By order of the Board.

EMMONS CLARK, Secretary.

HEALTH DEPARTMENT OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

Bureau of Vital Statistics, May 19, 1874.

To the Secretary of the Board of Health:

SIR—In the week that ended on Saturday, the 16th inst., there were 561 deaths reported in this city, against 488 reported in the previous week, and 550 in the week ending May 2d. The fluctuations in the weekly mortality are less marked than those of temperature of the season, yet they are greatly influenced by the latter.

The apparent increase in deaths last week began with the rise of temperature which suddenly on Saturday the 9th inst., rose to 82 degrees Fahr., and the following day to 90 degrees and a mean of 79.3 degrees. But at day-break on Tuesday the mercury was 40 degrees. In the midst of these extreme changes, and for a day or two following, the average of daily mortality increased. The increased number of deaths charged to bronchitis amounted to 16; to whooping-cough, 6; and of infants under a year old, 25; of children under 5 years of age, 47; and of persons 70 years and older, 15 more deaths were reported than in the previous week. No epidemic is prevailing, and no increase in the prevalence and fatality of diphtheria is perceived except in the 19th and 22d wards.

The death rate for the week, ending May 9th, was equal to 24.93 per 1,000 annually, and for the month of April it was equal to 27.39 per 1,000. The rate of mortality in London for the same four weeks was 20.25 per 1,000, and in twenty-one chief cities of Great Britain it was 23.50 per 1,000. The rate reported for the four weeks ending April 25th in Paris was 24.65 per 1,000; in Berlin, 28; and in Vienna 31.75 per 1,000. The steadily low rate of mortality in London, the largest city of the world, with its three and a quarter millions of inhabitants, and with 121,000 infants added yearly, invites attention to the sanitary problems that are being solved in that vast population.

Respectfully submitted,

ELISHA HARRIS, M.D.,
Registrar of Vital Statistics.

CHAP. 303.

AN ACT in relation to the estimates and apportionment for the support of the government of the county of New York.

SECTION 1. The Board of Estimate and Apportionment constituted by section one of chapter seven hundred and seventy-nine of the laws of eighteen hundred and seventy-three, is hereby authorized by a concurrent vote of all the members thereof, at any time before the first day of July, eighteen hundred and seventy-four, to reconsider, revise and re-determine the estimate heretofore made under the provisions of said act for the year eighteen hundred and seventy-four, and the estimates so reconsidered, revised and re-determined and approved by the concurrent vote of all said members, shall thereby be appropriated as the amount of money required to defray all the various expenses necessary for conducting the county government and for supporting inmates of asylums, reformatories and charitable institutions chargeable by existing provisions of law upon the county of New York, and for defraying all legal charges against the county of New York under special laws, and also for paying the interest on the county debt and the principal of such debt falling due in the year eighteen hundred and seventy-four, and the proportion of the State tax for the year eighteen hundred and seventy-four payable by said county, and thereupon to fix and determine the amount of such estimates and various expenses and charges after deducting the estimated amount of county revenue not otherwise appropriated by law, which amount when so fixed and determined, shall be certified to the Board of Supervisors of the County of New York by the Comptroller, and said Board of Supervisors are hereby empowered and directed to cause the amount so certified to be levied and collected in the year eighteen hundred and seventy-four, by tax upon the estates within the County of New York subject to taxation. But the aggregate amount of the estimates for the year eighteen hundred and seventy-four, to be made by the said Board of Estimate and Apportionment, shall not exceed the amount of the estimate heretofore made by the said Board as aforesaid. In the estimate so to be made no sum shall be included except the same be appropriated for a specified department or purpose, and no sum shall be appropriated for any time to transfer any appropriation for any year which may be found by the head of the department for which such appropriation shall have been made to be in excess of the amount required or deemed to be necessary for the purposes or objects thereof, to such other purposes or objects for which the estimate is made of the expenses of conducting the public business of the County of New York for the next succeeding fiscal year, that there will be a surplus or balance remaining unexpended of any appropriation then existing at the end of the current fiscal year, such surplus may be applied to like purposes in the next succeeding year.

The said Board of Estimate and Apportionment shall have the power at any time to transfer any appropriation for any year which may be found by the head of the department for which such appropriation shall have been made to be in excess of the amount required or deemed to be necessary for the purposes or objects thereof, to such other purposes or objects for which the estimate is made of the expenses of conducting the public business of the County of New York for the next succeeding fiscal year, that there will be a surplus or balance remaining unexpended of any appropriation then existing at the end of the current fiscal year, such surplus may be applied to like purposes in the next succeeding year.

