On motion, placed on file.

Commissioner Laimbeer offered the following resolution in relation thereto, which was unanimously adopted.

Resolved, That the resolution passed December 14th, instant, be and the same is hereby amended by striking out the word "Europe" where it occurs therein, and substituting therefor the words "West Indies."

A report from General John Newton, General Q. A. Gillmore, and William E. Worthen, who were, by resolution of the Board passed September 9, 1881, requested to act as a Board of Consulting Engineers, to examine and report on the construction, material used, and principles upon which the Bulkhead Wall along the water-front is being constructed, was received and read, as follows:

To the Commissioners of the Department of Docks of the City of New York:

GENTLEMEN—Agreeably to the instructions of your letter of September 14, 1881, and your personal explanations in the interview of the 23d of the same month, we have made "a thorough investigation of the manner of constructing the wall now being erected by the Department," and, as pertinent to your inquiries, an examination of the walls already built by the Department on the same general plan.

We have seen the manner in which the concrete blocks were made, the class of materials used, the proportions in which the cement, sand and broken stone were mixed, their deposit in the boxes, and the manner in which the manipulation was conducted, and have tested the absorption of salt water by the concrete.

At Twenty-fourth street, North river, where the wall is now in progress, we have observed the process of dredging, piling, ballasting, laying the concrete blocks, rip-rapping, and back-filling, and we understand the dimensions, quantities and character of material used, and the order of construction. We have been furnished by your Engineer with full plans and details of this work, with profiles of soundings and detailed items of cost.

And we have received, on our request, like plans and drawings of the old work, together with profiles and plans showing the present position of these walls, and what is their deviation vertically and laterally from the lines by which they were constructed. We have examined these displacements in the work, and find them to be, in general, very slight; none more than might be expected in so large a work, on a bed of soft yielding material. Between Piers 41 and 42, where the deviation from old lines is the greatest, and where at one time a vertical crack was apparent, we set batirs on the face of the wall, and found that there was a movement of the wall forward bodily, without revolution or overturning.

We find the same facts obtain on the wall between Piers 42 and 43, but in a less degree. The piles on which the piers are built have been carefully examined from time to time, at long intervals, by the direction of your Engineer, and no movement has been found in them.

In the above-named places, where the displacements are the greatest, there is nothing to impair, or evidence of a tendency to impair, the stability of the wall. Nor is there anything that would show movement without critical observation.

At Twenty-fourth street, we have had an experiment made on the laying of the cement mattress on the top of the piles, and a concrete block upon the mattress. To make the conditions as near as possible to those in actual use, and yet so that we could observe the operations and examine ourselves the mattress in position, the usual number of piles for the support of a block were cut off at the time of high water, but only to the level of low water, instead of at the usual depth. At high water, November 17, a diver, blindfolded, laid a mattress in the usual way upon these piles, under our own observation, and a concrete block was set on the mattress. On December 3, at very low tide, we had the concrete block removed, and examined the condition of the mattress. The result was very satisfactory. It proved that the weight of the block could thus be distributed well on the piles, and that the mattress supplied a suitable cup-capping to the same.

We consider this form of capping effective and economical. Of course its security depends largely upon the diver, but the same obtains with any kind of platform thus laid. It requires that discrimination should be made in the selection of men, and careful supervision by the engineers in charge.

The depth of the mud at Twenty-fourth street and neighborhood is much greater than at any place where a wall has hitherto been built.

Practically, hard bottom is too deep to be reached by piles, and their sustaining power depends almost entirely on the friction of the mud on their sides, or the skin resistance.

Preparatory to beginning this work your Engineer made some experiments on the tenacity of the mud, and had three experimental piles driven into the mud simply; a platform was placed upon them, and loaded successively up to about seventeen tons per pile. The results of these experiments were shown to us, but it seemed better that experiments should be made on piles in the work which had been driven through the usual layer of small stone, and which had also been ballasted with them.

