

How To Stop The Junk Mail Bandit

Catalogs and offers you get in the mail can save you time and energy shopping. But when the Junk Mail Bandit strikes, suddenly your time is spent opening, sorting, and discarding. What a waste!

- ➡ If you receive mail you don't want, let the sender know!
- ➡ Whenever you give out your name and address, remember to tell the company not to share your name with other firms.
- ➡ To remove your name from most national mailing lists, visit the Direct Marketing Association's website at www.dmaconsumers.org/cgi/offmailinglist, or send your full name and address to: Mail Preference Service, Direct Marketing Association, P.O. Box 643, Carmel, NY 10512-0643. You can also fill out the card below and mail.

Don't forget to recycle your mixed paper and cardboard. For recycling information, call 311 or visit www.nyc.gov/sanitation. For more waste prevention tips, see www.nycwasteless.org.

Don't litter.
City of New York
Department of Sanitation

Please save paper! Remove my name from direct mail marketing lists. I understand it may take a few months for this request to make a noticeable difference in my mailbox. Thank you.

COMPLETE NAME

Other ways my name or initials
appear on mailing labels:

STREET ADDRESS

APT#

Variations:

CITY

STATE

ZIP

Printed on recycled paper, of course.