DEPARTMENT OF STREET CLEANING.

Report for the Year 1911.

Hon. WILLIAM J. GAYNOR, Mayor:

Sir—I take pleasure in submitting the report of the Department of Street Cleaning for the year ending December 31, 1911.

The paved area on December 31, 1911, as reported to me by the Presidents of the Boroughs of Manhattan, The Bronx and Brooklyn, was: Manhattan, 9,153,584 square yards; The Bronx, 3,341,811 square yards; Brooklyn, 11,624,836 square yards. A total of 24,120,231 square yards.

It should be noted that there is an apparent decrease of yardage from that reported for 1910, but I imagine it is due to a revision of the figures of the Bureau of Highways.

To clean these areas there were employed on the broom 2,875 sweepers, as follows: Manhattan, 1,700; The Bronx, 275, and Brooklyn, 900. This gives the average area allotted to each sweeper as 8,390 square yards, and by Boroughs: Manhattan, 5,384; The Bronx, 12,152, and Brooklyn, 12,916. Of course, with this force given these large areas the ideal condition is impossible and we have used them to the best advantage with fair results.

To augment the work of hand sweeping there have been used a number of horse-drawn sweeping machines, averaging: Manhattan, 43; The Bronx, 1, and Brooklyn, 19. The use of these machines aids materially in removing all but the fine dust, but neither hand nor machine work entirely frees the paved surface of the finer materials. The Department now owns 5 flushing machines and 9 squeegee machines, and these are used continually when the weather and the water supply permit. Hose flushing has been used from time to time. The water situation during this year has prevented the general use of these methods with even the limited plant, to my regret. I experimented with a portable pump for using the crude water from the rivers when the water from the mains is not available, and found this method quite efficient. There is, however, an objection raised by many citizens to the use of this water through a fear that the sewage pollution would prove a menace in the spread of disease breeding germs through the distribution of it. At my request the Metropolitan Sewerage Commission investigated the matter to find if there was a danger from either a chemical or bacteriological standpoint, and in an exhaustive report on conditions advised me that no such menace existed, provided the water was taken at points remote from sewer outlets. They closed their report as follows:

"Sentimental objections may be urged against the use of harbor water for street flushing on account of the discharge of the City's sewers along the river-fronts. The Metropolitan Sewerage Commission does not believe that any danger would lie in the use of harbor water if taken at properly selected points. The number of bacteria of various diseases, such as tuberculosis, diphtheria, typhoid fever, etc., per unit of street area present in the dirt of uncleaned street surfaces exceeds by far the number that would be left on the surface after flushing with the harbor water; and the net results of such a washing, even though the flushing water be itself badly polluted, would be to reduce the likelihood of the spread of disease by reducing the amount of dust."

Up to the present time the use of these flushing machines and squeegees has proven the most advanced method for obtaining good results, and I had hoped to obtain an appropriation sufficient to purchase a plant or enter into a contract for the use of such methods in the work. A demonstration was given of the efficiency of the various types of flushers and squeegees, both in Manhattan and Brooklyn, but the Committee of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment which was considering these methods reported adversely on my request. I greatly regret this action of the Committee, as experience here, as well as in other cities, has proven this method as an efficient and economical one, especially in view of the cost of increased manual labor sufficient to clean the ever-increasing area of pavements being laid yearly. The Department was instructed, however, to test an automobile mechanical pick-up sweeping machine, known as the Emerson sweeper. This test was carried on for some time, but mechanical defects of construction developed and their adjustment prevented a fair test of the device. I am impressed with the availability of this machine when properly constructed, and believe a further test will prove it to be of great efficiency and an economical success.

The usual night cleaning has been performed in the downtown business section by gangs of sweepers, and I am about to introduce this system into the congested districts.

For the sanding of the streets in slippery weather I have been testing machines to spread the sand and have one which does the work effectively, provided the sand is fairly dry. As it is almost impossible to get dry sand when needed, I have not adopted this machine, but am investigating methods of drying. In the meantime, sand and ashes are being spread by hand. I have experimented with sand boxes, containing a cubic yard, located at the curb at convenient intervals, and so constructed as to facilitate the emptying by a sweeper with his shovel. These devices have proven effective, and will be found available until the drying proposition is solved.

