IV. EEO, Diversity, Inclusion and Equity Initiatives for FY 2025

Please describe your progress this quarter in implementing the primary goals in Section IV of your Agency Diversity, Equity, Inclusion and EEO Plan for FY 2025.

A. Workforce:

Please list the Goals, Planned Programs, Initiatives, and Actions aimed at Workforce included in Section IV: Diversity, Equity, Inclusion and EEO Initiatives for FY 2025, which you set/declared in your FY 2025 Diversity, Equity, Inclusion and EEO Plan (e.g., underutilization, workforce planning, succession planning and diverse applicant pool, among others).

1. [Copy the planned Workforce Goal/Program/Action from FY 2025 DEI-EEO plan]

Goal: Provide equitable access to professional development opportunities that empower employees to grow, advance, and contribute meaningfully to the organization, which will increase retention.

Please describe the steps that your agency has taken to meet this goal/initiative. Include actions aimed at the composition of your workforce, recruitment, retention, promotion, and professional development to enhance equity, inclusion, and race relations in an integrated agency workforce. Pay attention to age inclusivity, non-traditional minorities, and engagement of traditional and older employees. A well-balanced, integrated workforce should help establish your agency as a leading service provider to the citizens of New York City focused on diversity, equity, and inclusion, while reflecting the variety of communities that are served. How do you evaluate the effectiveness of these actions?

Q1--Towards the end of Q4, the agency completed focus groups with employees to discuss professional development. In Q1, the Chief Equity & Inclusion Officer in conjunction with HR staff, met throughout the quarter, analyzing the results of the climate survey and issues raised during the focus groups to identify the areas that will be prioritized during FY25.

On September 17, 2024, an agency wide email was sent advising staff of the upcoming civil service exams who had a filing deadline of September 24, 2024.

On September 20, 2024, an agency wide email was sent to all employees informing them of the filing period, for the NYC Mayor's Graduate Scholarship Program. The email included links to the program details and information sessions.

On September 23, 2024, an email was sent to all staff informing them about the upcoming activities in recognition of Customer Service Week. During Customer Service Week, the planned activities will focus on recognizing and showing appreciation for frontline staff for their hard work, dedication, and commitment to provide outstanding service each day. Additionally, the Office of Inclusion and the Training department collaborated on developing a professional development course entitled "Navigating Conflict Workshop" that will be conducted during Customer Service Week.

Q2- In conjunction with Customer Service week, HR Training and the Office of Inclusion are conducting a "Navigating Conflict Workshop" on Tuesday, October 8th 2pm -3pm and Thursday, October 10th, 11am -12pm.

The Navigating Conflict workshop was provided to provide staff with tools to increase positive outcomes when dealing with challenging conversations, learn how to de-escalate tense situations, maintain professionalism, and foster customer trust and compliance. The Workshop will also enhance employee's skills and boost their confidence in navigating difficult conversations while providing exceptional service. Both workshops were conducted virtually.

On October 30, 2024, an email was sent to all staff informing them about the Civil Service 101 information sessions and a list of the civil service exams that were scheduled to open for filing in November 2024.

On November 21, 2024, staff were provided with information about the 2024 DCAS Training Expo. The Expo provides employees two weeks of training workshops and learning opportunities for City employees at all levels and in all professional areas. Attending the Expo gives employees the chance to discover the variety of professional development trainings available at the DCAS Citywide Training Center, meet with consultants and other subject matter experts who are leaders in their fields of expertise, preview new course offerings, and network with fellow City colleagues.

On December 2, 2024, staff were encouraged to complete and submit a survey on potential initiatives identified from the climate survey and focus groups to enhance collaboration across and within divisions at the agency. The purpose of the survey was to help get employee feedback to prioritize the initiatives that matter most to employees to ensure participation.

During the months of November and December, the Chief Diversity & Inclusion Officer worked with HR Training to identify and implement the next cohort of training for new managers/supervisors that is scheduled to occur during Q3.

Q3- The next cohort to attend the Managerial Training occurred in February 2025. Additionally, during this quarter a new initiative related to the climate survey and focus group results, we planned a new initiative that will be launched during Q4 entitled, "Meet the Divisions."

Philip Randolph, the first Black union to be chartered by the American Federation of Labor. This landmark achievement helped shape the labor movement and the fight for civil rights in the United States. This event provided valuable insights into the legacy of Black workers and the ongoing importance of unions in shaping social and economic change.
- In the February edition of the agency's Diversity Newsletter included an announcement for Go Red for women day and highlighted the important facts pertaining to heart disease and women. This issue also included an article about DEI and the NFL which highlighted how the NFL chose to expand their DEI initiatives despite external pressures to eliminate DEI from their organization. As a result, in the days leading up to the Super Bowl, the NFL, in partnership with the Gay & Lesbian Alliance Against Defamation (GLAAD) and presenting sponsor Smirnoff, hosted the fourth annual "A Night of Pride" to underscore the league's ongoing commitment to the LGBTQ+ community. Since September 2023, women's viewership of the NFL increased by 18%, Female fans have driven a 400% increase in NFL apparel sales, more women are now participating in fantasy football and engaging with NFL content and the Chiefs' fanbase grew by 30%, largely due to new female viewers.

We held a thought-provoking and inspiring conversation with two amazing NYC leaders: Commissioner Laurie Cumbo, NYC Department of Cultural Affairs and Councilmember Carlina Rivera, who is also the Chair of the Committee on Cultural Affairs, Libraries, and International Intergroup Relations. We'll dive into how these dynamic women are working together to foster NYC's vibrant cultural institutions by providing visionary leadership and inclusivity within cultural institutions from museums to galleries. We discussed how they are building lasting legacies in the cultural sector.
