is now called upon to do considerable work of a special nature that might properly be described as expert work. Acting President Compton further stated that Mr. Anderson's duties now covered a wide range of work, such as he has been informed requires the services of a whole staff of men performing similar duties in Columbia and other private universities. Mr. Anderson, the President says, is an industrious and intelligent office man, and he earnestly recommends that the increase in salary be approved. Secretary Charles Putzel of the Board of Trustees of the College, in summarizing the duties of Assistant Secretary Anderson in a letter to the Board of Estimate and Apportionment under date of December 22, 1902, says: "He attends to the correspondence of the faculty and transacts a great deal of its business. He communicates with the parents of students whenever necessary. He keeps the records of 'absences' and 'demerits,' which latter is the means of discipline employed in the college. He prepares the payrolls, checks, etc., for the teaching staff and certificates of attendance for the parents. He keeps the records of the students' marks and on the basis of these marks prepares a 'Merit Roll,' that is, a graded list giving the relative standing of the students in each subject and in toto. In the absence of the College Secretary he performs all the duties of the said official." It would appear, therefore, from the facts stated that Mr. Anderson's services were of a peculiar and varied character, precluding comparison with the salaries of other city employees to determine the justness of the increase asked for.

Respectfully yours, (Signed) CHARLES S. HERVEY, Auditor of Accounts, Investigations Division.

Whereas, The Board of Estimate and Apportionment, at a meeting held February 13, 1903, adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Board of Aldermen hereby concurs in said resolution and fixes the salary of Arvid D. Anderson, Assistant Secretary to the Board of Trustees of the College of The City of New York, at the rate of ten hundred and fifty dollars ($1,050) per annum.

Board of Estimate and Apportionment, No. 280 Broadway, City:

Gentlemen—I would respectfully request that, in accordance with section 56 of the Greater New York Charter, your Honorable Board fix the salaries of the following employees in the Tenement House Department: Inspectors of Tenements at $1,350 per annum; Inspectors of Tenements at $1,650 per annum; Inspectors of Tenements at $1,800 per annum; Plan Examiners at $1,800 per annum. We find it desirable in the Department to have these intermediate grades. Your Honorable Board fixed the salaries of Inspectors of Tenements in April, 1902, at $1,200 and $1,500. It is now, however, considered desirable to have these intermediate grades so that we may promote men from $1,200 to $1,350 without the necessity of promoting them at one step two grades.

Trusting that this may have your favorable action, I am, yours respectfully (Signed) R. W. DE FOREST, Commissioner.

Memorandum for Mr. Hubert L. Smith, in Regard to Proposed Increases of Salary in the Department of Education.

February 10, 1903.

Fred H. Johnson, Assistant Secretary, increase from $2,700 to $3,000. Mr. Johnson was formerly Assistant Secretary of the School Board for the Borough of Brooklyn, receiving a salary of $3,000. He was transferred to the Board of Education in February, 1902, at the same salary. On March 5, 1902, in order to remove any doubt as to the legality of his position, he was regularly elected Assistant Secretary, his term fixed at six years and his salary at $3,000 per annum. In compliance with the request made by the Board of Estimate and Apportionment on April 7, 1902, that salaries in all departments be reduced, Mr. Johnson's salary was reduced to $2,700, which amount was duly fixed by the Board of Estimate and Apportionment on April 30, 1902. The Board of Education feels that he should be restored to the salary which he formerly received.

J. E. Douglass, Chief Clerk in the Bureau of Buildings, increase from $2,550 to $2,700. Mr. Douglass has been in the employ of the Board of Education for nearly eleven years; he is the right-hand man of the Superintendent of School Buildings, and his services are eminently efficient and satisfactory.

Charles W. Field, Clerk in charge of the office of the City Superintendent in the Borough of Brooklyn, increase from $1,500 to $1,650. Mr. Field has been in the employ of the Department of Education for nearly twenty-five years. As Chief Clerk in the office of the Borough Superintendent in Brooklyn under the Borough School Board system, he received a salary of $2,500. He was transferred to the Board of Education a year ago and his salary was reduced to $1,500. It is now considered advisable to restore a small portion of that very large cut.

Francis J. O'Malley, Clerk in the Bureau of Supplies, Borough of Brooklyn, was formerly employed in the Brooklyn School Board at a salary of $2,000, having been originally appointed in 1891. He was transferred to the Board of Education in January, 1902, and his salary was reduced on May 1, 1902, to $1,500. It is now proposed to restore a small portion of that reduction.

(Copy.)

Whereas, Provision was made in the departmental estimate of the Board of Education for 1903 for the promotion of a number of employees to positions commanding higher salaries; and

Whereas, The salaries of certain positions have not been fixed by the Board of Estimate and Apportionment or the Board of Aldermen as required by law; and

Whereas, The Board of Education desires that the salaries of the above-mentioned positions be fixed in order that it may promote to said positions sundry employees for merit, on account of their long and faithful service and the important and responsible duties performed by them, and in some cases to provide equal compensation for work of a similar kind in the several bureaus of this Department, such promotions to be made only after competitive examinations, if required by the Municipal Civil Service Commission; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Board of Estimate and Apportionment be and it is hereby requested to recommend to the Board of Aldermen, in accordance with the provisions of section 56 of the amended Greater New York Charter, that the salaries of the following-named positions in the Department of Education be fixed as follows:

Assistant Secretary (position now filled by Fred H. Johnson), increased from $2,700 to $3,000 per annum.

Chief Clerk (position now filled by J. E. Douglass), increased from $2,550 to $2,700 per annum.

Clerk (positions now filled by Frederick Gerst, Charles W. Field and Francis O'Malley), increased from $1,500 to $1,650 per annum.

Whereas, The Board of Estimate and Apportionment, at a meeting held February 13, 1903, adopted the following resolution:

"Resolved, That the Board of Estimate and Apportionment hereby recommends to the Board of Aldermen, in accordance with the provisions of section 56 of the Greater New York Charter, that the salaries of the following-named persons employed in the Department of Education be fixed as follows:

Frederick H. Johnson, Assistant Secretary, per annum.....	$2,850 00
J. E. Douglass, Chief Clerk, per annum.....	2,700 00
Francis J. O'Malley, Clerk.....	1,650 00

At this point Alderman Harnischfeger called up the matter of the ordinance granting to the New York City Inter-Borough Railroad Company a franchise to construct a street railway, which, by resolution adopted February 3, 1903, was made a special order for February 17, 1903.

Alderman Meyers offered the following amendment to said ordinance:

No. 1678.

Amend paragraph 2 of section 1 of the proposed franchise by striking out at the beginning thereof all of the language down to and including the words "The Bronx," and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "Commencing in Aqueduct avenue, Borough of The Bronx, at the terminus of Washington Bridge."

Which was referred to the Committee on Railroads.

Alderman Wafer moved that further consideration of this ordinance be postponed and a public hearing be held thereon by the Committee on Railroads on Friday, February 20, 1903, at 2 o'clock p. m.

Which was adopted.

GENERAL ORDERS.

Alderman Harburger called up General Order No. 305, being a report and ordinance as follows:

No. 603.

The Committee on Laws and Legislation to whom was referred on May 20, 1902 (Minutes, page 306), the annexed ordinance in favor of prohibiting the beating of drums, etc., respectfully

REPORT:

That having examined the subject, they recommend that the said ordinance be adopted.

ARMITAGE MATHEWS, JOHN H. BEHRMANN, FRANK L. DOWLING, ISAAC MARKS, ERNEST A. SEEBECK, Jr., Committee on Laws and Legislation.

AN ORDINANCE prohibiting the beating of drums or other instruments and the playing or performing on any musical or other instrument in The City of New York.

