There were 49 Council Members marked present at this Stated Meeting held in the Council Chambers of City Hall, New York, N.Y.

INVOCATION

The Invocation was delivered by Rabbi Joseph Potasnik, Rabbi Emeritus, Congregation Mount Sinai, 250 Cadman Plaza West, Brooklyn, NY 11201.

Thank you Public Advocate Letitia.

I was also the chaplain of the Federal prison for a number of years;
thankfully I don't see any familiar faces here from those years.

Let me share one story with you which I think has great meaning.

Years ago, it was Senator Bill Bradley who was invited to speak at the Waldorf Astoria.
Before he spoke, the waiter came around with the butter;
and Bradley looked at him and said "I'll have an extra pat of butter";
and the waiter said to him "Sorry sir, we have a strict rule at the Waldorf: one pat per person";
and Bradley looked at him and said "Do you know who I am?";
he said "No sir, who are you?";
he said "I'm the Senator from New Jersey;
I was flown with the New York Knicks; I went to Oxford" and the guy said "That's very impressive, do you know who I am?";
he says "No, who are you?";
he said, "I'm the guy with the butter".

There is a lesson there for all of us,
whether you are the server or whether you are the Senator;
in our eyes as people of faith you are the same person,
whether you are born here or brought here, you are the same person.
People who are homeless are not people who should be seen as honor-less;
and to those brave women who stand up and identify with # Me Too, we as men need to stand with, with them and say "We too stand with you too."
So, thus a house of worship as your City Council has windows, the reason for windows is what we say on the inside we have to see on the outside.
It was Martin Luther King who said years ago,
"Our days of life begin to end when we are silent about things that matter";
we as clergy, you as Council, we cannot afford to be silent.
So, we come here today belonging to our different faith traditions, but we also stand with one another belonging to one human family.
Amen.

Council Member Levin moved to spread the Invocation in full upon the record.

During the Communication from the Speaker segment of this Meeting, the Speaker (Council Member Johnson) asked for a Moment of Silence in memory of the following:

Erica Garner, activist for social justice in New York City, died at the age of 29 on December 30, 2017. The Speaker (Council Member Johnson) noted that he was present at her funeral service along with Council Members Rose and Richards, the Public Advocate (Ms. James), and the City Comptroller (Mr. Stringer) among others. He asked for a Moment of Silence in her memory and for the Garner family.

Mary Audrey Gallagher, PFLAG activist and mother of Council Member Dromm, died on January 4, 2018 at age of 85. The Speaker (Council Member Johnson) asked for a Moment of Silence in her memory and for Council Member Dromm and his family.

The Speaker (Council Member Johnson) also asked for this Moment of Silence to remember the victims and families who were affected by the numerous tragic fires that raged throughout the city in the previous weeks. He noted in particular a Brooklyn six-alarm fire in Council Member Levin's district and a Bronx fire with many fatalities in Council Member Torres's district. The Speaker (Council Member Johnson) also thanked the men and women of the FDNY for their tremendous service.
