Back to School Guide

Letter from Manhattan Borough President Mark Levine

Dear students and families,

As the bright summer sun makes way for the crisp air of autumn, it's that special time of the year again – the beginning of the school year! I'm filled with hope and excitement as we gear up for another educational year for NYC's children.

The start of a new school year is crucial. It's a time to reset, refocus, and rebuild. There is so much to do in preparation for the school year to ensure that our children are mentally and physically ready, not just for their academic success but for their overall well-being.

To help families prepare and have all the information they need to set their kids up for success, our office is thrilled to share our Manhattan Borough President's Back to School Resource Guide.

This is a comprehensive guide filled with tips, enrichment opportunities, and more to help make the transition smooth and stress free.

And if my office can be of help with anything not covered in this guide, contact us at 212-669-8300 or info@manhattanbp.nyc.gov.

Have a great school year,

Mark Levine
Manhattan Borough President