Be it Ordained by the Board of Aldermen of The City of New York, as follows:

Section 1. No person shall beat any drum or instrument for the purpose of attracting the attention of passengers in any street in The City of New York to any show of beasts or birds or other things in said city; nor shall any person use or perform with or hire, procure or abet any other person to use or perform with any musical or other instrument, in any of the streets or public places in The City of New York. The provisions of this section shall apply only to itinerant musicians and side-shows, and shall not be construed so as to affect any band of music or organized musical society engaged in any military or civic parade or in serenading, who shall comply with the laws of the State relating to parades in The City of New York, or to any musical performance conducted under a license from the proper municipal authority. No person shall use or perform with or hire, procure or abet any other person to use or perform with any hand organ in any of the streets or public places in The City of New York before the hour of 9 a. m. nor after the hour of 7 p. m. of each day, nor during any part of the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday, nor within a distance of five hundred feet of any school-house or house of public worship, during school hours or hours of public worship, nor within a like distance of any hospital, asylum or other public institution, nor within a distance of two hundred and fifty feet of any dwelling house or other building when directed or requested by an occupant thereof not to so perform. No person shall use or perform upon any hand organ except such organ shall be licensed, as hereinafter ordained. Upon the payment of a license fee of one dollar per annum, the Mayor may license such number of organs as he may deem proper, not to exceed, however, the total number of five hundred. Such license must be conspicuously displayed upon the front of said organ. No person using or performing any hand organ licensed as hereinbefore recited shall solicit, ask or request any money for such use or performance in any way, shape or manner, directly or indirectly. Any violation of this ordinance or any part thereof shall be a misdemeanor and punishable by a fine not exceeding ten dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding ten days for each offense.

Sec. 2. All ordinances or parts of ordinances of the former municipal and public corporations consolidated into The City of New York inconsistent or conflicting with the provisions of this ordinance are hereby annulled, rescinded and repealed.

Sec. 3. This ordinance shall take effect immediately.

Alderman Tebbetts offered the following as a substitute for the above ordinance:

Upon the payment of a license fee of One Dollar per annum the Mayor may license such number of performers upon drums, wind or stringed instruments as he may deem proper. Such license shall not be transferable and must be in the possession of the licensee when performing, as aforesaid, and must be displayed upon request of any person. Any violation of this ordinance or any part thereof shall be a misdemeanor and punishable by a fine not exceeding Ten Dollars or imprisonment not exceeding ten days for each offense.

Section 2. All ordinances or parts of ordinances inconsistent or conflicting with the provisions of this ordinance are hereby repealed.

Sec. 3. This ordinance shall take effect the first day of April, 1903.

Alderman John T. McCall moved that the whole matter be laid over, and made a special order for the next meeting.

Alderman Stewart moved as an amendment that the whole matter be recommended to the Committee on Laws and Legislation, with instructions to hold a public hearing.

Which was adopted.

MESSAGES FROM HIS HONOR THE MAYOR.

At this point the Secretary to his Honor the Mayor appeared before the Board, and presented the following message:

No. 1679.

City of New York, Office of the Mayor,
February 17, 1903.

The Honorable the Board of Aldermen of The City of New York:

The figures relating to the City debt on the last day of December, 1902, reached me too late for comment in my earlier message. A study of them suggests two points of interest.

It appears, first, that, without regard to Revenue Bonds issued in anticipation of the collection of taxes,

The City issued, during 1902, bonds to the amount of..... $33,874,266 60
And paid off bonds to the amount of..... 11,633,066 94

Showing an increase in the gross debt of..... $22,241,199 66

The additional burden placed upon the taxpayers, however, in the shape of interest payable, by this large issue of bonds, is very light; for the interest on bonds issued for the Rapid Transit Subway is charged against the road itself, and is not raised by taxation.

The annual interest payable on all the bonds issued is..... $1,117,028 00
Deduct interest at 3½ per cent. on $12,500,000 Rapid Transit Bonds.. 437,500 00

And the remainder is..... $679,528 00

Many of the bonds paid off, however, were 6 per cent. and 7 per cent. bonds, and the interest payable on the whole sum was..... 533,313 62

The difference being..... $146,214 38

In other words, for this small interest charge, payable by taxation, viz.: $146,214.38 in excess of what was being paid the year before, the City is securing public improvements to the value of more than thirty-three millions of dollars; or, more accurately speaking, to the value of more than twenty-nine millions of dollars; for about $4,000,000 of the bonds issued, and an equal amount of the bonds paid off were Special Revenue Bonds, payable out of the succeeding tax levy, and many of these were issued for current purposes.

The significance of these figures is great. They show why the City must have a large borrowing capacity; but they equally show that, under existing conditions, the City may issue a large amount of bonds at very small cost to the taxpayers. The conditions that make this result possible are these: first, the fact that bonds issued for rapid transit purposes are to be met, principal and interest, out of the income from the Subway, and not by taxation; and, second, that the City is paying off, year by year, large amounts of debt bearing 6 per cent. and 7 per cent. interest, so that the debt paid off may almost be doubled in amount by new debt without increasing the amount of interest payable.

The net increase of the bonded debt for 1902, as stated, is $22,241,199.66. Of the amount of debt issued during the year, $12,500,000 was on account of the rapid transit subway. Consequently, the net increase in the amount of bonds outstanding, chargeable against the taxpayers, is only about $9,750,000. The sinking funds, in the same period, grew to the extent of $12,008,065.83. That is to say, the growth of the sinking funds has more than offset the increase in the amount of bonds outstanding for all purposes other than rapid transit, except Revenue Bonds issued in anticipation of the collection of taxes. Inasmuch as it is estimated that the growth of the sinking funds in excess of actual needs was $8,500,000, it is evident that a very large part of the permanent improvements paid for last year, other than the rapid transit subway, might have been paid for out of the excess revenues of the sinking funds, had they been available for this purpose, without creating the burden of an increased debt. That is to say, the amendment of the law relating to the sinking funds is important, not only in order to relieve taxation, but also because the effect of it will be to distribute the burden of paying for public improvements of a permanent character more equitably.

There is so much to be said about the various departments that I find myself obliged to subdivide this portion of my message more than I had intended to. In this communication I propose to give a summary of the work of the Law Department, the Police Department, the Department of Water Supply, Gas and Electricity, the Street Cleaning Department and the Department of Bridges. In my next installment I shall hope to deal with the remaining departments, the heads of which, being appointed by the Mayor, are responsible to him. I shall then point out how much of the City's work is not accounted for through these departments. This will tend to make clear the limits of the Mayor's responsibility, and, at the same time, show how much of the City's work is done through other channels.

First of all, however, I ask your attention to the fact that the City grows in population at the rate of 100,000 people every year. This means that, by the 1st of January, a city as large as Baltimore had been added to the population of New York as our population stood on the day when the Greater New York came into being, on January 1, 1898. The addition of this multitude of people—as great as the population as Baltimore—has naturally increased the demands upon the City government, in every direction. I shall aim to show where these demands have not, even yet, been adequately met. During this same interval of five years, more than $2,500,000 of the City's growth in income—and more than $1,000,000 of it in 1902 alone—has been locked up in the sinking funds, where it was not needed. If this income had been available for current expenses, as it should have been, it is clear that the City's needs could have been more fully met without increasing taxation. This illustrates, from still another point of view, the importance of the pending bill relating to the sinking funds; for this bill will make available to the City, year by year, for current purposes, its natural increase in income.

The Law Department.

The work of this Department may be conveniently considered under three heads: first, advising city officials, and other work out of court; second, litigation; third, condemnation proceedings.