Another platform was therefore made, resting on three piles in the work, and a load of nearly seventy tons placed upon it, about equally distributed at first on the three piles. Subsequent compression of one of the timbers of the platform varied this somewhat. This was completed November 14, and levels were taken on the piles supporting the platform, and on some contiguous thereto, at intervals of a few days. Levels were also thus taken, of the top of the wall in the rear of the pier, and, lately, of piles which were only ballasted, but not quite up to the full load, remote from the pier and the loaded platform. The results were, that the loaded piles sank at first somewhat faster than the unloaded piles that were contiguous, but the difference was trifling.

At present date, there is still some minute settlement, but it is nearly the same for the whole. viz.: the pier, the loaded piles, and the unloaded ones, both near and remote.

Our attention was called by one of your Board to the timbers of the platform in the rear of the wall. From our examination of the timber structures situated at about the same level and under the same condition along the dock front, and from our previous experience in like work, we are satisfied that the platform and its timbers will not be injured by rot or by the teredo.

In our previous report of 1876, to a former Board, we recommended additions of rear platforms to the walls then constructed at Canal and King streets, and the substitution of concrete blocks, constructed in air, and then submerged in the work, for the concrete in mass made in situ, and suggested a form of wall on the piles already driven.

Our recommendations were acted on, and your Engineer has designed the present form of concrete block, which secures equal stability with the one we suggested and at less cost. We did not expect that the wall would continue without settlement or delignment, and in reviewing the work, we are satisfied with our recommendation, and that so much stability was secured at so moderate cost.

The conditions obtaining on the present work are somewhat different, as we have already said, from those upon the whole work, but from our experience and late observations on the latter, and from investigations on the work now in progress, we feel prepared to answer the questions of your letter of September 14.

First Query. Is the wall now being constructed the most desirable one for all the interests of the city for the sections of water-front under improvement?

In answer, we would say that this wall, taken as a whole, is the result of practical growth from the first inception of the work. It combines, in a suitable measure, the necessary elements of strength, endurance and stability; it is ample in its dimensions, has a liberal factor of safety, is not difficult of construction, and appears thus far to have been well and faithfully built. We do not therefore recommend, as necessary, any essential changes of plan, but there are certain modifications which we do recommend, and which will be found in detail in answer to your second query.

Second Query. If it is not, what changes in its construction should be made to make it so?

In answer, we are of the opinion that the concrete used in the blocks, as well as that formed in situ as backing, is unnecessarily rich in Portland cement, and that the best varieties of natural cement would answer very well for this concrete.

If natural cement be used, the proportions to be as follow:

Cement, 1.....	} For the base of the blocks up to the height of one foot above the chain hole.
Sand, 2.....
Broken stone, 5.....
Cement, 1.....	} For the balance of the concrete block and the backing.
Sand, 3.....
Broken stone, 6.....

If Portland cement be used, the proportions may be:

Cement, 1.....	} For the base of block to height above indicated.
Sand, 2½.....
Broken stone, 6.....
Cement, 1.....	} For balance of block and backing.
Sand, 3.....
Broken stone, 7.....

We also recommend the use of a machine for mixing the concrete, whatever kind of cement be used, and that the blocks be kept, before they are put in the wall, at least sixty days, shaded from the direct action of the sun.

The rip-rap in front of the wall covers the head of the piles to about the depth of two feet; whilst in this condition it is ample protection for the piles from the teredo; but should the dredging of the slips be carelessly done, and the excavation carried into the rip-rap, it will settle away from the walls, and the piles will be denuded, and this may obtain from settlement of the rip-rap without dredging, from the action of the screws of steamships or other causes; and if the piles be exposed, they might soon be destroyed by the worm. To obviate this, we recommend that the base of the concrete block be established at a level of seventeen feet below mean low water mark, that is, adding one foot nine inches to the depth of the bottom of this block, preserving the same curve of outer face, and the vertical rear; the position, as well as the bulk of the rip-rap, being kept as at present.

