

NYC DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND MENTAL HYGIENE'S MOBILE FOOD VENDING
REPORT PURSUANT TO NYC ADMINISTRATIVE CODE § 17-325.2
COVERING THE PERIOD JUNE 1, 2021 TO MAY 31, 2022

- (i) Number of food vendor license renewals denied and the basis for each such denial, including but not limited to outstanding or multiple violations of the provisions of subchapter two of chapter three of title 17 of the administrative code:

No food vendor license renewals were denied. If the Department received renewal applications from licensees who had outstanding unpaid violations, the applications were not processed so that the vendors could resolve the outstanding fines.

- (ii) Number of food vending pushcart or vehicle permit renewals denied and the basis for each such denial, including but not limited to outstanding or multiple violations of the provisions of subchapter two of chapter three of title 17 of the administrative code:

The Department does not deny an application to renew a mobile food vending permit that is complete, timely submitted and where the mobile unit passes an inspection. 519 permit-holders did not timely complete permit renewal applications and the permits were, accordingly, not renewed.

- (iii) Number of food vendor license suspensions pursuant to section 17-317 of the administrative code and the basis for each such suspension:

No food vendor licenses were suspended.

- (iv) Number of food vending pushcart or vehicle permit suspensions pursuant to section 17-317 of the administrative code and the basis for each such suspension:

No food vending pushcart or vehicle permit renewals were suspended.

- (v) Number of food vendor license revocations pursuant to section 17-317 of the administrative code and the basis for each such revocation:

No food vendor licenses were revoked pursuant to section 17-317 of the Administrative Code.

- (vi) Number of food vending pushcart or vehicle permit revocations pursuant to 17-317 of the administrative code and the basis for each such revocation:

No food vending pushcart or vehicle permit renewals were revoked by the Department.