During the year, 1,909 formal written opinions were rendered by Corporation Counsel Rives, in response to requests from various city officers. Many of these involved much labor and research, and the work was rendered more difficult than usual because the amended Charter made it necessary to re-examine the fundamental law relating to the City in many important particulars. In addition to written opinions, much advice is given by word of mouth. Mr. Whitman, a representative of the Corporation Counsel, was in Albany during the session of the Legislature, watching leg-isolation and assisting the Mayor to examine bills affecting the City, which he did most efficiently. During the session of 1902 there were 2,100 bills introduced in the Legislature, of which 591 directly affected The City of New York. Of the bills affecting The City of New York 94 became laws, 18 were vetoed by the Governor, 41 were vetoed by the Mayor, and 438 failed of passage.

Under the guidance of the Corporation Counsel, much progress has been made in securing uniform forms of contract for use by the various departments. This has resulted in simplifying procedure and in much saving to the City in the way of advertising. The number of contracts approved as to form was 2,180. For the past four years the average number approved, annually, was 993.

The litigation affecting The City of New York divides itself into cases where the City is plaintiff and cases where the City is defendant. It is impossible, in a brief summary, to follow such litigation in detail; much of it, of course, is very important. So far as statistics can show anything, the following table will be found interesting:

	1902.	Annual average 1898-01.
Number of cases tried in court.....	348	219
Number of appeals argued.....	231	201
Number of motions argued.....	994	817
Number of actions and proceedings begun.....	7,008	5,996
Judgments against the City.....	571	1,912
Judgments against the City, amount.....	$511,240 25	$1,836,935 46
Judgments in favor of the City.....	130	124
Judgments in favor of the City, amount.....	$27,771 10	$25,467 21
Amount collected, including cases settled out of court, costs, etc.....	$120,960 82	$30,930 39

In explanation of the large difference in the number and amount of judgments recovered against the City, it should be stated, first, that the passage of the Confession of Judgment bill makes it impossible for the Corporation Counsel to settle cases which the Comptroller thinks should be contested, thus reducing the number of judgments confessed; second, that for the first two or three years after consolidation many claims could not lawfully be paid out of any existing appropriation, and the only way by which they could be paid was by allowing actions to be brought and then permitting judgment to be entered by default, or confession against the City. But, after making every allowance for these cases, the Department has certainly been unusually successful in keeping down the amount recovered against the City through legal processes.

The Bureaus for the Collection of Personal Taxes and Penalties have been singularly successful, as is shown by the following comparison:

	1902.	1898 to 1901.
Arrears of Personal Taxes, collected.....	$385,000 00	$157,500 00
Bureau of Penalties, collected.....	$24,657 00	$14,000 00
Tenement House Branch, collected.....	23,343 00

Much the largest part of the arrears of personal taxes was collected from corporations and large estates.

The Department has also been particularly active in its efforts to reduce the time and cost involved in condemnation proceedings and in street opening proceedings, and its efforts in these directions have been attended by considerable success. As tested by the result of appeals, the Department has been singularly successful in its litigation. It has succeeded in every case—four in number—before the United States Supreme Court, and on all other appeals it has been successful three times out of four. When it is remembered that it has cut down judgments against the City and increased judgments in favor of the City, and that its collections have amounted to a sum more than $100,000 in excess of the entire expense of the Department, it is clear that the legal interests of the City have been protected with vigilance and skill.

One other matter of moment is fairly to be credited to this Department. It was at the instance of the Corporation Counsel and through his personal attention to it, that an agreement was reached with the Commissioners of the State Land Office which secures for the City the right to condemn land under water ceded by the State for the amount paid to the State at the time of its cession, plus the value of improvements. I shall speak of this more at length under the head of the Dock Department.

The Police Department.

The police are as brave a force as any city could wish; neither do they lack efficiency in other directions. The police problem, however, is exceedingly difficult. Fundamentally considered, the problem is how to effect a complete change in the morale of a force numbering nearly eight thousand officers and men; how to substitute in this large body of men, for the idea of protecting each other no matter what the other may do, the ideal of protecting the city that pays them against wrongdoing by a policeman even more surely, it need be, than against wrongdoing by one not connected with the force; in a word, the end to be achieved is to make it impossible, by reason of the public opinion of the force itself, for any member of the force, high or low, to use his position for the purpose of private gain. Of course, I do not mean that all the members of the force do such things now. I mean only that the public opinion of the force now tolerates these things which it ought to prevent.

It may as well be said frankly that such results cannot be obtained in a single year, or in two; but only by a slow process of education which shall involve such an elevation of standards, both in the force itself and in the community, as has already taken place in the City, for example, as to nursing in the City hospitals and in the matter of street cleaning. Twenty-five years ago the City's poor were nursed by inmates of the workhouse and penitentiary; to-day, they are nursed by graduates of a training school for nurses maintained by the City that stands so high as to have received in 1901 nine hundred applications for admission from all parts of the country. Fifteen years ago it was the general belief in The City of New York that the streets of the City could not be kept clean. Waring and Woodbury have dispelled that illusion forever. What has been accomplished in these directions, by steady and persistent effort, can as certainly be accomplished with the police, if the public sentiment of the community will consistently support every effort made to elevate the standards of the force. This, however, is a work of time, and it cannot be accomplished, once for all, at a stroke. It ought to be possible, however, even in a short time, for a Commissioner who is the open foe of corruption in the force to show that conditions that favor corruption cannot continue undisturbed without the police officers who are responsible being brought promptly and sharply to book; it ought to be possible to make the large number of men in the force who desire better things feel that they can afford to be honest and upright; it ought to be possible to make such an effective contrast between an administration of the department that aims to enforce the laws, reasonably and honestly, and one that winks at the sale of law, as to lead the City to wish for the former whenever it is suffering from the latter.

Something of all this was accomplished by Commissioner Partridge during his year of service, and he has certainly made it much easier for his successor to accomplish the rest. Commissioner Partridge broke up the "red light district" on the East Side, with its revolting "cadet system"; he drove out of business a number of the worst resorts in the City; he showed that under this administration promotions and appointments are made for merit, and for no other cause. By reducing details, by various adjustments within the Department, and by new appointments, he succeeded in adding, during the year, four hundred men to the effective patrolling force of the Department; and this with a budget not substantially larger than the year before. The previous administration allowed the number of patrolmen, which was 6,480 on the day of consolidation, to fall, by the 1st of January, 1902, to 6,262. That is to say, Commissioner Partridge was called upon at the outset to police a city 400,000 larger in population than on the day of consolidation with a force of police 218 smaller. Commissioner Partridge made good all of this deficiency, and increased the force to its full legal limit of 6,532 patrolmen. Not only was a city of a half million people added to the New York of January 1, 1898, by the beginning of this year, but the activities of the last five years have been incomparably greater than in the years just before consolidation. The demands upon the force, therefore, have multiplied many fold, so that, in fairness to the force, the City must not forget that heavier proportionate demands have been made upon the police in 1902 than have ever been made before. General Greene's demand for a large increase of the force is fully justified by these facts.

From every quarter, since the retirement of Commissioner Partridge, I get testimony of the valuable work that he has done. Much, however, yet remains to be accomplished, and that I hope General Greene will be able to do. His record since the first of January certainly encourages that hope. Blackmail in the Department must be smitten root and branch, whatever interests suffer in the meantime. Citizens who pay blackmail, and officers who take it, must be made to feel that such money withers every hand that touches it. I heartily approve the policy of General Greene in holding the officers rather than the men responsible for the low morale and the misdeeds of the force. I must, however, remind the citizens again, as I did a year ago, that if they wish blackmail to be abolished they must themselves show courage in refusing to pay it and must co-operate with the officials who are trying to stamp it out.