The thickness and weight of the revetment wall, increased by the expedient of your Engineer, by the inexpensive filling of cobble-stones between the piles, and forming a part of the wall, afford considerable resistance to the earth-thrust of the back-filling.

The rip-rap is also indispensable to prevent the heeling of the mass outwards around a lower point, and in this office, the bracing piles also lend their assistance. The weight of the wall is directly supported by the skin resistance of the piles, and by the mass of cobble-stones resting upon the mud. Contributing in considerable measure to this, the rip-rap extends the bearing surface on each side of the wall, and acts as braces to prevent overturn or settlement.

The whole mass resting thus upon a yielding foundation, and to be regarded, in some sense, as floating upon it, will, it is thought, be subject to settlement, but not considerable, and experience has shown that the whole mass will substantially settle together, with little variation, and the front of the revetment will retain its batir.

With walls thus supported on mud, it is always desirable to establish as great a symmetry of mass as the other conditions imposed on the structure will admit, in order that the settlement, if any, should take place without tilting.

In this view, we would recommend that the rip-rap on each side of the wall should be in nearly equal masses. Some excess may be given to the portion in the rear of the wall, as the extra thrust may be met by the inclined piles.

We recommend that the ballasting with small cobble stones, the placing of the concrete block, and rip-rap work, be completed as much in advance of the other work as possible, in order that settlement may take place before the wall is completed.

For back-filling, under these circumstances, any material will answer; sweepings of streets, collections from houses, ashes, garbage beneath the water, and even dredgings, if not in a liquid state, and all done slowly, working from wall toward shore.

We recommend that where no wall has yet been commenced, and where it will not interfere with wharfage, an experiment be made of filling in broadly on the line of the wall before doing anything else, as by this means the soft mud will be forced out, or in some degree consolidated by its mixture with firmer material.

The present cross-section of the wall, as designed by your Engineer-in-Chief, we regard as founded on correct principles of stability and economy, and the modifications we suggest seem to us to improve it without changing the ideas characteristic of the plan.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed)

Any person making an estimate for the work shall present the same in a sealed envelope, to said Board, at said office, on or before the day and hour above named, which envelope shall be indorsed with the name or names of the person or persons presenting the same, the date of its presentation, and a statement of the work to which it relates.

The engines are to be what is known as first-size double-pump and cylinder steam fire-engines.

The boilers to be vertical, 35 inches diameter, and 63 inches high, to be made of best steel boiler plate, having copper smoke flues, and hanging tubes of lap-welded iron, each hanging tube having circulating strips. To be of sufficient strength to bear twice the pressure ever required in doing fire duty, and to have ample steaming capacity to keep up a full head of steam while doing the heaviest work. To be covered with Russia iron, properly banded with brass bands, nickel-plated. To have one safety valve made of composition.

The boilers to be in all respects as to form and construction exactly similar to that now on Engine No. 33 of this Department, being M. R. Clapp's Circulating Tubular Boiler, patent of 1878.

The boiler to be surmounted with a dome of brass.

The main pumps to be double-acting, made entirely of composition, with cylinders each 4 1/2 inches diameter, and having a stroke of 7 inches, to have 3 discharge gates and an automatic relief valve.

Said engines shall have a full and complete trial of their working powers at New York, under the superintendence of a competent engineer.

For information as to the amount and kind of work to be done, bidders are referred to the specifications and drawings, which form part of these proposals.

The damages to be paid by the contractor for each day that the contract may be unfulfilled after the time specified for the completion thereof shall have expired, are, by a clause in the contract, fixed and liquidated at twenty-five ($25) dollars per day.

The Fire Department reserves the right to decline any and all bids or estimates if deemed to be for the public interest. No bid or estimate will be accepted from, or contract awarded to, any person who is in arrears to the Corporation upon debt or contract, or who is a defaulter, as surety or otherwise, upon any obligation to the Corporation.

