Whereas, Chapter 919 of the laws of 1869, being "An act in relation to the new passenger depot of the New York and Harlem Railroad being "An act in relation to the new passenger depot of the New York and Harlem Railroad Company at Forty-second street, in the City of New York, and to alter the map or plan of said city," by section 1, provides, "That the New York and Harlem Railroad Company are authorized to use, in the construction of their new passenger depot, that part of the Fourth avenue lying between the westerly side of Fourth and a line drawn parallel thereto, at a distance of fifty feet westerly from the easterly side of Fourth avenue, and extending from the northerly side of Forty-second street to the southerly side of Forty-fifth street, in the City of New York;" thereby providing that fifty feet of the said Fourth avenue east of the new depot, should be continued as a public thoroughfare; and

Whereas, The said New York and Harlem Railroad Company, since the completion and occupation of the said new depot, have continued to use and occupy, to the total exclusion of the public, the portion of said Fourth avenue lying between the new depot and the easterly side of the avenue above Forty-second street; the rails which were temporarily used during the construction of the depot, still occupy and obstruct the said avenue; and the said Fourth avenue east of and above the new depot, for a considerable distance, is absolutely closed, so far as the public use thereof is concerned, and is used, and occupied exclusively by the rails, cars, wagons, &c., of the said railroad company, constituting public use thereof is concerned, and is used, and occupied exclusively by the rails, cars, wagons, &c., of the said railroad company, constituting thereby a public nuisance, seriously incommoding the public, and preventing the use of the said avenue by those to whom it rightfully belongs; be it therefore

Resolved, That the New York and Harlem Railroad Company be and is hereby directed to remove the rails and other obstructions on the Fourth avenue, both from the carriageway and sidewalks on the east side of the new passenger sidewalks on the east side of the new passenger depot, and extending northwardly from the northerly side of Forty-second street as far as such obstruction extends, and not affected by the Fourth avenue improvement, now in progress, as provided by the act, chapter 702, laws of 1872, so as to restore the said Fourth avenue to the free and unobstructed use of the public; and be free and unobstructed use of the public; and be it further Resolved, That the Commissioner of Public Works be, and he is hereby directed immediately to serve a copy of these resolutions upon the President, Superintendent or Engineer of the said New York and Harlem Railroad Company, at the same time notifying such officer that the provisions of said resolutions must be complied with, within a period of thirty days from the date of such notification; and in the event of neglect or refusal on the part of said company so to comply with such directions, the Commissioner of Public Works is hereby further directed to remove such track, and other obstructions, and restore the carriageway of Fourth avenue and the sidewalk thereof, above Forty-second streets, so as to conform to other portions or said Fourth avenue, and to sue for and recover from the said railroad company the cost thereof; and in addition, such neglect or refusal shall subject the said railroad company to a fine of one hundred dollars per day for every day such obstructions to the free use of said Fourth avenue or any part thereof shall continue after the expiration of the 30 days mentioned in such notification, to be sue for and recovered in the manner now provided by law for the recovery of penaltics for violation of the ordinances of the Common Council, upon the complaint of the said Commissioner of Public Works, or any citizen inconvenienced or injured by the neglect or refusal of the said New lic Works, or any citizen inconvenienced or injured by the neglect or refusal of the said New York and Harlem Railroad Company to comply with the provisions of these resolutions.

REPORTS.

The Committee on Ordinances of the Board of Assistant Aldermen, to whom was referred a resolution directing the Commissioner of Public Works to remove all obstructions on the sidewalks on the Eighth avenue, from Thirty-second to Fortieth streets, respectfully REPORT:

That they have carefully examined into the subject referred to, and they are of the opinion that the Commissioner of Public Works should immediately carry out the provisions of the an-nexed resolution, as numerous complaints are being made by different persons about the way the sidewalks are blockaded, and the view of the avenue obstructed on account of the suspension of dry goods, wares, &c., on awnings and awning posts, which is used only for business purposes, contrary to law, and abusing the privilege granted by an ordinance of the Common Council, for exhibiting of goods, wares, &c., inside of the stoop line only. A majority of the people doing business in the avenue have complete possession of the sidewalks to the exclusion of the privileges which belongs to pedestrians. Your committee find that accidents occur daily on the streets and avenues of this city on account of merchandise of all kinds being placed upon the sidewalks so that it is utterly impassible, and oftentimes people have to take the streets for fear of having their clothes torn in some way by such obstruction. The sidewalks are sufficiently wide enough, and merchants could, with a little care, leave space for people to pass, without any injury to avenue obstructed on account of the suspension space for people to pass, without any injury to their business. Your committee are of the opinion that no goods, merchandise, wares of any kind should be suspended over any of the side-walks of this city. It is contrary to law, and any person who should exhibit any goods, wares, &c., in the manuer above mentioned, should be