In the month of August last I appointed a Commission, consisting of Police Commissioner Partridge, Hon. Eugene A. Philbin and General Avery D. Andrews, to consider the laws relating to the Police Force, and to suggest such changes and modifications in the law as might seem to them advantageous, and also to report upon what changes, if any, were desirable in the system of patrol. General Andrews was obliged to go abroad upon business soon after his appointment, so that the work of the Commission was done by Colonel Partridge and Mr. Philbin. I take pleasure in expressing to both of them my thanks for the valuable work which they accomplished. Many of their suggestions are very valuable; while those that are of less importance are nevertheless useful. Perhaps the most important suggestion of all is that the term of the Police Commissioner should be made fourteen years. This is a frank expression of the opinion that the improvement of the morale of the force, of which I have already spoken, cannot be secured under a Commissioner whose tenure of office is determined every few years by an election. The City may come to this opinion, but I think it has not done so yet. For this is also a proposal to relieve the Mayor of the City from responsibility for the administration of the police, and to take all the chances of an independent and practically irresponsible administration of the force for a term of fourteen years. These chances include the possibility of a mistake on the part of the appointing power in the selection of the Commissioner; the possibility of the death or retirement of the first incumbent, with the further chances involved in the filling of the vacancy; and the elimination of all the questions relating to the administration of the Police Force from local control. There are no questions that affect the citizenship of a place more nearly; and, in the long run, I doubt whether good results are so likely to be obtained by such a policy as by keeping the administration of the Police Force responsible at all times to the people of the City. I do think, however, that the Mayor's term should be restored to four years, for it is substantially impossible to accomplish permanent results in this Department, or in any other, in so short a space as two years. I think this change should be made to go into effect on the 1st of January, 1906.

The Department of Water Supply, Gas and Electricity.

This is a new Department, under the Revised Charter, and consists of the old Department of Water Supply, with the Bureaus of Gas and Electricity added to it, which formerly were parts of the Department of Buildings, Lighting and Supplies. The theory under which subjects so unlike as water and lighting are placed in charge of the same Department is, that thus this Department has charge of all underground piping in the City.

This Department was under the charge of Commissioner J. Hampden Dougherty until July 15, 1902. Upon Mr. Dougherty's retirement, at his own wish, I appointed the present Commissioner, the Hon. Robert Grier Monroe.

In the boroughs of Manhattan and The Bronx, about 70,000 feet of new mains have been laid; 291 new hydrants have been set, and the general repairs to the system have been kept up. Two new 15,000,000 gallon pumps are now almost completed at One Hundred and Seventy-ninth Street Pumping Station. This will add materially to the high service in different parts of the City, and especially in the Murray Hill and East Eighty-third street sections. Connection of the old Croton Aqueduct with the pipe lines of the Southern Boulevard and Bailey avenue has been completed, and the Jerome Avenue Pumping Station should be finished in 1903. These improvements, with others which are in progress, should adequately provide for the Borough of The Bronx for several years to come. In 1902, 1,952 meters were set, against 645 in 1900 and 662 in 1901. The total revenue collected in these boroughs has been $6,041,277.16, an increase of $736,292.97 over the receipts for the previous year. These receipts represent the successful collection of old claims, the stoppage of the taking of water without payment, and the natural growth of the City.

In Brooklyn preparations have been made for laying water mains in upwards of ninety streets and avenues. Many of these petitions have been on file unheeded for years. Two more large distributing trunk mains are planned for in the immediate future. The boundaries supplied from the high service have been readjusted, with a resulting daily saving of about 2,000,000 gallons in the amount of water pumped. The additional pipe conduit from Millburn has been practically completed. Contracts have been awarded for the erection of additional engines there, with capacity of 29,000,000 gallons. Two new driven well stations on the "gallery" system are about to be installed. The equipment at the Mount Prospect station is being renewed and put in perfect order; 807 meters have been set in Brooklyn in 1902, as against 408 in 1901. The revenue collected in Brooklyn shows a very slight gain, as compared with 1901. The figures are: 1901, $2,645,860.01; 1902, $2,651,211.92. The contrast between this result and the result obtained in Manhattan, and also in Queens, suggests the necessity of a complete reorganization of the Bureau of the Water Registrar in Brooklyn.

In the Borough of Queens preparations have been made for laying water mains in a large number of the most important thoroughfares of the borough. Most of the supply in Queens comes from private companies, and a practical reconstruction of the entire City plant is contemplated. The water revenue collected in the borough during 1902 amounted to $192,609.41, against $131,246.28 in 1901.

The most important action of the year has been the appointment by Commissioner Monroe during the month of December, of a commission of experts, consisting of William H. Burr, Rudolph Herring and John R. Freeman, who are charged with the duty of reporting in detail as to all the sources available for an increase in the City's water supply, such as will be necessary in the very near future. At the present rate of consumption, the present sources will not be equal to the demand for a longer period than from three to five years. This commission of experts, therefore, has been charged with the duty of placing before the City Government the different alternatives that may be resorted to for a large increase of supply, and especially of pointing out the watershed from which the next increase ought to be had. Concurrently with this inquiry, the Department has entered upon a systematic effort to ascertain and reduce the waste from the system in the boroughs of Manhattan and Brooklyn.

In the Electrical Bureau arrangements have been made for placing under ground all electrical conduits in the business centre of Brooklyn. By May 1, 1893, fourteen miles of streets in that borough, which have heretofore presented a tangle of wires will be practically free from such obstructions and progress will then be steadily made toward the same result in other streets and avenues.

The Department of Street Cleaning.

When I asked Dr. Woodbury to accept the position of Commissioner of this Department, I said to him that it seemed to me the real problems of the Department lay in the field of final disposition; that anybody who was accustomed to handling men could collect the City's waste, but that The City of New York was at least twenty-five years behind the times in the disposition of its waste.

The whole process of final disposition, as it existed on the 1st of January, 1902, was offensive, from beginning to end. Much still remains to be done, but some progress in the right direction has been made. Any one who will take a trip around the waterfront of Manhattan will see, at occasional intervals, wharves given up to ash dumps. These dumps are offensive to the eye; often to the smell. They are a nuisance to the neighborhood, and they occupy space that might be made of great value to commerce. This is the first count against the old system; the second is that all of this waste thus taken to the water-front is at great expense carried out to sea and thrown away.

The City's waste may be considered under three heads: (1) garbage, (2) ashes, (3) house waste, such as old paper, bottles and the like. Garbage is offensive to the smell and a source of danger to health, unless it is promptly removed. Where it is mixed with ashes and with house waste, it renders both of the latter valueless, and there is nothing to do with the mixture but to throw it away. The very first step therefore in improving conditions for the final disposition of the City's waste is to bring about an effective separation of garbage, of ashes and of house waste in every house. Colonel Waring perceived this, and endeavored, in every way, to educate the people of the City to keep these things apart, so that they could be separately collected. The deterioration in this respect which was permitted to take place during the last four years, and the improvement which has already been effected by Commissioner Woodbury, is clearly shown by the following figures:

In Manhattan Alone.

1897. Cartloads of garbage collected.....	181,682
1898. Cartloads of garbage collected.....	164,317
1899. Cartloads of garbage collected.....	173,818
1900. Cartloads of garbage collected.....	167,951
1901. Cartloads of garbage collected.....	150,905
1902. Cartloads of garbage collected.....	205,691

It thus appears that the collections of garbage from 1898 to 1901 never equalled the collections of 1897, and that in 1902 they were one-third larger than in 1901, and 24,000 loads in excess of 1897. This result in 1902 has been brought about by the diligent circulation through the tenement-houses of more than a million circulars, printed in English, German, Italian and Yiddish, calling attention to the importance of this separation.