The wastes collected during the year were approximately: Ashes, 2,184,243 tons; street sweepings, 546,061 tons; light refuse and rubbish, 188,659 tons; garbage, 313,575 tons. A total of 3,232,538 tons, or an increase over 1910 of 5 1/4 per cent. Of this amount the collection by Boroughs was: Manhattan, 2,069,046 tons; The Bronx, 221,348 tons; Brooklyn, 942,144 tons.

Of this tonnage 29 per cent. is ridden by private carts serving those who prefer such service. To do this work the force of drivers was 1,425: Manhattan, 725; The Bronx, 150, and Brooklyn, 550.

Thus, the Department force collects 7,342 tons daily, or an average of about 5 tons per man per day. As the percentage of increase of these materials annually is greater than the percentage of increase of the population, I feel that the service rendered is improving, as I do not believe that climatic conditions in this year have been severe enough to account for it. I still am of the opinion that the vehicles used in collection are not proper, and that we should have trucks of large capacity instead of carts. I am having a five-ton, three-horse truck constructed which I believe will prove my point. I am also actively investigating automobile trucks, and find that these trucks are now a commercial success. To meet the source of complaint which has been made against the nuisance attending the waste collection I tested a system of night collection for one month in a part of the City and was so well satisfied that on June 25 this method was put in general operation with excellent results. The commendation of the citizens greatly exceeded the few complaints made against this style of operation, and I am convinced that this method is the proper one. As a matter of fact, this system had been in operation for years in the downtown business district, with great success. Cleaner streets, sidewalks free from litter during the day, the absence of cans and the freedom from the dust nuisance was the result.

In April during the cleaning up time which occurs annually at that time in the congested districts, I employed 200 extra carts with excellent results.

The same methods of final disposition of the wastes have been in vogue as formerly. The service of the Department has been extended to the other bureaus and departments to a greater extent than formerly and has been systematized. Arrangements were made on a permanent basis for the removal of the ashes from the buildings on Blackwells Island, and a vexing question which had existed for some time between this Department and the Departments of Charities and Correction was settled to the satisfaction of those Departments. The contracts for final disposition of garbage in the Boroughs of Manhattan and The Bronx expired on August 1, 1911, and these two were combined and bids were received for a contract for the term from August 1, 1911, to September 1, 1912, making the contract in these Boroughs expire coincident with that in the Borough of Brooklyn for the purpose of combining all these in one. The bid was $45,000 for the thirteen months, a substantial reduction of approximately $150,000, which was a source of gratification to the Department. The contract for the final disposition of ashes and rubbish from the dumps on the North River and Clinton street on the East River was abandoned in May, on account of the failure of the contractor to do his work properly, and a contract for the completion of the abandoned contract was let.

The contract for snow removal in the three Boroughs for the season of 1910-1911 was substantially the same as that for 1909-1910. The amount of snow removed under these agreements was 2,628,890 cubic yards and as there was 24.7 inches of snow fall, this amounted to an equivalent of 497.73 miles of 60-foot street cleaned of the total fall. The cost was slightly lower than in former years, partly due to the fact that the Bureau of Sewers in the Borough of Manhattan allowed the use of a number of man-holes for the purpose. It was found that the use of sewers was possible without detriment and it is hoped that a more liberal policy of co-operation in this regard will be adopted by the Bureau of Sewers in the various Boroughs for the benefit of the City. A number of protests were made against dumping snow in vacant lots in the Boroughs of The Bronx and Brooklyn, and I trust that the citizens will use judgment in raising such arguments as the cutting off of these relief dumps will impede the work of snow removal and add largely to its cost.

The Annual Parade was held as usual and although the men had to march in the pouring rain, the showing made by them was a source of pride to all who witnessed it.

