

THE CITY RECORD.

OFFICIAL JOURNAL.

VOL. III.

NEW YORK, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 23, 1875.

NUMBER 742.

PROCLAMATION.

The season recurs, when, according to custom, there is designated a day of General Thanksgiving to Almighty God for all the mercies of the closing year. The President of the United States and the Governor of this State have appointed Thursday, the 25th of November for this annual festival; and, following the practice of my predecessors, I commend to the people of the City of New York a grateful observance of that day.

Although, here as elsewhere, business has been dull and failures have been many, the year which is passing has been accompanied by blessings which afford plentiful occasion for thanksgiving. The harvests upon which we depend have been abundant, and no pestilence has scourged the City. We have enjoyed civil liberty regulated by equal laws; and this community has had that which is the foundation of both our laws and our liberties—a social order, established in the intelligence of the people, and transmitted from the elder to the rising generation in the precepts of religion, the discipline of our common schools, and the moralities and the mutual trust of social and commercial intercourse.

For these and other benefits it behooves us to return thanks to the Ruler of the Universe.

And may we not well avouch the sincerity of grateful hearts by doing, each what he can, to give cause for thankfulness to the poor among us, who need always the forethought of the prosperous to help them to earn their daily bread, and who, suffering now for lack of employment, appeal to us to remember, as the winter comes on, that, in whatsoever we economize, we should be bountiful in our charities.

Given under my hand and the seal of the Mayoralty, this 20th day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

WILLIAM H. WICKHAM, Mayor.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

STATED SESSION.

MONDAY, November 22, 1875,

The Board met in their chamber, No. 15 City Hall.

PRESENT:

Hon. SAMUEL A. LEWIS, President;

ALDERMEN

Edward Gilon,
Magnus Gross,
Henry E. Howland,

William H. McCarthy,
Henry D. Purroy,
John Robinson,
Peter Seery,
Edward J. Shandley,

Chester H. Southworth,
Joseph P. Strack,
Samuel B. H. Vance.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

RESOLUTIONS.

By Alderman Purroy—

Resolved, That permission be and the same is hereby given to Thomas Kearns, to erect a piazza in front of the building on the corner of College and Pelham avenues, as shown on the diagram accompanying his petition, the work to be done at his own expense, under the direction of the Commissioner of Public Works; such permission to continue only during the pleasure of the Common Council.

The President put the question whether the Board would agree with said resolution. Which was decided in the affirmative.

By Alderman Gross—

Whereas, The amended Charter has made it incumbent on this Board, on or after the tenth day of November of each year, at a special meeting called for this purpose, to consider the Provisional Estimate of the amounts required to meet the expenses of conducting the public business of the City and County of New York, in each Department and branch thereof, and the Board of Education, for the next ensuing financial year; and

Whereas, It is made the duty of this Board carefully to consider and investigate the said Provisional Estimate and the reasons thereof, and that such consideration and investigation shall not continue beyond fifteen days, or beyond the 25th instant; and

Whereas, By these various provisions of the amended Charter this Board, although vested only with advisory power in the premises, is held morally responsible for the results, together with the respective public officers making, and the Board of Estimate and Apportionment revising and correcting said Estimates; and

Whereas, By a strange anomaly in the law, the canvassing of the votes cast at the preceding election, and the consideration of said Estimates, are simultaneously crowded into these fifteen days, leaving but little time for a careful scrutiny of the tax levy, whilst lessening none of the responsibilities of this Board for the amounts asked therein; therefore, be it

Resolved, That in taking up the Provisional Estimate for the year 1876, their consideration by this Board shall be proceeded with in the same order as arranged in the printed report thereof, to be continued day after day until the 25th instant, if not completed prior to that date.

The President put the question whether the Board would agree with said resolution.

Which was decided in the affirmative.

MESSAGE FROM HIS HONOR THE MAYOR.

The President laid before the Board the following message from his Honor the Mayor:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, CITY HALL,
NEW YORK, November 22, 1875.

To the Honorable the Board of Aldermen:

GENTLEMEN—I have received the sad tidings of the death of Henry Wilson, Vice-President of the United States, which occurred this morning at Washington.

The country will lament the loss of one of the most useful, as of the most eminent, of the men who have been in public office during the generation which is now passing away.

Robust and vigorous, courageous and of manly directness of character, his kindness of heart, his approved sagacity and political wisdom, and his long experience and recognized authority in Congress, fitted him for the largest influence for good in the present condition of public opinion as to political questions.

He will be sincerely mourned by all who are solicitous for the general welfare.

I recommend that appropriate action be taken by the Board of Aldermen to express a proper respect for his memory, and in acknowledgment of his great public services.

W. H. WICKHAM, Mayor.

In connection therewith Alderman Cole offered the following:

Whereas, The death of Henry Wilson, Vice-President of the United States, which occurred at Washington, D. C., this morning, has been officially communicated to this Board, by his Honor the Mayor, and in view of the exalted position held by the deceased, and the many public and private virtues of which he was the exemplar, it is eminently proper that the Common Council should take appropriate action to make manifest the sorrow of our people and government for his death, and of respect for his memory, be it therefore

Resolved, That a special committee of seven be appointed to prepare and present to this Board, suitable resolutions expressive of the profound sorrow of our people for the death of Henry Wilson, and with power to take such measures as to them may appear suitable to testify respect for the memory of the deceased; and be it further

Resolved, That, as an additional mark of respect for the memory of the deceased, this Board do now adjourn.

Alderman Purroy moved that 2 o'clock be fixed as the hour for the meeting of the Board tomorrow.

The President put the question whether the Board would agree with said motion.

Which was decided in the affirmative.

The President then put the question whether the Board would agree with the preamble and resolutions offered by Alderman Cole.

Which was decided in the affirmative.

The President appointed as such committee Aldermen Cole, Purroy, Gilon, Guntzer, Billings, Howland, and Robinson.

And then announced that the Board stood adjourned until Tuesday next, the 23d inst., at 2 o'clock P. M.

FRANCIS J. TWOMEY, Clerk.