The first result achieved by Commissioner Woodbury by effecting this better separation of garbage from ashes and house waste was the successful stoppage of dumping at sea during the whole of last summer. Thus, for the first time in many years, the sea beaches were clean during the bathing season.

The second result obtained was no less valuable. The percentage of garbage in the ashes and house waste having been reduced to a negligible quantity, this material could safely be used for filling in low-lying land, or land under water. By permit from the Board of Health, the Commissioner of Street Cleaning was enabled to use large quantities of this material in filling in land under water at Riker's Island. Besides the saving thus effected in towing, during the year 1902, thirty-five acres of good upland were made. I have heard the value of this upland estimated at $10,000 per acre. When the work that has been begun is completed, Riker's Island will have an area larger than Blackwell's Island, and the value of it to The City of New York, measured by its usefulness, will be incalculable. To make good land out of the City's waste is very much better than first to permit this material to be spoiled by the intermixture of garbage, and then to spend large sums of money to carry it out to sea and throw it overboard.

Commissioner Woodbury has also made a successful beginning in attacking the disposition of house waste proper. This consists largely of old paper, old boxes, old mattresses, empty bottles, and every sort of thing likely to be thrown away in a house or hotel. In bulk, it represents about three-quarters of the material to be disposed of. On the other hand, much of it has value. The privilege of picking over the waste at the various City dumps in the Borough of Manhattan was sold, in 1901, for $89,000. Early in 1902, a new contract was made at the rate of $107,000. Commissioner Woodbury immediately conceived the idea that by making suitable arrangements for burning what was valueless in this waste three results would follow: first, a better opportunity for saving what is valuable would be afforded; second, the most bulky part of what has heretofore been taken out to sea would be very much reduced in bulk; and, third, most of the residuum, being clean ash, would have a value either for filling or as a fertilizer. Acting upon authority granted to him early in the year, he erected on the pier at the foot of West Forty-seventh street a furnace which consumes all of the house waste in the district lying between Thirty-eighth and Seventy-sixth streets, Sixth avenue and the Hudson River. He sold the privilege of picking over the waste brought to this furnace at eighty cents per load. If the same price could be had for all the waste of the Borough the City would receive $166,000, where it had been receiving, in 1902, $107,000, and in 1901, $89,000. But this is not all. The residuum is a clean non-mineral ash which is given to the Park Department, where it is used for fertilizing purposes. Again, the heat generated by the furnace is valuable for power, and it is expected that this power can be used to make the City's plant more effective, and also to bring in a moderate income to the City. When this system has been developed so that all the City's waste is disposed of in this way, it will be possible to recover, for the purposes of commerce, a number of piers that are now simply occasions of offense to the neighborhood and to every one who sees them from the river. The work of covering in the dump on the West Forty-seventh street pier is in progress; and, when this is done, it is hoped that this establishment will be an object lesson which will ultimately make it possible to dispose of this part of the problem of final disposition in a similar manner throughout all the boroughs.

With the house waste thus disposed of, with the ashes made available for filling in low-lying land or land under water, it ought to be possible, when the present contracts for the disposition of garbage expire, to handle that matter also in a way that will bring in some revenue to the City or at least very greatly reduce the cost. At the present time the Sanitary Utilization Company, whose reduction works are at Barren Island, has a contract, made in 1901 for five years, to remove the garbage from Manhattan at a cost of $230,000. Col. Waring made a similar contract for both Manhattan and The Bronx at $90,000. Maj. Woodbury has made a similar contract, with the same company, for Brooklyn at $49,000. These figures show that the present contract for Manhattan, made in 1901, is scandalously wasteful. A contract has recently been made for the Borough of The Bronx for the final disposition of garbage and house-waste together at $16,000; and it is there proposed to dispose of both by burning. It is believed that this can be successfully done without creating a nuisance. No effort will be spared to make the experiment a success.

In Brooklyn, the problem of final disposition has always been a difficult one, because of the few public docks at command and the long hauls that were necessary to reach these docks. A contract has been entered into for the removal of ashes and house-waste, which will go into effect on the 1st of June, 1903, that will revolutionize the entire system. The borough has been divided into districts, about one mile in diameter; at the centre of each district, on a railroad street, a neat building is to be erected, which will contain cars specially built for the purpose, having capacity large enough to hold the entire collections of the district for twenty-four hours. All the collections of the day are taken to this building, the cart enters the building, the doors are closed, and the contents of the cart are dumped into the car standing ready for them. At night, these cars, which are covered, are hauled by the trolley lines to the outskirts of the borough, and the contents used for filling. The nuisance connected with the disposition of the City's waste will thus be reduced to a minimum, while the material collected, instead of being thrown away at sea, will be used for filling in low lands in the outskirts, which will then become tax-producing property. This system has the further advantage that, as the City grows, it can be extended indefinitely. Something like this remains to be developed in Manhattan and The Bronx. The problem is more difficult in Manhattan because of the shape of the island, but it is not impossible of solution, and the Commissioner is hopeful that, with some modifications, the same system may be applied in Manhattan. When this is accomplished, the foul ash dumps which now disfigure our harbor will disappear, and the space which they occupy will be made available for commerce.

The Department of Bridges.

Under the vigilant care of Commissioner Lindenthal, the Brooklyn Bridge has been kept in better repair than it has been in since it was first opened to the public. The oversight of the structure has been systematized, and responsibility fixed for each part of the work. Arrangements have been made for the installation, by the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company, of four new loops at the Manhattan end of the bridge. This will somewhat improve the conditions of loading and unloading the trolley cars during the crowded hours. The efforts that have been made, and the plans that are under consideration for the permanent relief of the structure, were sufficiently outlined in my earlier message.

The work upon the Williamsburg bridge has been diligently pressed during the last year, and, it was hoped, until the fire on the Manhattan tower occurred, that the bridge might be opened to travel by the 1st of October. The delay caused by the fire is likely to be less serious than was feared, and it is still possible that the bridge may be opened before the end of the year. The problem of providing suitable approaches for it at the Manhattan end is only less difficult than in the case of the Brooklyn Bridge, for the bridge terminates in a section of the city which is very densely crowded. It is proposed to widen Delancey street to a width of either 125 or 150 feet, and to carry a new street, in line with Delancey street, from the Bowery through to Elm street. This will secure free movement from the bridge to the westward, and will command good connections with the Second and Third Avenue Elevated, and with the Subway. It is also proposed to widen either Suffolk or Clinton street to 100 feet in width, both to the north and to the south. The southern widening will give ready access to East Broadway, which is a wide thoroughfare, leading to the very heart of the downtown district; the northern widening will make easy communication to the north by way of Avenues A and B. These changes ought also to provide important relief for the Bowery by making Elm street and these new thoroughfares available, not only for access to the bridge, but for north and south traffic.

Bridge No. 3 reaches the surface at the junction of Canal and Forsyth streets and the Bowery. It is proposed at the connection of this terminal to make an open square, from Forsyth street two blocks, running from Canal to the Bowery and to widen Chrystie street to a width of 100 feet, so as to make direct connection by a wide street with Second avenue. This, again, will be an important relief to the overcrowded Bowery. The railroad connections between these two bridges and the Brooklyn Bridge will be the subject of a report to the Rapid Transit Commission in the near future. I need not, therefore, discuss that subject further here.