The Pension Bill for the benefit of the uniformed and clerical forces was passed and signed and all of those benefited by this act appreciate the value to them and also feel grateful to your Honor for your firm stand in this matter. As a Department measure I believe it means much, as we may now expect younger men to enter upon the work with the knowledge of reward to come to them for faithful service when they become superannuated.

Through the action of a large number of the drivers in opposing the system of night collection, the Department was forced to reorganize the driving force and the result has been the replacing of some 1,100 of the disgruntled regular drivers and 750 extras by new men under the Civil Service rules. It is a pleasant duty to record the loyalty of the remaining number of drivers at this time. I also desire to record the thanks of this Department to your Honor in the firm stand taken by you in this matter and the support given by you in the work of reorganization.

We are about to put the supply bureau of the Department in a better shape by providing a building for the proper care of the stores on the plot under the Williamsburg Bridge which has been set apart by the Sinking Fund Commission for this purpose.

I have always believed that it would be economy for the City to own more Department stables and hope to be able to convince the Commissioner of Bridges of the advisability of setting apart room under the approaches to the East River Bridges for the construction of stables at these points. I am investigating the introduction of improved methods for dumping and disposing of the various wastes.

The statistical records of the various details of the work are attached.

Respectfully submitted,
WM. H. EDWARDS, Commissioner of Street Cleaning.

NOTICE TO BIDDERS AT SALES OF OLD BUILDINGS, ETC.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS UNDER WHICH BUILDINGS, ETC., WILL BE SOLD FOR REMOVAL FROM CITY PROPERTY.

THE BUILDINGS AND APPURTENANCES thereto will be sold to the highest bidder, who must pay cash or certified check, drawn to the order of the Comptroller of The City of New York, and must also give a certified check or cash in half the amount of the purchase price as security for the faithful performance of the terms and conditions of the sale. Where the amount of the purchase price does not equal or exceed the sum of $50, the sum of $50 shall be the amount of the security to be deposited. This security may at any time after the expiration of the contract period be applied by the City to the cost of completing any of the work required under the contract, but unfinished at the expiration of the contract period.

The purchaser shall not lease, occupy, cause or permit the building or buildings, etc., purchased by him to be used or occupied for any purpose other than that of their speedy removal, nor shall he collect any rental or other revenue for the use of either the land or the buildings, etc., situated thereon. The breach of either or any of these conditions shall forthwith void the sale and cause immediate forfeiture of the purchase money and the security deposited for the faithful performance of the conditions of the sale. The placing therein or permitting the occupancy of any such building by any tenant free, for rent or otherwise, excepting the necessary watchmen or the workmen engaged in the actual demolition thereof, shall of itself be a breach of the above conditions of sale.

The sale will be as of the condition of the property on date of delivery thereof to the purchaser. The City of New York will not be responsible for any change or loss which may occur in the condition of the buildings, or their appurtenances between the time of the sale thereof and the time of delivering possession to the purchaser, after being properly vacated of all tenants. The sale and delivery to purchaser will be made as nearly together as the circumstance of vacating the structures of their tenants will permit.

All the material of the buildings, sheds, walks, structures and cellars of whatsoever nature, with their exterior and interior fixtures, appurtenances and foundations of all kinds, except the exterior walls of the buildings and their foundations, extending within the described area shall be torn down and removed from the premises. None of the dirt, debris or waste resulting from demolition shall be allowed to remain on the premises, except old mortar or plaster only, which may be left, but not higher at any point than two feet below the curb opposite that point. The exterior walls and their foundations shall be taken down only to a plane whose elevation shall be the level of the curb in front of the building. Where there is no curb the elevation of the surrounding ground shall be considered curb level. All wells, cesspools, sinks, etc., existing on the property must be filled to the level of the surrounding ground with clean earth.

The purchaser at the sale shall also withdraw and remove all abandoned water taps and old service mains, and in place thereof cause to be inserted a brass plug in the main water pipe in the street, in compliance with the rules and regulations of the Department of Water Supply, Gas and Electricity, and furnish the Department of Finance with a certificate from the Department of Water Supply, Gas and Electricity that this has been performed.

