Resolved, That the buildings lately constructed by the Police Department on the north side of East Fifty-first street, between Third and Lexington avenues, shall be the Station-house and Lodging-rooms of and for the Nineteenth Precinct, as hereinabove established and bounded, wherein shall be arraigned and detained, in pursuance of the rules and regulations of the department, all persons arrested by members of the Police Force for any criminal offenses.

Resolved, That the Police Force of said Precinct shall consist of one Captain, four Sergeants, two Doormen, and such number of Patrolmen as shall be from time to time assigned to duty in said

Twenty-eighth Precinct.

Resolved, That the area of the Twenty-eighth Precinct shall consist of that portion of the present Nineteenth Precinct, which is bounded and described as follows: Beginning at a point where the east line of Central Park intersects the centre line of East Seventy-ninth street; thence running easterly on the centre line of Seventy-ninth street to the line of high-tide water on the East river; thence southerly along said line of high-tide water to the centre line of East Fifth-eighth street; thence westerly along the centre line of Fifth avenue; thence northerly along the centre line of Fifth avenue to the northerly line of Fifty-ninth street; thence northerly along the centre line of Fifth avenue to the northerly line of Fifty-ninth street; thence westerly along the northerly line of Fifty-ninth street to the easterly line of Central Park; thence along said easterly line of Central Park to the place of beginning.

Resolved, That the buildings and premises No. 120 East Fifty-ninth street, formerly occupied as Station-house and Prison of the Nineteenth Precinct, shall hereafter constitute and be occupied as the Station-house, Prison, and Lodging-tooms of and for the Twenty-eighth Precinct, as hereinabove established and bounded, and the Police Force thereof, wherein shall be arraigned and detained, in pursuance of the orders, rules, and regulations of the department, all persons arrested by the Police Force for any criminal offences.

Precipied That the Police Force of the Twenty eighth Precipit shall consist of one Captain.

Resolved, That the Police Force of the Twenty-eighth Precinct shall consist of one Captain, tour Sergeants, two Doormen, and such number of Patrolman as shall be, from time to time, assigned to duty in said precinct.

Resolved, That the Superintendent report a programme of night posts for the Nineteenth and Twenty-eighth Precincts, having in view the relative demand for police service in said precincts, and on the basis of the quota of the Patrolmen established for the present Nineteenth Precinct, and the division of that quota between the two precincts.

Whereas, John H. Starin, by letter of the 6th inst., tenders "the use of three barges and the Steamboat H. M. Wells, with music, free of charge, for a pic-nic on the 12th inst., under the auspices of the Police Force, for the Police Force and their families—tickets limited to 2,500; it is therefore Resolved, That the Board of Police assent to the proposed arrangement, and hereby transmit their thanks to Mr. Starin for the generous proposition.

Resolved, That the Board have no objection that privileges be granted to the sale, on the steam-Resolved, That the Board have no objection that privileges be grained to the sate, of the steamhoat and barges, of proper refreshments for the picnic party (intoxicating drinks excepted), the proceeds of sales of such privileges to be appropriated as Mr. Starin shall propose.

Resolved, That the Superintendent distribute the tickets for such picnic, and require that the excursion leave at 8 A. M., and returning land at the piers at 5 P. M., to enable policemen to report for