SEC. 3. SEC. 4. This act shall take effect immediately.

STATE OF NEW YORK,
Office of the Secretary of State.

DEAR SIR: Representations have been made to me that Andrew L. Roberts, now in custody in the City Prison, is in such a state of health as to require his removal to the hospital.

Will you do me the favor to have an examination made at once of Mr. Roberts' condition, and if you find that such removal would be advisable, will you take steps to have it done. It has been suggested to me that it may be better that some physician, other than the one in charge of the City Prison, should make the examination.

I am, very truly, yours,

BENJ. K. PHELPS,

District Attorney.

CITY PRISON, May 9, 1874.

Andrew Roberts has had quincy sore throat. He is much better. I see at present no reason for removing him to the hospital.

Respectfully,

A. CLARK.

To the Commissioners of Public Charities and Correction:

GENTLEMEN—My attention has just been called to a communication made to your Board, April 20, by one of its members, Commissioner Stern, and published in the CITY RECORD of April 27, and also in the Evening Post, relating to myself and the Reception Hospitals, which communication contains errors of statement as to the facts of sufficient importance to demand correction. Mr. Stern says, speaking particularly of the Park Hospital, "the number and gravity of the surgical cases that come within the scope, demand for it the most careful and intelligent attention. Appreciating the importance of the position, the Board of Commissioners changed the jurisdiction of the Medical Board of Bellevue Hospital, and appointed one of its members as Surgeon-in-Chief, who, from his eminent talent, is well qualified for the position, but who, from the various distinguished posts he occupies and the extensive private practice he enjoys cannot, from want of time, pay that constant supervision and personal attention to the Reception Hospitals as the interest of the public and the welfare required."

In reply, I wish to say that I was appointed to essentially the same office which I now hold in November, 1872, I believe before Mr. Stern was a Commissioner, and the reason assigned by the gentleman who called upon me to ask whether I would accept the position was, that great difficulty had been experienced in finding a surgeon to answer promptly the calls of the Resident Physician, and it was thought necessary to appoint one person who should hold himself responsible whenever called. I was assured that I would not be expected to make more than about one visit per week to the hospitals (these hospitals are six miles apart), but that a summons would be expected to be answered promptly. I was also requested to suggest, from time to time, such alterations in their management as their condition might seem to me to demand.

At first my duties were supplementary to those of the Bellevue Surgeons, but subsequently the duty of acting as consulting and visiting Surgeon was devolved exclusively upon me.

I have already informed you how I have performed my duties as a consulting officer, having responded promptly to every summons. Before the appointment of Dr. Fluhrer to the place of Resident Physician at the Park Hospital, I was frequently summoned to this Hospital, and during my entire term of service a large portion of my visits to the 99th Street Hospital were in response to calls. I have even denied myself my usual Summer vacation in order that I might attend faithfully to this public duty.

Mr. Stern says that I performed no operations at the Park Hospital during the year of Dr. Fluhrer's service as Resident Physician and was present at but two, and he adds that the unfrequency of my visits admits of but two explanations, either confidence in Dr. Fluhrer, or want of time. I will suggest another reason. During the year of Dr. Fluhrer's service he has summoned me but three or four times, and most of the nine amputations as well as other capital operations made by him were made without my knowledge. I have more than once called his attention to this omission to summon me in these and other cases requiring capital operations, including a case of strangulated hernia, in some of which, at least, there was ample time for consultation. With one or two exceptions my presence during his operations was accidental. I made an amputation of the thigh on the 4th of April and Dr. Fluhrer made one on the 21st, both patients died.

Mr. Stern compares the number of visits made by me to the Park Hospital during the year 1873, with those made by the Bellevue Hospital surgeons in 1872, and finds a difference of eighteen in favor of the latter, but he has omitted to make a similar comparison in relation to the 99th Street Hospital. Up to April 1, 1873, only eleven visits are recorded, and five of these were made by myself, while in 1873, I made fifty-one (51) visits to the 99th Street Hospital, and seventy-one (71) to the Park, in all, one hundred and twenty-two (122).

