No Trash, Recycling or Curbside Compost Collection, nor Street Cleaning, on Lincoln's Birthday, Wednesday, February 12, 2020

In observance of the Lincoln's Birthday holiday, the New York City Department of Sanitation announced that there will be no trash, recycling, or curbside composting collection on Wednesday, February 12, 2020.

- Residents who normally receive Wednesday trash and curbside compost collection should place their materials at curbside after 4 p.m. on Wednesday, February 12 for collection.
- Residents who normally receive Wednesday recycling collection should place their materials at curbside after 4 p.m. on Tuesday, February 18 for collection starting Wednesday, February 19.

To help provide city residents with Sanitation-related service reminders, updates and special event schedules, the New York City Department of Sanitation has launched DSNY Info, its smart phone and tablet app. The app also includes tips to reduce, reuse and recycle, making it easier for New Yorkers send zero waste to landfills. The free app is available for both iOS and Android operating systems, and can be found by searching DSNY Info in the Apple App and Google Play stores.

About the New York City Department of Sanitation

The Department of Sanitation (DSNY) keeps New York City healthy, safe and clean by collecting, recycling and disposing of waste, cleaning streets and vacant lots, and clearing snow and ice. The Department operates 59 district garages and manages a fleet of more than 2,000 rear-loading collection trucks, 450 mechanical brooms and 705 salt spreaders. The Department clears litter, snow and ice from approximately 6,500 miles of City streets and removes debris from vacant lots as well as abandoned vehicles from City streets.
