

Deadline to RSVP: Mayor Adams to Release Executive Budget and Deliver Address on First 100 Days, Future of NYC

April 22, 2022

Speech to Be Held at Historic Kings Theatre in Brooklyn

NEW YORK – On April 26th, New York City Mayor Eric Adams will deliver an address at the historic Kings Theatre in Brooklyn, where he will release his Fiscal Year 2023 Executive Budget and discuss his first 100 days in office, as well as outline his vision for the city’s continued recovery from the COVID-19 pandemic. Mayor Adams will also discuss key investments that will deliver a more vibrant future and his plans to continue to “Get Stuff Done” for all New Yorkers.

“In our first 100 days, my team has taken concrete steps to make New York City safer and more just, drive an inclusive economic recovery, and start building a city that works better for all communities,” said Mayor Adams. “But we’re just getting started, and there is much work left to be done. I look forward to addressing New Yorkers and sharing a vision for how we can build on that progress and work together to tackle the most significant challenges of this moment.”

WHEN: Tuesday, April 26th

TIME: 1:00PM

WHERE: Kings Theatre, 1027 Flatbush Avenue, Brooklyn, NY 11226

Due to limited capacity, this event is by invitation only. Members of the media interested in attending must RSVP to pressoffice@cityhall.nyc.gov no later than 11:00AM on Monday, April 25th. Additional details will be provided to those who RSVP.