REPORTS.

The Committee on Fire and Building Departments, to whom was referred the accompanying petition of Henry Niebuhr to have his name inserted in the Firemen's Register, as a member of Hook and Ladder Company No. 2, New York Volunteer Fire Department, respectfully

REPORT:

REPORT : That your Committee have carefully examined Mr. Niebuhr's application, and are convinced that the favorable action of the Common Council is necessary, in order to afford him the justice he seeks, and to that end your Committee insisted that ample proof be furnished that injustice had been done him, in the neglect to properly enroll his name on the Firemen's Register as an active member of Hook and Ladder Company No. 2, in the year 1863, when he was, as he claims, elected a member of the Old Volunteer Fire Department. In the opinion of your Committee the accompanying affidavits of the petitioner, supported as it is by another affidavit, made by William Cassidy, then a member of the Company, would be suffi-cient for that purpose were no other evidence produced ; but the corroborative evidence furnished by the original annual return of Hook and Ladder Company No. 2, made under oath, by the officers of that company to John Decker, then Chief Engineer, dated May 31, 1864, and by him transmitted to the Common Council and filed in the Clerk's office, which contains the name of Mr. Niebuhr, together with the annual report of the Chief Engineer for the year 1864, printed by order of the Board of Aldermen, being Document No. 18 of that year, which also contains Mr. Niebuhr's name as an active member of said company, both of which was examined by your Committee, proves beyond question, that his claim is a valid one, and that injustice has been done him, inad-vertently, no doubt, in failing to record his name on the Firemen's Register, as an active member of the old Volunteer Fire Department, attached to Hook and Ladder Company No. 2.