Each bid or estimate shall contain and state the name and place of residence of each of the persons making the same; the names of all persons interested with him or them therein; and if no other person be so interested, it shall distinctly state that fact; that it is made without any connection with any other person making an estimate for the same purpose, and is in all respects fair and without collusion or fraud; and that no member of the Common Council, head of a Department, Chief of a Bureau, Deputy thereof, or Clerk therein, or other officer of the Corporation, is directly or indirectly interested therein, or in the supplies or work to which it relates, or in any portion of the profits thereof. The bid or estimate must be verified by the oath, in writing, of the party or parties making the estimate, that the several matters stated therein are in all respects true. Where more than one person is interested, it is requisite that the verification be made and subscribed by all the parties interested.

Each bid or estimate shall be accompanied by the consent, in writing, of two householders or freeholders of the City of New York, with their respective places of business or residence, to the effect that if the contract be awarded to the person making the estimate, they will, on its being so awarded, become bound as his sureties for its faithful performance in a sum not less than one-half the amount of the estimate; and that if he shall omit or refuse to execute the same, they will pay to the Corporation any difference between the sum to which he would be entitled on its completion and that which the Corporation may be obliged to pay to the person or persons to whom the contract may be awarded at any subsequent letting; the amount in each case to be calculated upon the estimated amount of the work by which the bids are tested. The consent above mentioned shall be accompanied by the oath or affirmation, in writing, of each of the persons signing the same, that he is a householder or freeholder in the City of New York, and is worth the amount of the security required for the completion of this contract, over and above all his debts of every nature, and over and above his liabilities as bail, surety, or otherwise; and that he has offered himself as a surety in good faith and with the intention to execute the bond required by law. The adequacy and sufficiency of the security offered is to be approved by the Comptroller of the City of New York before the award is made, and prior to the signing of the contract.

No estimate will be received or considered after the hour named.

No estimate will be considered unless accompanied by either a certified check upon one of the National Banks of the City of New York, drawn to the order of the Comptroller, or money, to the amount of five per centum of the amount of the security required for the faithful performance of the contract. Such check or money must not be inclosed in the sealed envelope containing the estimate, but must be handed to the officer or clerk of the Department who has charge of the Estimate Box, and no estimate can be deposited in said box until such check or money has been examined by said officer or clerk, and found to be correct. All such deposits, except that of the successful bidder, will be returned to the persons making the same, within three days after the contract is awarded. If the successful bidder shall refuse or neglect within five days after notice that the contract has been awarded to him, to execute the same, the amount of the deposit made by him shall be forfeited and retained by the City of New York as liquidated damages for such neglect or refusal; but if he shall execute the contract within the time aforesaid, the amount of his deposit will be returned to him.

Should the person or persons to whom the contract may be awarded neglect or refuse to accept the contract within five days after written notice that the same has been awarded to his or their bid or proposal, or if he or they accept but do not execute the contract and give the proper security, he or they shall be considered as having abandoned it and as in default to the Corporation, and the contract will be readvertised and relet as provided by law.

Bidders will write out the amount of their estimate, in addition to inserting the same in figures.

The form of the agreement and specifications, and showing the manner of payment for the work, may be seen and forms of proposals may be obtained at the office of the Department.

—to be of the best quality of Pittston, Scranton, or Lackawanna Valley, weigh 2,000 pounds to the ton, and be well screened and free from slate, will be received by the Board of Commissioners at the head of the Fire Department, at the office of said Department, Nos. 155 and 157 Mercer street, in the City of New York, until 10 o'clock A. M., Saturday, 28th instant, at which time and place they will be publicly opened by the head of said Department and read.

The award of the contract will be made as soon as practicable after the opening of the bids.

Any person making an estimate for the articles shall present the same in a sealed envelope, to said Board, at said office, on or before the day and hour above named, which envelope shall be indorsed with the name or names of the person or persons presenting the same, the date of its presentation, and a statement of the articles to which it relates.

Proposals may be made for one or more of the items, specifying the price per ton.