The Bridge Commissioner has also developed detailed plans for the Blackwell's Island Bridge, and for the Manhattan Bridge. In both instances, I have referred these plans to a commission of experts; being of the opinion that before so large an outlay is made the plans proposed should be passed upon by competent and disinterested engineers. The Commission for the Blackwell's Island Bridge consisted of Prof. William H. Burr, of Columbia University; Prof. Palmer C. Ricketts, of the Troy Polytechnic, and Mr. Henry W. Hodge, of the firm of Boller & Hodge, consulting engineers. This Commission made a unanimous report, suggesting certain modifications in the plans proposed by the Bridge Commissioner, which have been accepted by him. As modified, the plans have been submitted to the Art Commission, and have been approved by it.

The Commission appointed for the Manhattan Bridge consists of Mr. George S. Morison, consulting engineer, Chairman; Mr. Charles C. Schneider, Vice-President of the American Bridge Company; Mr. Henry W. Hodge, of Boller & Hodge; Prof. Mansfield Merriman, of Lehigh University, and Theodore Cooper. For the purpose of saving time, these plans will be submitted for concurrent examination by the Art Commission, in the hope that they may be passed upon from the point of view of that Commission, as well as of the experts, within the next few weeks. If nothing occurs to delay the approval of these plans, there is no reason why contracts should not be let, after the 1st of July, for the construction both of the Blackwell's Island Bridge and of the Manhattan Bridge. It is worth while to point out that neither of these bridges could have been carried forward to completion except for the policy of assessing the City's real estate at full value. It will be apparent, also, that the bonds to be issued on account of these bridges will be issued only gradually, year by year, as the work progresses, but no contracts for them could be made unless the City's debt-incurring capacity were large enough to permit contracts for the whole work.

In connection with the Brooklyn approach to the Manhattan Bridge, important changes are likely to be brought about, with substantially unanimous consent. It is planned to have the bridge come to grade at Sands street, instead of at Willoughby street, to straighten the line of the approach so that it shall come out opposite Flatbush avenue, and to make a street of the approach merely a bridge viaduct. There are, of course, to be elevated tracks in the street, but the street will be in every way more useful than if it were developed on the original plan. It interests me to recall that this is practically a continuation of Flatbush avenue, which I had the honor of proposing to The City of Brooklyn when I was Mayor of that City, twenty years ago.

It is also proposed to ask at an early day for the construction of a new bridge across the Harlem, to Fordham Heights, at Two Hundred and Seventh street, and for authority to rebuild the bridges over the Gowanus Canal, substituting for the present drawbridges lift-bridges of a modern type that will greatly facilitate the large commerce carried on upon that canal.

I shall report upon the other departments as soon as circumstances will permit.

SETH LOW, Mayor.

Which was laid over, ordered to be printed in the minutes and published in full in the City Record, and the various matters mentioned therein were referred to the appropriate committees of the Board.

GENERAL ORDERS, RESUMED.

Alderman Harburger called up General Order 300, being a report and ordinance, as follows:

No. 1581.

The Committee on Railroads, who were instructed by resolution of the Board to hold public hearings on the matter of heating street cars, respectfully

REPORT:

That, having examined the subject, they recommend that the annexed ordinance be adopted.

AN ORDINANCE to provide for the heating of street cars in The City of New York:

Be it Ordained, by the Board of Aldermen of The City of New York, as follows: Section 1. Each street, surface or other railroad company operating or running passenger cars on the surface of any street, avenue or thoroughfare in The City of New York shall, between the first day of October and the first day of April of each year, properly heat and keep heated at least every second car on its line or lines whenever the temperature upon the street shall fall below forty degrees Fahrenheit.

Sec. 2. A failure to so heat and keep heated each second or alternate car where the thermometer shall record a temperature below forty degrees Fahrenheit shall subject the company or companies so violating the conditions of section 1 to a penalty of twenty-five dollars fine for each and every failure so to do.

Sec. 3. There shall be conspicuously displayed on both sides of each heated car, when all the cars of the line are not heated, a placard or sign containing the words "heated car" in large type.

Sec. 4. The above sections shall apply only to cars running a distance of three miles or more.

Sec. 5. All ordinances or parts of ordinances inconsistent or conflicting with the provisions of this ordinance are hereby repealed.

Sec. 6. This ordinance shall take effect February first, one thousand nine hundred and three.

JOHN DIEMER, WILLIAM D. PECK, JAMES OWENS, JOHN T. McCALL, ELIAS GOODMAN, ROBERT F. DOWNING, Committee on Railroads.

Alderman Oatman moved that the word "second," after the word "every" in the sixth line of section 1 of said ordinance, be stricken out. Also that the date in section 6 be changed to March 1, 1903.

Alderman Downing moved that a section be added to said ordinance providing that a sign bearing the words "Heated Car" be placed on each heated car.

Alderman Stewart moved that the matter be recommitted to the Committee on Railroads so that the proposed amendments may be considered.

Which was adopted.

Alderman Wirth moved that the Committee be instructed to report at the next meeting.

Which was adopted.

Alderman Holler called up General Order No. 260, being a report and resolution, as follows:

No. 1361—(G. O. No. 260).

The Committee on Streets and Highways, to whom was referred on December 2, 1902 (Minutes, page 1625), the annexed resolution in favor of changing the name of Eastern Parkway Extension, between Bushwick avenue and Highland Park, in the Borough of Brooklyn, to Highland Boulevard, respectfully

REPORT:

That, having examined the subject, they believe the proposed change to be necessary.

They therefore recommend that the said resolution be adopted.

To the Board of Aldermen of The City of New York:

Gentlemen—The undersigned, who are owners of property fronting on Eastern Parkway Extension, between Bushwick avenue and Highland Park, or residents thereon, respectfully petition that the name of the said street now called Eastern Parkway Extension, between the points above named, be changed to Highland Boulevard, by which name the said street was known prior to its being widened. Our reasons for asking that the name be changed is that the present name is too long, and the former name is appropriate to the locality, and the street is separated from the westerly part of Eastern Parkway Extension by a distance of about five blocks, being connected therewith by Bushwick avenue, and said avenue numbered.

Dated December 2, 1902.

The Committee on Finance, to whom was referred on February 10, 1903 (Minutes, page 525), the annexed communication asking them to authorize the Comptroller to advance from time to time to the Secretary of the Board of Education $250 for petty cash expenses, respectfully

REPORT:

That, having examined the subject, they believe the proposed authorization to be proper. A similar resolution was passed last year. It is, like many other of these resolutions, necessary, unless the Department employees are to advance petty cash expenses out of their own pockets. They therefore recommend the adoption of the annexed resolution, which has been drafted by the Committee.

Department of Education—City of New York,

Board of Education,

Park Avenue and Fifty-ninth Street,

New York, February 3, 1903.

Hon. CHARLES V. FURNES, President, Board of Aldermen:

Dear Sir—I have the honor to transmit herewith certified copy of a resolution adopted at a meeting of the Board of Education held on the 2d inst., requesting the Board of Aldermen to authorize the Comptroller to advance from time to time the sum of $250 from "Incidental Expenses" to be used for petty cash expenses of the Board of Education.

Respectfully,

A. EMERSON PALMER, Secretary, Board of Education.

Resolved, That the Board of Aldermen be and it is hereby requested to authorize the Comptroller to advance from time to time to the Secretary of the Board of Education from the Special School Fund of the Department of Education for the year 1903 and from the item contained therein entitled "Incidental Expenses" the sum of $250, said sum to be used for petty cash expenses of the Board of Education and to be accounted for by vouchers to be subsequently submitted for approval.

A true copy of resolution adopted at a meeting of the Board of Education held February 2, 1903.

A. EMERSON PALMER, Secretary, Board of Education.

HERBERT PARSONS, JAMES H. McINNES, JOHN L. FLORENCE, WILLIAM T. JAMES, FREDERICK W. LONGFELLOW, JOHN T. MCCALL, TIMOTHY P. SULLIVAN, Committee on Finance.

