STATEMENT FROM MAYOR DE BLASIO ON NATIONAL NIGHT OUT AGAINST CRIME

“The National Night Out Against Crime is a wonderful opportunity to promote public safety and partnership between communities and the police. While I deeply regret not being able to personally attend, I’m proud that our Administration will have extensive presence at this important event. From Police Commissioner Bratton to deputy mayors and agency commissioners, the City is wholeheartedly committed to supporting this critical anti-crime, community-building initiative. Whether it is a free BBQ, community health services, or security planning discussions, National Night Out is a great way to support and build one city, rising together—which we aspire to be. I invite all New Yorkers to contact their local precincts, find out about events in their areas, and join activities with their friends and family.”