All of the coal is to be delivered and weighed upon scales furnished by the Department (which are to be transported from place to place by the contractor), in the presence of an Inspector to be designated by the Department for that purpose, at the various houses, etc., of the Department, in such quantities and at such times as may be from time to time directed.

The Fire Department reserves the right to decline any and all bids or estimates if deemed to be for the public interest. No bid or estimate will be accepted from, or contract awarded to, any person who is in arrears to the Corporation upon debt or contract, or who is a defaulter, as surety or otherwise, upon any obligation to the Corporation.

Each bid or estimate shall contain and state the name and place of residence of each of the persons making the same; the names of all persons interested with him or them therein; and if no other person be so interested, it shall distinctly state that fact; that it is made without any connection with any other person making an estimate for the same purpose, and is in all respects fair and without collusion or fraud; and that no member of the Common Council, head of a Department, Chief of a Bureau, Deputy thereof, or Clerk therein, or other officer of the Corporation, is directly or indirectly interested therein, or in the supplies or work to which it relates, or in any portion of the profits thereof. The bid or estimate must be verified by the oath, in writing, of the party or parties making the estimate, that the several matters stated therein are in all respects true. Where more than one person is interested, it is requisite that the verification be made and subscribed by all the parties interested.

Each bid or estimate shall be accompanied by the consent, in writing, of two householders or freeholders of the City of New York, with their respective places of business or residence, to the effect that if the contract be awarded to the person making the estimate, they will, on its being so awarded, become bound as his sureties for its faithful performance in a sum not less than one-half the amount of the estimate; and that if he shall omit or refuse to execute the same, they will pay to the Corporation any difference between the sum to which he would be entitled on its completion and that which the Corporation may be obliged to pay to the person or persons to whom the contract may be awarded at any subsequent letting; the amount in each case to be calculated upon the estimated amount of the work by which the bids are tested. The consent above mentioned shall be accompanied by the oath or affirmation, in writing, of each of the persons signing the same, that he is a householder or freeholder in the City of New York, and is worth the amount of the security required for the completion of this contract, over and above all his debts of every nature, and over and above his liabilities as bail, surety, or otherwise; and that he has offered himself as a surety in good faith and with the intention to execute the bond required by law. The adequacy and sufficiency of the security offered is to be approved by the Comptroller of the City of New York before the award is made and prior to the signing of the contract.

No estimate will be received or considered after the hour named.

No estimate will be considered unless accompanied by either a certified check upon one of the National Banks of the City of New York, drawn to the order of the Comptroller, or money, to the amount of five per centum of the amount of the security required for the faithful performance of the contract. Such check or money must not be inclosed in the sealed envelope containing the estimate, but must be handed to the officer or clerk of the Department who has charge of the Estimate Box, and no estimate can be deposited in said box until such check or money has been examined by said officer or clerk and found to be correct. All such deposits, except that of the successful bidder, will be returned to the persons making the same within three days after the contract is awarded. If the successful bidder shall refuse or neglect, within five days after notice that the contract has been awarded to him, to execute the same, the amount of the deposit made by him shall be forfeited and retained by the City of New York as liquidated damages for such neglect or refusal; but, if he shall execute the contract within the time aforesaid, the amount of his deposit will be returned to him.

Should the person or persons to whom the contract may be awarded neglect or refuse to accept the contract within five days after written notice that the same has been awarded to his or their bid or proposal, or if he or they accept but do not execute the contract and give the proper security, he or they shall be considered as having abandoned it and as in default to the Corporation, and the contract will be readvertised and relet as provided by law.

Bidders will write out the amount of their estimate, in addition to inserting the same in figures.

The form of the agreement and specifications, and showing the manner of payment for the work, may be seen and forms of proposals may be obtained at the office of the Department.

For further particulars reference must be made to the plans and specifications on file in the office of the Chief Clerk of the Department.

