449	Equal Employment Practices Commission (EEPC)	Annual Report	EEPC audits city agencies' equal employment practices and makes a preliminary determination. If the agency has not provided equal employment opportunity as decided by EEPC, recommendations are made and the agency has the opportunity to respond. If proposed corrective actions by agency are not considered sufficient, EEPC can make a final determination with recommended corrective action; the agency then responds within 30 days on corrective actions it will take and reports monthly to the commission. After 6 months, EEPC will determine if more action needs to be taken, notify the agency and report to the Mayor. This is all part of the audit process for EEPC.
