CITY PRISON.
BOROUGH OF BROOKLYN.

July 3, 1908.

Hon. JOHN V. COGGEY, Commissioner of Correction:

Dear Sir—I most respectfully submit the second quarterly report of the City Prison, Borough of Brooklyn, for the quarter commencing April 1, 1908, and ending June 30, 1908.

Owing to the extensive plumbing contract which is now under way in the male prison, and the awaiting of the awarding of contracts which provide for large alterations and improvements in this building, we have not been able to accomplish much other than to attend to the daily routine of cleaning and repairs.

Much the same is to be said of the female prison, as the new prison for this class has reached that point that we have been expecting the taking down of the old structure from week to week, and have only directed our efforts to the cleaning and daily repairs.

The female prisoners have been engaged daily in scrubbing in and about the administration building and washing and ironing in laundry of prison.

Work accomplished by Carpenter during past quarter: Erecting 4 stalls for horses in stable, making 10 benches for use in male prison, erecting in prison clothes room 75 boxes for prisoners' clothes, repairing and relaying floor of large platform scale, repairing window sashes, furniture, chairs, etc.

Painting done during past quarter, painting and regilding altar for Catholic and Protestant chapel, painting bridge connecting female prison and administration building, painting and repairing roof of kitchen and boiler house, whitewashing cellar of male prison and east wall of yard, cutting out joints and pointing up east wall of yard with Portland cement.

All of above work performed by unpaid prison labor.

Appended herewith please find a statement showing the number of prisoners at commencement of quarter, number received, discharged and disposed of, the amount of fines received from Special Sessions and ten City Magistrates' Courts, which have been paid monthly to the City Chamberlain, as the law requires.

Respectfully yours,

WM. H. McLAUGHLIN, Warden.
