Whereas, Unforeseen emergencies having arisen, owing to the prevalence of small-pox in The City of New York, and for the preservation of the health of the community it has been found necessary that extraordinary expenses should be incurred by the Department of Health, and these expenses in the aggregate amounting to about the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000); and Whereas, There is in the hands of the Comptroller to the credit of the Fund for Antitoxin about three thousand five hundred dollars ($3,500), and there will be an estimated balance on the sales of December being deposited with the City Chamberlain of some six thousand dollars ($6,000) in the Fund for Gratuitous Vaccination, which funds it does not seem possible under the Charter to draw upon to meet the said extraordinary expenses; it is therefore

Resolved, That the Board of Estimate and Apportionment be and is hereby respectfully requested to transfer (from any funds which are or may be in excess of the requirements for the year 1900 in any department of the City Government consenting thereto) the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) to the Department of Health, as follows:
