DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC PARKS.

Abstract of Proceedings for the week ending October 28, 1876.

MEETING, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1876.

The Superintendent of the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Wards was directed to have the pavement of Third avenue, between One Hundred and Thirty-eighth street and Westchester avenue, repaired. Also, to fill up a depression at the junction of One Hundred and Fifty-fourth street and Elton avenue, to prevent stagnant water from collecting at that point.

Repairs to the amount of from $600 to $650 were ordered to be made to William's Bridge.

The President was authorized to grant, at his discretion, permits for the erection of stands, etc., around any of the public parks, for the purpose of public meetings, until November 7, 1876.

Specifications for the construction of the bridge over the Harlem river, at One Hundred and Thirty-ninth street, were approved.

The following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That, under and by virtue of the powers conferred on the Commissioners of the Department of Public Parks of the City of New York, by chapters 329 and 604 of the Laws of 1874, they do hereby lay out the streets, roads, and avenues, and public parks and places within the Twenty-fourth Ward of the city of New York, shown on a map or plan entitled "A Map or Plan of Fordham avenue and connecting streets in the Twenty-fourth Ward of the City of New York," dated "New York, September 12, 1876," and signed "J. J. R. Croes, Civil and Topographical Engineer Department of Public Parks," of the widths, extent, and direction that said streets, roads, and avenues are designated on said map or plan by red lines and figures and color, and said public parks and places by green color; and that said Commissioners do hereby discontinue and close such streets, roads, and avenues now existing or heretofore laid out as are designated on said map by India ink shading; and that the widths, extent, and direction of the said streets, roads, and avenues and public parks, or places so laid out or discontinued, are such as to the said Commissioners, or a majority of them, seem most conducive to the public good; and that the President of the Department cause the said several streets, roads, and avenues and public parks, or places to be surveyed or designated by proper monuments, where the same are not already so designated; and also to have three similar maps or plans and profiles of the same prepared and submitted to this Board, to be filed in pursuance of said laws above mentioned.

At the request of the Trustees of the American Museum of Natural History, and upon the recommendation of the Superintending Architect, certain changes were authorized to be made in the contract for the artificial stone flooring at said Museum, at a reduction of $1,930 in the contract price.

The Engineer and Surveyor of Street Openings and Improvements was authorized to employ Mr. Thomas L. Beebe as an axeman whenever his services are required, at $2.50 per day. An agreement was entered into with Mr. Chas. Schedler, extending the lease of High Bridge Park Hotel for three years.

Nicholas O'Hearn, Parkkeeper.

Forwarded to Finance Department.