The comparison of the results of operations in the two reception hospitals does great injustice to the able gentlemen who have been in charge of the 99th Street Hospital, situated in a neighborhood where large public works are in progress, and where serious accidents from blasting, and the removal of heavy stones, are of frequent occurrence. The nature of the accidents has been constantly of the gravest character.

An examination of the records will show that eight amputations were made at the 99th Street Hospital, and nine at the Park. All of the amputations made at 99th street were in the lower extremities; 4 recovered and 4 died; of those who died two (?) are reported in the books as having died of pyaemia, but I think one of them is recorded erroneously, and was probably septicaemia. No other cases of death from pyaemia are on record for that year. Of the nine (9) amputations at the Park Hospital, four (4) belonged to the upper extremities and five to the lower. Of the upper extremity amputations three out of four recovered; of the lower extremity, two out of five (5) recovered. Surgeons understand that this difference as to fatality always exists between the two extremities, and the record in this point of view, as favorable for the 99th street than for the Park; but in so small a number of cases this may be merely accidental. Certainly, the results furnish no evidence of the better management in the Park than in 99th street.

Mr. Stern says, pyaemia is stamped out at the Park, and that it continues a frequent cause of death at 99th street.

The records show one death from pyaemia at the Park, but as this was on the 7th day after Dr. Fluhrer took charge, he perhaps cannot be properly held responsible for the result; and only two from same cause at 99th street. But pyaemia is not peculiar to hospitals. Mr. Birket, of London, has recently reported twenty-three cases in private practice, and every surgeon meets with it occasionally, in the best ventilated and best constructed houses. It is said in the communication referred to, that there is another strong reason why a competent supervising surgeon should be engaged at the Reception Hospitals besides the present Surgeon-in-Chief. The latter is one of the leading members of the Bellevue Medical Board, and it has often been insinuated that great prejudice exists in favor of Bellevue Hospital, and that thereby its members are liable to abuse the power of transfer of patients, and use the Reception Hospitals as feeders to clinics, transporting the greatest surgical injuries to a distant amphitheatre of operations.

Mr. Stern has never heard from any source such a charge made against me. I am conscious of a reputation above such a slander, and my years of faithful service under the Commissioners of Public Charities and Correction, without compensation, should have saved me from so unjust an insinuation. So far as I know, during my term of service, the only instance in which a patient was sent to Bellevue for a clinic, was in the case of a patient with two broken thighs, sent to a Bellevue clinic by Dr. Fluhrer for the purpose of showing a mode of dressing devised by himself. This was done without my knowledge or approval.

Mr. Stern says: "The last nomination by the surgeon-in-chief of the Park Hospital staff was unfortunate, and was not done by concurrence, for all the appointments were made without examination, two of which have subsequently been rejected by an examining Board as incompetent to hold their positions." I do not understand what is meant by the statement that my nomination "was not done by concurrence," but as it is evidently intended to make me responsible for improper appointments, I reply that Mr. Stern knows that I first suggested and have constantly urged the necessity of competitive examination, and that your Board, and not myself, is responsible for their omission. I was required by you, however, to nominate, and I nominated the two gentlemen you mention, and others, all of whom were graduates in medicine. You decided subsequently that they should undergo an examination. Drs. Early and Campbell were examined, and recommended by the examining Board, and you appointed them. Of the two gentlemen said to have been rejected as incompetent by the Board, one did not come forward, as he was at the time on leave of absence in Kentucky. He was not therefore declared incompetent. The other had served at Charity Hospital, and as ambulance surgeon under your Board for more than a year, satisfactorily, and with his appointment I had nothing to do, but his advancement as a faithful officer I recommended when you insisted upon nominations. He was not declared by the examining Board (of which I was chairman) as incompetent to hold his position. He was subjected to a competitive examination for promotion, and failed to win. Nor is this surprising, when it is known that his competitors numbered about eighteen—that they were composed of choice men, and fresh from the three leading medical schools of the city, while the gentleman referred to had been more than a year out of his studies, and had but two days' notice that an examination would be required. It is no evidence of his lack of qualification or that he was incompetent for the place he occupied that he was distanced in a race so unequal. Such are the facts upon which Mr. Stern bases the statement that my nominations were "unfortunate." You will pardon me, gentlemen, for having occupied your time with this long communication, but I was entrusted by you with certain duties which I have striven to perform in the spirit and letter of your wishes.