On motion of Alderman Parsons this report received immediate consideration.

The Vice-Chairman put the question whether the Board would agree to accept said report and adopt said resolution.

Which was decided in the affirmative by the following vote:

Affirmative—Aldermen Baldwin, Behrmann, Bennett, Brenner, Devlin, Dickinson, Dietz, Dowling, Foley, Gaffney, Gillen, Gillies, Goldwater, Haggerty, Harnischfeger, Holler, James, Jones, Keely, Kennedy, Klett, Leitner, Longfellow, Thomas F. McCaul, Malone, Maloy, Marks, Meyers, Nehrbauser, Oatman, Owens, Parsons, Porges, Richter, Seebeck, Stewart, Sullivan, Tebbetts, Twomey, Wafer, Willett, Wirth; the Vice-Chairman of the Board of Aldermen—43.

No. 1639 (G. O. No. 306.)

The Committee on Finance, to whom was referred on February 10, 1903 (Minutes, page 521), the annexed communication from the Department of Education, asking this Board to authorize the Board of Education to expend $10,000, without public letting, for the purchase of lantern slides and similar materials, respectfully

REPORT:

That, having examined the subject, they find the following to be the facts:

The communication from the Secretary of the Board of Education is in error in stating that the lantern slides are prepared at the American Museum of Natural History. They are not prepared at the American Museum of Natural History. It does not sell such slides, nor will it receive any of this money. It has no relation to the matter. By chapter 489 of the Laws of 1899 the State Superintendent of Public Instruction was authorized to furnish additional facilities for instruction in natural history, geography and kindred subjects by means of pictorial representation and lectures. Any school may have the use of apparatus provided for by this act by paying for it, or may purchase such apparatus outright; and it is intended by this resolution that the Board of Education shall purchase some of this apparatus outright. It will purchase it in effect from the State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

It is, of course, desirable that such visual instruction should be given to the young, and it is necessary that if the advantages of the Act are to be received a resolution for the purchase of the slides without public letting be adopted. Your committee accordingly recommend the adoption of the annexed resolution, which has been drafted by the committee.

Department of Education, City of New York,
Board of Education,
Park avenue and Fifty-ninth street,
New York, February 3, 1903.

Hon. CHARLES V. FORNES, President, Board of Aldermen:

Dear Sir—I beg leave to transmit herewith a certified copy of a report and resolution adopted by the Board of Education on February 2, 1903, requesting the Board of Aldermen to authorize the Board of Education, in accordance with the provisions of section 419 of the Greater New York Charter, to expend in the year 1903, without public letting, a sum not to exceed $10,000 for the purchase of lantern slides and similar materials prepared at the American Museum of Natural History, the same being chargeable to the Supply Fund applicable to the several boroughs of The City of New York for the year 1903, said expenditures to be made in extension of the facilities provided free for visual instruction in the public schools by the State of New York under the provisions of chapter 489 of the Laws of 1899.

Very respectfully,

A. EMERSON PALMER, Secretary, Board of Education.

To the Board of Education:

The Committee on Studies and Text Books respectfully reports that under the provisions of chapter 489 of the Laws of 1899 the State Department of Public Instruction furnishes, through the American Museum of Natural History, located in New York City, to every city in the State, projection apparatus and slides for visual instruction in natural history, geography and history.

The slides prepared at the American Museum of Natural History are furnished to The City of New York to the number of ten sets of each series prepared yearly. The subjects of illustration are carefully selected, and the slides are prepared with great skill and are superior in quality to those prepared by the Smithsonian Institution or anywhere else in the United States. Additional sets of slides are furnished to purchasers at cost.

In order that the use of this material may be extended to each school in the City, it is desirable that these slides and materials for illustration be furnished in the several districts for the use of the schools therein.

The following resolution is therefore submitted for adoption:

Resolved, That the Board of Aldermen be, and it is hereby, respectfully requested to authorize the Board of Education, in accordance with the provisions of section 419 of the Greater New York Charter, to expend in the year 1903, without public letting, a sum not to exceed $10,000 for the purchase of lantern slides and similar materials prepared at the American Museum of Natural History, the same being chargeable to the Supply Fund applicable to the several boroughs of The City of New York for the year 1903, said expenditures to be made in extension of the facilities provided free for visual instruction in the public schools by the State of New York under the provisions of chapter 489 of the Laws of 1899.

A true copy of a report and resolution adopted by the Board of Education February 2, 1903.

A. EMERSON PALMER, Secretary, Board of Education.

Resolved, That the Board of Education be, and hereby is, authorized, in accordance with the provisions of section 419 of the Greater New York Charter, to expend in the year 1903, without public letting, a sum not to exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for the purchase of lantern slides and similar materials, the same being chargeable to the Supply Fund applicable to the several boroughs of The City of New York for the year 1903, the said expenditures to be made in extension of the facilities provided free for visual instruction in the public schools by the State of New York under the provisions of chapter 489 of the Laws of 1899.

HERBERT PARSONS, FREDERICK W. LONGFELLOW, JAMES H. McINNES, JOHN L. FLORENCE, WILLIAM T. JAMES, JOHN T. McCALL, TIMOTHY P. SULLIVAN, Committee on Finance.

Which was laid over.

GENERAL ORDERS, AGAIN RESUMED.

Alderman Meyers called up General Order 241, being a minority report, as follows:

No. 1305.

November 25, 1902.

To the Board of Aldermen of The City of New York:

The undersigned, a minority of the committee appointed by the Board of Aldermen to confer with a committee of the Rapid Transit Commissioners and representatives of the Pennsylvania, New York and Long Island Railroad for the purpose of securing certain alterations in the certificate of the Board of Rapid Transit Commissioners granting a tunnel franchise to the said railroad company, respectfully beg to report: That it considers the amendments to the franchise which were conceded by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, although of considerable importance, are not sufficient to protect the City in so important a public franchise. The three vitally important contentions which the railroad company positively refuse to accept are as follows: First, that the tunnel should not be used for the transportation of freight. To this I would say that if the statement made by the railroad company is true that "it would be impossible from a technical engineering standpoint to use the tunnel for freight purposes" and that "it would be a vastly more expensive method of moving freight than by water," and that "the company's officials have no intention of making any use of the tunnel except for passenger traffic," then the word "freight" should be eliminated from the franchise. Second, that the amount of the compensation to be annually paid to the City should be increased. I consider that the compensation which the City will annually derive from this franchise is absolutely inadequate. The City of New York will derive for the first ten years only $25,535 per year for the franchise when the road is in actual operation. The amount of $14,000 per year which is to be charged for vault permits for Thirty-first and Thirty-third streets, and the $36,000 per year which the City will receive for the rental of West Thirty-second street, is no part of the franchise, as it simply recompenses the City for City property used by a corporation. The Pennsylvania Company on its invested capital of $50,000,000 doubtless does expect a return of at least 5 per cent. net income, which would be $2,500,000 per year. To obtain it, they propose to pay to The City of New York only $25,535 annually. It is evident that a purely passenger traffic would not warrant the outlay of fifty millions of dollars by this corporation. By the terms of the contract they have the power to "transport over the said railroad, passengers, or freight, or both." It can readily be seen that they have the power to use this tunnel exclusively for passengers or exclusively for freight, if they so desire. Consequently, some provision should be made that if this tunnel is used mainly or exclusively for freight, a price per ton of freight or a price per car of freight going in either direction from the City, should pay a revenue to the City. As this company will derive a large revenue for transporting passengers to and from the City, the gross receipts of such passenger traffic should be taxed. When the tunnel franchise was granted to the New Jersey Company to build a terminal at Christopher and West streets, the gross receipts from the traffic within the City estimated at $300,000 each year was taxed at a rate of 3 per cent. for the first ten years and 5 per cent. for the next fifteen years. We fail to see that if this was considered proper in the tunnel franchise to the New Jersey Company why it should not be considered proper and just to the Pennsylvania Tunnel Company, who seeks almost precisely the same franchise. The New Jersey Company tunnel franchise sought only a terminal in The City of New York. The Pennsylvania Company franchise seeks not only a terminal for its Pennsylvania system on the west side of the City, but also a terminal for their Long Island system on the east side of the City with a connecting tunnel between. The future of this through tunnel connecting two great systems of railroads is one that can only be conjectured. It is stated on reliable authority that the real object of the Pennsylvania Company in seeking a franchise through The City of New York is to increase its terminal facilities on the eastern end of Long Island. Whether this scheme is true or not is a question beyond the knowledge of the members of this committee, but the feasibility of it has been demonstrated by freight experts. The City's shipping, towboat, lighterage, dockage and storehouse interests, which involve the investment of millions of dollars, are entitled to grave consideration in the discussion of this franchise. When it is considered that when the first period of the readjustment of the compensation for the franchise has arrived, the Pennsylvania Company figuring their income at the rate of 5 per cent. on their invested capital, will have received $62,500,000 profits on their franchise and that the City will have received during the same period only $1,018,415 for the franchise, it clearly shows that the compensation which is to be charged for this franchise is absolutely inadequate. The fact that the compensation is greater than any other franchise heretofore granted by the City, does not mitigate in its favor because no sub-surface franchise was ever before granted by the City. Third, that the eight-hour law clause should be made a condition of the franchise. It is conceded that the larger part of the amount which the Pennsylvania Company proposes to expend in the construction of this road will be used for workmen, and some protection both as to their hours of employment and of the amount which they would receive in return for their labor, should be made a condition of this franchise. The mechanics and workmen of this City have labored honestly and persistently to better their condition, and the State of New York, in recognition of their claims, has enacted the eight-hour laws in obedience to the request of labor, and any company seeking a public franchise should be compelled to agree to what the law considers just and right. The labor organizations of the City demand as a condition of this franchise that the eight-hour clause and the arbitration clause be made. We think their claim to the insertion of these clauses proper and just. We do not believe that the statements of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, or any other company seeking a public franchise, that they will properly safeguard the interests of labor, are to be taken. The very attitude assumed by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company in positively declining to the insertion of this clause, shows conclusively that they propose to use their own discretion as to the number of hours per day which laborers shall be employed. If it is true, as expressed by the officials of the company, that the very nature of the work will preclude the possibility of working men over eight hours per day on the tunnel construction, what possible objection can they have to the agreement of inserting a clause that workmen shall not be compelled to work to exceed eight hours per day? The attitude assumed by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company during the miners' strike in the State of Pennsylvania certainly does not commend itself to the action of workmen residing in this City. Allowing that this franchise is of the greatest possible benefit to the City, as it doubtless will be to the Pennsylvania Company, some guarantee must be given to workmen residing in this City that their interests will be amply protected. It is with the full realization of the importance of this franchise and of securing to the City and the laboring class who reside herein the greatest possible benefits which will accrue, that I ask that this franchise again be returned to the Rapid Transit Commission for the changes as above suggested.

Very respectfully submitted, T. P. SULLIVAN.

Mr. WILLIAM C. REDFIELD, Commissioner of Public Works:

Dear Sir—I return you herewith petition for regulating, grading and paving with asphalt pavement Bath avenue from Fourteenth to Twenty-third avenue. The items are:

Provided that such time may be extended under and for causes specified in section 99 of the Railroad Law, and the Board of Estimate and Apportionment may extend such time for period or periods not exceeding one year if, in their discretion, it seems best so to do, and that the City officials or departments who or which shall at the time of such construction have authority over the said avenues, streets, roads, highways, bridges and viaducts may extend such time for a period or periods not exceeding one year further, if reasonable, in their judgment, by reason of requirements as to the manner of construction imposed by the City officials.

Or in case of failure to keep the said terms and conditions of this grant relating to the headways of cars, fenders and wheel guards and the heating of the cars and the watering of the street pavement, the said company shall pay a penalty of $50 a day for each day of violation, and the further sum of $10 a day for each car which shall not properly be heated or supplied with fenders and wheel guards in case of the violation of the provisions relating to those matters. No action or proceeding or rights under the provisions of this section shall affect any other legal rights, remedies or causes of action belonging to The City of New York.

Sec. 8. This grant shall not become operative until said railway company shall duly execute, under its corporate seal, an instrument in writing wherein said company shall promise, covenant and agree on its part and behalf to conform to and abide by and perform all the terms and conditions and requirements in this ordinance fixed and contained, and file the same in the office of the Comptroller of the City of New York.

PROPOSALS FOR BIDS AND ESTIMATES FOR THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS TO BIDDERS.

The person or persons making a bid or estimate for any services, work, materials or supplies for The City of New York, or for any of its departments, bureaus or offices, shall furnish the same in a sealed envelope, indorsed with the title of the supplies, materials, work or services for which the bid or estimate is made, with his or their name or names and the date of presentation to the President or Board or to the head of the Department at his or its office, on or before the date and hour named in the advertisement for the same, at which time and place the estimates received will be publicly opened by the President or Board or head of said Department, and read, and the award of the contract made according to law as soon thereafter as practicable.

Each bid or estimate shall contain the name and place of residence of the person making the same, the names of all persons interested with him therein, and, if no other person be so interested, it shall distinctly state that fact; also, that it is made without any connection with any other person making an estimate for the same purpose, and is in all respects fair and without collusion or fraud, and that no member of the Board of Aldermen, head of a department, chief of a bureau, deputy thereof, or clerk therein, or other officer of The City of New York is, shall be or become interested, directly or indirectly, as contracting party, partner, stockholder, surety or otherwise in or in the performance of the contract, or in the supplies, work or business to which it relates, or in any portion of the profits thereof. The bid or estimate must be verified by the oath, in writing, of the party or parties making the estimate that the several matters stated herein are in all respects true.

Each bid or estimate shall be accompanied by the consent, in writing, of two householders or freeholders in The City of New York, or of a guaranty or surety company duly authorized by law to act as surety, and shall contain the matters set forth in the blank forms mentioned below.

No bid or estimate will be considered unless as a condition precedent to the reception or consideration of any proposal, it be accompanied by a certified check upon one of the State or National banks of The City of New York, drawn to the order of the Comptroller, or money to the amount of five per centum of the amount of the bond required, as provided in section 420 of the Greater New York Charter.

The certified check or money should not be inclosed in the envelope containing the bid or estimate, but should be either inclosed in a separate envelope addressed to the head of the Department, President or Board, or submitted personally upon the presentation of the bid or estimate.

For particulars as to the quantity and quality of the supplies, or the nature and extent of the work, reference must be made to the specifications, schedules, plans, etc., on file in the said office of the President, Board or Department.

No bid shall be accepted from or contract awarded to any person who is in arrears to The City of New York upon debt or contract, or who is a defaulter, as surety or otherwise, upon any obligation to the City.

The contracts must be bid for separately. The right is reserved in each case to reject all bids or estimates if it is deemed to be for the interest of the City so to do.

Bidders will write out the amount of their bids or estimates in addition to inserting the same in figures.

Bidders are requested to make their bids or estimates upon the blank forms prepared and furnished by the City, a copy of which, with the proper envelope in which to inclose the bid, together with a copy of the contract, including the specifications, in the form approved by the Corporation Counsel, can be obtained upon application therefor at the office of the Department for which the work is to be done. Plans and drawings of construction work may also be seen there.