Bidders will state in writing, and also in figures, a price for the Steamboat complete. The price is to cover the furnishing of all the materials and labor and the performance of all the work called for by the specifications, plans, drawings, and form of agreement.

No estimate will be accepted from, or a contract awarded to, any person who is in arrears to the Corporation upon debt or contract, or who is a defaulter, as surety or otherwise, upon any obligation to the Corporation.

The entire work is to be completed within five months from the date of the contract. The person or persons to whom the contract may be awarded will be required to give security, in the manner prescribed by law, for the performance of the contract, in the sum of sixty thousand dollars.

Each estimate shall contain and state the name and place of residence of each of the persons making the same; the names of all persons interested with him or them therein; and if no other person be so interested, it shall distinctly state that fact; also that it is made without any connection with any other person making an estimate for the same purpose, and is in all respects fair and without collusion or fraud; and that no member of the Common Council, head of a department, chief of a bureau, deputy thereof, or clerk therein, or other officer of the Corporation, is directly or indirectly interested therein, or in the supplies or work to which it relates, or in any portion of the profits thereof. The estimate must be verified by the oath, in writing, of the party or parties making the estimate that the several matters stated therein are in all respects true. Where more than one person is interested it is requisite that the verification be made and subscribed by all the parties interested.

Each bid or estimate shall be accompanied by the consent, in writing, of two householders or freeholders in the City of New York, with their respective places of business or residence, to the effect that if the contract be awarded to the person making the estimate, they will, on its being so awarded, become bound as his sureties for its faithful performance; and that if he shall omit or refuse to execute the same, they will pay to the Corporation any difference between the sum to which he would be entitled on its completion, and that which the Corporation may be obliged to pay to the person or persons to whom the contract may be awarded at any subsequent letting; the amount in each case to be calculated upon the estimated amount of the work by which the bids are tested. The consent above mentioned shall be accompanied by the oath or affirmation, in writing, of each of the persons signing the same that he is a householder or freeholder in the City of New York, and is worth the amount of the security required for the completion of this contract, and herein stated, over and above his liabilities, as bail, surety, and otherwise; and that he has offered himself as a surety in good faith and with the intention to execute the bond required by law. The adequacy and sufficiency of the security offered is to be approved by the Comptroller of the City of New York after the award is made and prior to the signing of the contract.

Should the person or persons to whom the contract may be awarded neglect or refuse to accept the contract within five days after written notice that the same has been awarded to his or their bid or proposal, or if he or they accept but do not execute the contract and give the proper security, he or they shall be considered as having abandoned it and as in default to the Corporation, and the contract will be readvertised and relet as provided by law.

No estimate will be received or considered unless accompanied by either a certified check upon one of the national banks of the City of New York, drawn to the order of the Comptroller, or money, to the amount of five per centum of the amount of the security required for the faithful performance of the contract. Such check or money must not be inclosed in the sealed envelope containing the estimate, but must be handed to the officer or clerk of the Department who has charge of the Estimate-box, and no estimate can be deposited in said box until such check or money has been examined by said officer or clerk and found to be correct. All such deposits, except that of the successful bidder, will be returned to the persons making the same within three days after the contract is awarded. If the successful bidder shall refuse or neglect, within five days after notice that the contract has been awarded to him, to execute the same, the amount of the deposit made by him shall be forfeited to and be retained by the City of New York as liquidated damages for such neglect or refusal; but if he shall execute the contract within the time aforesaid, the amount of his deposit will be returned to him.

Whether liable or not, such notices must be answered (in person, if possible, and at this office only) under severe penalties. If exempt, the party must bring proof of exemption; if liable, he must also answer in person, giving full and correct name, residence, etc., etc. No attention paid to letters.

Persons "enrolled" as liable must serve when called or pay their fines. No mere excuse will be allowed or interference permitted. The fines if unpaid will be entered as judgments upon the property of the delinquents.