And the character of Mr. Stern's communication seemed to render a full and complete statement of the facts relating to my administration necessary.

Very respectfully, yours,

FRANK H. HAMILTON,

Surgeon-in-Chief,
Reception Hospitals.

I wish to add that the number of cases of pyaemia during any one year either at the Ninety-ninth Street or Park Hospital has not been sufficient to imply that it was spread by infection, unless I except the year 1871, during which there were 4 cases in the Park Hospital. In 1870 there was 1 in the Park Hospital; in 1871 there were 4; in 1872 there were 2, and in 1873 there were 1. Considering the larger number of severe cases received during the

NEW YORK, May 8, 1874.

To the Board of Commissioners of Public Charities and Correction:

GENTLEMEN:—The press of this city published yesterday the copy of a presentation by the Grand Jury to the Court of General Sessions in its last session, which reflected greatly on the actions of this Board, in regard to certain purchases charged to have been made in a manner at once wasteful and extravagant, leading to corruption.

The publication in the press was the only notice which this Board has of said presentation, and in order to ascertain the truth of it, I applied to the Honorable the District Attorney for information. In reply, I received the annexed communication.

CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK,
District Attorney's Office,
May 7, 1874.

April 29, 1874.

The People against John Doe.—After hearing and carefully considering the evidence in the case of the People against John Doe, which evidence is duly annexed, the Grand Jury would respectfully present the following summary of their views in the matter. They find that since the 1st of May, 1873, the dry goods bought by the Commissioners of Charities and Correction have been purchased in a manner at once wasteful and extravagant, leading directly to corruption, and which, in the interest of the reputation of the Commissioners, as well as of the City of New York, should be at once reformed.

BENJAMIN H. DAY, Foreman.
FRANCIS ENDICOTT, Secretary.

DEAR SIR:—The above is a true copy of the presentment made by the last Grand Jury of the Court of General Sessions, and handed in by them on the day it bears date.

Yours truly,
BENJ. K. PHELPS,
District Attorney.

There is nothing easier than to be misled by one-sided stories, misrepresentations or wilful misconstruction, especially when the same is made with vicious motives, and by sensible people they are generally ignored; but when they are sown broadcast under the authority of so high a body as the Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, they not only deserve our greatest attention, but require our earnest consideration. They can neither be ignored nor refuted by a superficial statement. The whole Board is charged not only with a dereliction of duty, but what is worse, with a perversion of its office and power to corrupt purposes. Our duty in this matter seems plain to me. Either the charges are true or they are false. If true, the guilty party is no longer worthy of the station of trust and honor which he occupies. If, on the contrary, not true, and grounded on false or malicious statements, not a moment should be lost to vindicate our character, and the character of this Board, by making such publications as will abash the originators of this base slander. There is, in my opinion, only one way which we can arrive at such a result, and that is by requesting the Chief Magistrate of this City, to whose confidence we owe the high position, and who, by Section 25 (page 83) of the Charter, is the only authorized authority to remove heads of Departments, to make a full and thorough investigation of each and every transaction of this Board, either as individuals or collective, as members of this Board, in the manner of making contracts and purchasing supplies, and take such further action as he deems requisite in the premises, and as will fully develop each and every matter connected with the subject.

I therefore beg leave to offer the following resolution for your adoption:

Resolved, That his Honor the Mayor be, and is hereby respectfully requested to make a full, thorough and complete investigation into the alleged charges implied in the presentment of the Grand Jury of the City of New York, of April 20, 1874; into each and every transaction of this Board, either as individuals or collective members of this Board, in the manner of making contracts and purchasing all description of supplies, as pursued by this Department since the 1st day of May, 1873, and take such further actions as he deems requisite, proper and just in the premises.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

MYER STERN,
Commissioner.

May 8, 1874. By the Board.

On motion, the communication was received, resolution adopted and copy ordered to be transmitted to the Mayor.

By Commissioner Stern.
Resolved, That the duties of the Supervising Surgeon to the Park and 99th street Reception Hospital Doctor William F. Fleuhrer, until more definitely defined be daily visits to the Park Hospital, and three times each week to the 99th street Hospital, and to carefully supervise the treatment of all patients of surgery, also during leave of absence to Doctor Early to perform all capital operations and notify consulting Surgeon Doctor Hamilton of the same.

Adopted by the Board May 9th, 1874.

MEYER STERN,
JAS. BOWEN.
