The Comptroller presented the following communication.

LAW DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE OF THE COUNSEL TO THE CORPORATION,
NEW YORK, November 4, 1878.

Hon. JOHN KELLY, Comptroller :

SIR—I am happy to announce that I have finally arrived at a settlement of the suits of Jones & Rogers against the City, the most troublesome, with perhaps one exception, of all the suits now pending against the City, and involving the largest amounts, without exception, of any of the outstanding claims.

The suits have been pending for about six years, and involve a principal claim of one million two hundred and twenty thousand ($1,220,000) odd dollars, and an interest account, raising the total claims to about two millions. A schedule of the amounts claimed is attached hereto. The suits are upon bills for printing and stationery furnished to the City and County prior to the breaking up of the Ring, and for the entire amount of the claim the plaintiffs have vouchers in the shape of bills certified by the proper executive officer in each case, and in the case of a claim amounting to about two hundred and sixty-eight thousand dollars ($268,490.03) and interest for some ten years, they have, in addition to the certified bills, the audit of the Finance Department. These facts they have recently sworn to in affidavits, and so far as I am able to ascertain, it is true. The $268,000 claim has been actively litigated for the last four or five years, the case having been conducted for a long time before Alexander W. Harvey as referee, and upon his death transferred to Hon. Henry E. Davies, and has been going on ever since before him.

As you are aware, special counsel have been retained in these cases. Soon after my accession to the office, I realized the necessity for special attention to these cases, and for the last two years, in addition to the special counsel retained, I have had two men in this office almost exclusively engaged, under my direction, in the investigation of the facts, and in the preparation of the city's defense against the claims. It is an extremely difficult case, where a claimant has bills duly certified, so as to make a prima facie case for recovery without himself producing any other evidence but the bills, to make out such a case of fraud as to be able to set aside and destroy the plaintiff's case. I can not say, with reference to most of the claims, that I have any evidence upon which I could predicate with certainty what the action of the courts and jury would be. With reference to the claim of $268,000, which has been in active litigation before Hon. Henry E. Davies as referee, I think the city has made a case sufficient to defeat all but about fifty thousand dollars of the claim, and I have expectations of being able to defeat a considerable portion of the remainder.

Not long since, as you are aware, I obtained the necessary authority from the Attorney-General of the State, and brought an action in behalf of the State against these same parties, to recover back amounts paid them upon fraudulent bills in 1868, 1869, and 1870. A considerable portion of the amount sued for would, I think, be recovered in that action, although the counsel for the defendants express themselves as very confident of defeating the claims, and have urged the trial of the cases ; and of course the result of any litigation is not without doubt.

I have from time to time made efforts at a compromise of all the suits, but have heretofore been unsuccessful in that respect. The plaintiffs in these suits have, as you are aware, been in custody now for about two months, under the order of arrest issued in the suit brought by us in behalf of the State. I have recently been approached by counsel representing them, and, after considerable consultation, they have concluded to accept the proposition made by me some time since, to pay fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), in settlement of the claim against the city and county—we, on our part, to discontinue the suit brought in behalf of the State.

It is unnecessary for me to say that I consider the settlement extremely desirable to be made. The claims are undoubtedly largely fraudulent, but they have an immense advantage over us in the papers which they hold, throwing all the burden of proof upon us in the cases, and requiring a degree of proof which, with reference to transactions ten years past, it is extremely difficult, and next to impossible to obtain ; and if the city should, at the end of many years of litigation, succeed in defeating the claims, the expenditure which would have been involved in making the defenses would, I think, reach the amount referred to ; and I am informed by investigations made by me that the financial condition of the parties is such that the city could not expect to recover in the end any portion of their expenditures from the plaintiffs. From whatever point of view the matter is looked at, the settlement is one extremely desirable for the city to make. I have heretofore consulted you in reference to this matter, and obtained your concurrence in my action, and only write this letter for the purpose of advising you of the success to the efforts at compromise, and to spread upon the record the considerations applicable thereto.

In addition to the amount of fifty thousand dollars referred to, we shall necessarily be called upon to pay the statutory costs of the action to plaintiffs' attorney, and some allowances to the attorney, which will probably not exceed five or six thousand dollars.

Yours respectfully,

WM. C. WHITNEY, Counsel to the Corporation.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS,
COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE, ROOM 19, CITY HALL,
NEW YORK, November 9, 1878.

Hon. SMITH ELY, Jr., Mayor and Chairman Board of Estimate and Apportionment :

SIR—No more important measure can receive the attention of this Department, at the present time, than the continuation of the repairs of the streets so long as the season will permit. I am desirous of continuing this work until the frost shall compel me to relinquish the effort. Accordingly, the transfer of the amount herein named from the appropriation of "Repaving under chapter 476, Laws of 1875," for 1878, which is of a kindred nature, and is a surplus balance, to "Repairs and Renewal of Pavements" for 1878, $7,000, and to "Boulevard, Roads and Avenues—Maintenance of," for 1878, $1,000, will enable this Department to continue the prosecution of this much needed work.

I therefore request that the said amounts be transferred from "Repaving under chapter 476, Laws of 1875, for 1878, the same being in excess of the amount needed therefor.

Very respectfully,

ALLAN CAMPBELL, Commissioner of Public Works.

JOHN WHEELER, Secretary.

APPLICATIONS FOR EXEMPTIONS WILL BE heard here, from 9 to 4 daily, from all persons hitherto liable or recently serving who have become exempt, and all needed information will be given.

Those who have not answered as to their liability, or proved permanent exemption, will receive a "jury enrollment notice," requiring them to appear before me this year.