All good citizens will aid the course of justice, and secure reliable and respectable juries, and equalize their duty by serving promptly when summoned, allowing their clerks or subordinates to serve, reporting to me any attempt at bribery or evasion, and suggesting names for enrollment. Persons between sixty and seventy years of age, summer absentees, persons temporarily ill, and United States and District Court jurors are not exempt.

Every man must attend to his own notice. It is a misdemeanor to give any jury paper to another to answer. It is also punishable by fine or imprisonment to give or receive any present or bribe, directly or indirectly, in relation to a jury service, or to withhold any paper or make any false statement, and every case will be fully prosecuted.

COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE,

NOTICE TO PROPERTY-OWNERS.

IN PURSUANCE OF SECTION 4 OF CHAPTER 33 of the Laws of 1881, the Comptroller of the City of New York hereby gives notice to owners of real and personal estate in this city, that all unpaid taxes, assessments, and Croton water rents may now be paid with interest thereon at the rate of seven per cent. per annum, as provided by chapter 33 of the Laws of 1881, which is as follows:

CHAPTER 33.
AN ACT relative to the collection of taxes and assessments, and of arrears of taxes and assessments, and Croton water rents, in the City of New York.
(Passed March 16, 1881; three-fifths being present.)

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:
Section 1. If any taxes of any year shall remain unpaid on the first day of November, after the assessment-rolls and the warrants to collect such taxes have been delivered to the Receiver of Taxes in the City of New York, it shall be the duty of said Receiver to give public notice, by advertisement for at least ten days in two of the daily newspapers, and in the CITY RECORD, printed and published in said city, respectively, that unless the same shall be paid to him at his office on or before the first day of December, in any such year, he will immediately thereafter proceed to collect such unpaid taxes, as provided in the following section of this act:

Section 2. If any such tax shall remain unpaid on the said first day of December, it shall be the duty of the said Receiver of Taxes in said city to charge, receive, and collect upon such tax so remaining unpaid on that day, in addition to the amount of such tax, one per centum on the amount thereof; and to charge, receive, and collect upon such tax so remaining unpaid on the first day of January thereafter, interest upon the amount thereof at the rate of seven per centum per annum, to be calculated from the day on which said assessment-rolls and warrants shall have been delivered to the said Receiver of Taxes to the date of payment.

The same rate of interest shall be so charged and collected upon any tax levied in the year eighteen hundred and eighty, remaining unpaid at the date of the passage of this act.
Section 3. All existing provisions of law which impose a charge and require the collection of interest at the rate of twelve per centum per annum upon arrears of taxes on real and personal estate within the City of New York, upon arrears of assessments for local improvements and street openings in said city, and upon arrears of Croton water rents in said city, are hereby repealed; and in lieu of such charge of interest at the rate of twelve per centum per annum, there shall be charged and collected by the officer authorized to collect and receive any such arrears of taxes and assessments and Croton water rents, interest upon the amount thereof at the rate of seven per centum per annum, to be calculated for the same period as interest at the rate of twelve per centum per annum is now required by law to be calculated thereon. This provision shall apply to taxes, assessments, or Croton water rents remaining unpaid and due, for the non-payment of which the lands and tenements liable therefor shall be hereafter sold at public auction as now provided by law; provided, however, that nothing in this act shall be construed to affect the rights of purchasers at sales for taxes, assessments, or Croton water rents, heretofore made, or to authorize the redemption of lands and tenements from sales heretofore made for any lesser sums than the sums collectible for such redemption under the provisions of existing laws.

Section 4. It shall be the duty of the Comptroller of the City of New York to give public notice by advertisement for at least ten days, in the CITY RECORD, printed and published in said city, immediately after the confirmation of any assessment for a local improvement or street opening in said city, that the same has been confirmed, specifying the title of such assessment and the date of its confirmation by the Board of Revision and Correction of Assessments in proceedings for local improvements, and by the Supreme Court in proceedings for street openings, and also the date of entry in the record of titles of assessments kept in the Bureau for the Collection of Assessments, and of Arrears of Taxes and Assessments, and of Croton
