

NEW YORK CITY POLICE PENSION FUND
DIVERSITY AND EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY PLAN
FISCAL YEAR 2022

I. Introductory, Commitment and Accountability Statement by the Agency Head

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR'S POLICY STATEMENT

The following Policy is the New York City's Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) Policy. This Policy reflects the federal, state, and local laws that prohibit discrimination in employment. The New York City Police Pension Fund (NYCPPF) will follow and implement this policy with my strong commitment to preventing discrimination by ensuring that all of our employees, applicants for employment, external contractors, consultants, agency partners, and members of the public served by our agency are aware of their rights and obligations under this policy, and in providing a work environment that respects and values our differences.

As Executive Director, I want to make clear to every manager, supervisor, and employee of our agency that the NYCPPF remains firmly committed to recruitment, development, and retention of a diverse and inclusive workforce reflective of our City's population. It is incumbent upon every employee of this agency to make the same commitment to celebrate diversity and comply with the spirit of this policy. Managers and supervisors are directed to make all employment decisions in accordance with the EEO Policy, promote a work environment that is fair and safe, and values equity, inclusion, and respect for all employees.

The NYC EEO Policy provides that all employment decisions be made on the basis of equal opportunity and not on the basis of: actual or perceived race, color, national origin, alienage or citizenship status, religion or creed, gender (including sexual harassment, pregnancy, and gender identity – which refers to a person's actual or perceived sex, and includes self-image, appearance, behavior or expression, whether or not different from that traditionally associated with the legal sex assigned to the person at birth), disability, age (18 and over), military status, prior record of arrest or conviction, marital status, partnership status, caregiver status, genetic information or predisposing genetic characteristic, sexual orientation, status as a victim or witness of domestic violence, sex offenses or stalking, unemployment status, consumer credit history, familial status, salary history and sexual and reproductive health decisions.

I strongly urge all employees to become familiar with the NYC EEO Policy and procedures and to access the resources available within the NYCPPF to address any concerns you may have. No employee of this agency should tolerate discriminatory treatment, harassment, or retaliation for reporting practices that violate this Policy. The agency's EEO Policy is one of our highest priorities and has my full support. The agency will disseminate the EEO Policy statement and 55a Program description on our communication boards including the NYCPPF DocuShare Intranet, and a hard copy is available in common areas of the facility.

In accordance with the New York City Human Rights Law, the NYCPPF provides reasonable accommodations for employees' pregnancy, childbirth, and related medical conditions, including accommodations for lactation to employees who express milk during work hours. The NYCPPF will not tolerate discrimination or harassment against any employee based on the request for or usage of lactation accommodations. Please refer to Policy Number HR-0019 on DocuShare for more information.

The agency EEO Officer, an immediate supervisor, or the Human Resources Director should be contacted with any questions, inquiries, concerns, or complaints you may have regarding your EEO rights and any allegation of violation of the EEO Policy. The agency EEO Officer, Alana Bassit (347-802-5131, abassit@nycppf.org) will serve as a resource for agency managers and supervisors. Our EEO Counselor is Wen Song Wang (212-693-5617, wwang@nycppf.org). The agency EEO Officer's contact information is prominently available to all employees and both EEO contacts serve as our Disability Rights Coordinators.

The agency is committed to maintain a workplace free from all forms of harassment and discrimination prohibited by the City's EEO Policy. The following federal, state, and local agencies enforce laws against discrimination: The New York City Commission of Human Rights, the New York State Division of Human Rights, the United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC), and the Department of Justice. Information about how to contact these agencies can be found in the EEO Policy Handbook entitled, "About EEO: What You May Not Know." This handbook is available on the DocuShare Intranet, in common areas of the facility, and on the DCAS website at <https://www1.nyc.gov/site/dcas/agencies/equity-and-inclusion-resources.page>. Please note that there are statutory deadlines for filing complaints with each of these agencies. All complaints will be treated confidentially, promptly investigated, and employees who are found to have violated our EEO Policy are subject to discipline, up to and including termination.

This statement is the same as last year.

During periods of layoffs, terminations, and demotions due to legitimate business/operational reasons, what is your protocol for analyzing the impact of such actions based upon gender, race and age? It is most useful to conduct this analysis prior to finalizing the list of titles that will be impacted. Ensure that the Agency General Counsel and the Law Department are involved in the review.

- The agency will use the DCAS Layoff Procedure as guidance, should there be any layoffs, terminations and demotions due to legitimate business/operational reasons in FY 2021.
- The agency will analyze the impact of layoffs or terminations on racial, gender, age groups, and people with disabilities.
- Where layoffs or terminations would have a disproportionate impact on any of these groups, the agency will document that the targeted titles or programs were selected based on objective criteria and justified by business necessity.
- The Agency Personnel Officer, EEO Officer and General Counsel will be involved in making layoff or termination decisions. It should be noted that layoffs must be conducted by seniority in compliance with civil service law (for competitive titles) and union contract (for non-competitive and labor class titles).

Please indicate the actions your agency will take to ensure that the process of reviewing reasonable accommodation requests is compliant with the EEO Policy as well as the applicable federal, state, and local laws. Additionally, please detail any best practices currently implemented in this area. Lastly, please describe your current appeal protocol.

<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Managers, supervisors, human resources personnel and discipline personnel are required to report to the EEO Office any reasonable accommodation requests and needs that are received, observed, learned about or suspected, so that the EEO Office may facilitate discussions, research appropriate accommodations, and assist with the resolution of the matter. <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Absent any undue hardship, the agency provides reasonable accommodation for disability, religion, victims of domestic violence, sex offense and stalking, pregnancy, childbirth or a related medical condition. <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> The agency follows the City’s Reasonable Accommodation Procedure. <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> The agency grants or denies request 30 days after submission or as soon as possible. <input type="checkbox"/> The Agency Head or designee must review and grant or deny the appeal fifteen (15) days after submission of appeal. <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> If the review and decision on appeal is not done by the Agency Head. Provide the name and title of the designee¹ : _Sal Locascio, Chief of Staff <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> The designee reports directly to the Agency Head. <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> The agency will input the Reasonable Accommodation activity on the DCAS Citywide Complaint and Reasonable Accommodation (CAD) Database and update the information as needed. <input type="checkbox"/> The agency analyzes the reasonable accommodation data and trends.

<http://extranet.dcas.nycnet/eoo/diversityeoo/media/19647/reasonable-accommodation-procedural-guidelines-lc-12116.pdf> (p17).

The agency has posted/will circulate the Reasonable Accommodations at a Glance sheet for the workforce.

Briefly describe procedures and speed of resolution, including the protocol for deciding appeals of Reasonable Accommodation decisions. Does the agency analyze statistics with regard to volume, trends, and speed of disposition of EEO complaints and reasonable accommodation requests and appeals?

Because of the low to non-existent quantity of EEO complaints and reasonable accommodation requests, the statistics with regards to volume, trends, and speed of disposition are not analyzed. The NYCPPF will adhere to DCAS' appeal process timeframe for processing requests and providing reasonable accommodations.
