Resolved, That the resignation of Dr. Walter De F. Day, of the office of Sanitary Superin-tendent, be and is hereby accepted, to take effect on the 31st instant, and that the Secretary be directed to communicate to him the sentiments of this Board in respect to his high official character and his distinguished public service. NEW YORK, July 30, 1889.

Dr. WALTER DE F. DAY :

DEAR SIR—The Board of Health directs me to inform you that it has this day, with great reluctance, accepted your resignation of the office of Sanitary Superintendent, which you have long filled to the entire satisfaction of the public and of this Department, and with great honor to yourself. The Board desires me to officially express to you its high appreciation of your valuable services as the Chief Executive Officer of this Department, of your ability and integrity, and of your uniform kindness and courtesy in all your official relations. The Board regrets that your health obliges you to dissolve your connection with this Department, and thereby deprives it of the services of an offi-cer who has its entire confidence. Verv respectfully.

dence. Very respectfully, And by order of the Board, EMMONS CLARK, Secretary. (Signed) Resolved, That Dr. William A. Ewing be and is hereby appointed Sanitary Superintendent, to fill vacancy caused by the resignation of Dr. Walter De F. Day.

Pursuant to notice the President presented amendment to section 100 of the Sanitary Code.

On motion it was Resolved, That, section 100 of the Sanitary Code, be and is hereby amended so as to read as follows :

Resolved, That, section 100 of the Sanitary Code, be and is hereby amended so as to read as follows: SEC. 100. That every owner, lessee, tenant, and occupant of any stall, stable, or apartment in which any horse, cattle, or swine, or any other animal shall be kept, or of any place in which manure or any liquid discharge of such animals shall collect or accumulate, within the built-up portion of said city, shall cause said liquid and manure to be at once removed to some proper place, and shall at all times keep or cause to be kept such stalls, stables and apartments, and the drainage, yard, and appurtenances thereof, in a cleanly and wholesome condition so that no offensive smell detrimental to health shall be allowed to escape therefrom; and when within three hundred feet of any occupied dwelling-house, or of any manufactory where more than five persons are employed, the removals from the stables shall not be made, nor shall the manure or refuse from the stable be allowed to remain on any street or place without a permit from this Board. Whenever there shall be a lowed to remain on any premises it shall be immediately removed unless it be pressed or baled. The Sanitary Superintendent may issue permits for and regulate the removal of bales or pressed manure upon conditions stated in such permits, which shall prescribe not more than ten days for such removal and shall prevent a nuisance. No manure vault under the sidewalk shall be built or used. No manure vault or receptacle outside of a stable shall be built or used on any premises, except pursuant to the terms of a permit granted therefor by the Health Department. Mesolved, That all permits for the removal of manure be revoked and new permits be issued under section 100 of the Sanitary Code, as amended this day. A committee of the Ladies' Health Protective Association with Drs. Hadden and Peters, appeared before the Board and made statements relative to the baling and removal of manure. The 904 deaths represent a death-rate of 29.85 against 31.85 for the previous week, and 34.07 for the corresponding week of 1888. The decrease of 60 deaths was mainly due to a decrease of 28 in deaths from diarrhœal diseases, of 14 from heart diseases, and of 27 from diseases of the digestive system ; while there was an increase of 7 in the deaths from diphtheria, and of 13 from phthisis. The decrease of diarrhœal diseases was most marked in the Nineteenth Ward.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

MAYOR'S OFFICE, NEW YORK.

SIR-The following is a copy of the opinion of the Comptroller in relation to granting permis-sion to farmers and market gardeners to stand with their wagons in the public streets adjacent to all the public markets in the city.

Respectfully, T. C. T. CRAIN, Secretary.

CITY OF NEW YORK-FINANCE DEPARTMENT, COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE, July 27, 1889.

Hon. HUGH J. GRANT, Mayor .

SIR—Referring to my letter to you of the 19th instant, relative to a resolution passed on the 15th by the Board of Aldermen granting permission to farmers and market gardeners to stand with their wagons in the public stree's adjacent to all the public markets in the city, I desire to add a few words of explanation upon one point that appears to be misunderstood, about which you spoke yesterday words of explaination upon one point that appears to be misunderstood, about which you spoke yesterday.

I explained in my letter of the 10th that the market wagons had been removed from the streets down-town in the vicinity of Washington Market, some ten years ago, to the Farmers' Market space on the Fort Gansevoort property, which was prepared for them specially, as authorized by an act of the Legislature, chapter 101, Laws of 1850, and under a resolution of the Common Council passed August 6, 1875, designating the place as a stand for market wagons and the sale of garden produce. The removal of the market wagons was made by the city authorities because they obstructed the public streets and created a nuisance which was generally complained of, as fully stated in the paper on the subject by the late John Kelly, which was sent to you for examination.
I understand that it is represented to you that market wagons are now authorized to have stands in the streets down-town, and that the only object of the resolution of the Board of Aldermen is to permit them, under such authorization, to remain one hour longer than they do at present. As to this I would say that while some few market wagons have been allowed to have stands on sufferance in Dey street and vicinity for a few years past, where they are not in the way and give rise to no complaint, yet, with these exceptions, no wagons are allowed to occupy stands m any other streets down-town, but are restricted to the locality prescribed by the act already quoted.
The resolution of the Board of Aldermen, therefore, instead of merely extending the time during which these few wagons of use of other as stands, which will recreate the obstruction to travel and other causes of complaint which led to the act's passe.
In this connection I beg to call your attention to the law relating to the occupation of the public other a recent decision of the Court of Appeals, a copy of which is inclosed—Hannah Cohen a arcepart decision you w

The passage of such a resolution as that of the Board of Aldermen would, therefore, be a violation of law.

Trusting that you will exercise your veto power on the resolution, I have the honor to remain, Yours, respectfully, THEO. W. MYERS, Comptroller.

METERS.

Under the provisions of section 352, Consolidated Act 1882, water-meters, of approved pattern, shall be here-after placed on the pipes supplying all stores, workshops, this Department to detect and check the useless and un-warrantable waste of an element so valuable and essential to the health and comfort of all the citizens, and this ob-ject can only be accomplished by enforcing payment for the water wasted. Under the law all charges for water supplied through meters are a lien against the respective premises, and the law all charges for water supplied through meters are a lien against the respective premises re-sponsible for the amount of water used or wasted. Notice is therefore civen to all householders that, in all turther applications for reduction of water rents, no allowance will be made on account of water of water occurring through leaks, from defective service pipes or plumbing, or wasteful use of water by tenants or occu-pants of buildings, though such leakage or waster may have occurred without the knowledge or consent of the owners of the buildings. House-owners are further notified that whenever their mersies become vacant, and are likely to remain vacant, they must notify this Department in writing, and that unless this requirement is complied with no deductions in extra water rents will be allowed for any portion of one year.