The purchaser at the sale shall also remove all house sewer connections to the main sewer in the street, and the opening of the main sewer in street shall be properly closed in compliance with the directions of the Bureau of Sewers in the Borough in which the buildings are situated, and furnish the Department of Finance with a certificate from the Bureau of Sewers that the work has been properly performed.

The permit for all opening in the street to be obtained by and at the expense of the purchaser of the building.

Failure to remove said buildings, appurtenances, or any part thereof, within thirty days from the day of possession will work forfeiture of ownership of such buildings, appurtenances or portion as shall then be left standing, together with all moneys paid by said purchaser on account thereof at the time of the sale, and the bidder's assent to the above conditions being understood to be implied by the act of bidding and The City of New York will, without notice to the purchaser, cause the same to be removed and the cost and expense thereof charged against the security above mentioned.

The work of removal must be carried on in every respect in a thorough and workmanlike manner, and must be completed within thirty days from the day of possession, and the successful bidder will provide and furnish all materials of labor and machinery necessary thereto, and will place proper and sufficient guards and fences and warning signs by day and night for the prevention of accidents, and will indemnify and save harmless The City of New York, its officers, agents and servants, and each of them, against any and all suits and actions, claims and demands of every name and description brought against it, them or any of them, and against and from all damage and costs to which it, they or any of them be put by reason of injury to the person or property of another, resulting from negligence or carelessness in the performance of the work, or in guarding the same, or from any improper or defective materials or machinery, implements or appliances used in the removal of said buildings.

Where party walls are found to exist between buildings purchased by different bidders, the materials of said party walls shall be understood to be equally divided between the separate purchasers.

Party walls and fences, when existing against adjacent property not sold, shall not be taken down. All furrings, plaster, chimneys, projecting brick, etc., on the faces of such party walls are to be taken down and removed. The walls shall be made permanently self-supporting, beam-holes, etc., bricked up, and the wall pointed and made to exclude wind and rain and present a clean exterior. The roofs and adjacent buildings shall be properly flashed and painted and made watertight where they have been disturbed by the operations of the contractor.

The Comptroller of The City of New York reserves the right on the day of sale to withdraw from sale any of the buildings, parts of buildings and machinery included therein, or to reject any and all bids, and it is further

Resolved, That, while the said sale is held under the supervision of the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund, the Comptroller is authorized to cause the sale to be advertised and to direct the sale thereof as financial officer of the City.

The bid or estimate must be verified by the oath, in writing, of the party or parties making the estimate that the several matters stated herein are in all respects true.

Each bid or estimate shall be accompanied by the consent, in writing, of two householders or freeholders in The City of New York, or of a guaranty or surety company duly authorized by law to act as surety, and shall contain the matters set forth in the blank forms mentioned below.

No bid or estimate will be considered unless, as a condition precedent to the reception or consideration of any proposal, it be accompanied by a certified check upon one of the State or National banks of The City of New York, drawn to the order of the Comptroller, or money or corporate stock or certificates of indebtedness of any nature issued by The City of New York, which the Comptroller shall approve as of equal value with the security required in the advertisement, to the amount of not less than three nor more than five per centum of the amount of the bond required, as provided in section 420 of the Greater New York Charter.

The certified check or money should not be inclosed in the envelope containing the bid or estimate, but should be either inclosed in a separate envelope addressed to the head of the Department, President or Board, or submitted personally upon the presentation of the bid or estimate.

No bid shall be accepted from or contract awarded to any person who is in arrears to The City of New York upon debt or contract, or who is a defaulter, as surety or otherwise, upon any obligation to the City.

The contract must be bid for separately. The right is reserved in each case to reject all bids or estimates if it is deemed to be for the interest of the City so to do.

Bidders will write out the amount of their bids or estimates in addition to inserting the same in figures.

Bidders are requested to make their bids or estimates upon the blank forms prepared and furnished by the City, a copy of which, with the proper envelope in which to inclose the bid, together with a copy of the contract, including the specifications, in the form approved by the Corporation Counsel, can be obtained upon application therefor at the office of the Department for which the work is to be done.
