No Garbage, Recycling or Organics Collection, or Street Cleaning on Independence Day, Thursday, July 4, 2019

The New York City Department of Sanitation announced that in observance of Independence Day, there will be no trash, recycling, or organics collection, nor street cleaning on Thursday, July 4, 2019.

- Residents who normally receive Thursday trash and organics collection should place their material out at curbside after 4 p.m. on Thursday, July 4 for pickup.
- Residents who normally receive Thursday recycling collection should place their material out at curbside after 4 p.m. on Wednesday, July 10 for pickup on Thursday, July 11.

Additionally, all Sanitation Department administrative offices will be closed on Thursday, July 4, in observance of the holiday.

To help provide city residents with Sanitation-related service reminders, updates and special event schedules, download the smart phone and tablet app, DSNY Info. The app also includes tips to reduce, reuse and recycle, making it easier for New Yorkers send zero waste to landfills. The free app is available for both iOS and Android operating systems, and can be found by searching DSNY Info in the Apple App and Google Play stores.

About the New York City Department of Sanitation

The Department of Sanitation (DSNY) keeps New York City healthy, safe and clean by collecting, recycling and disposing of waste, cleaning streets and vacant lots, and clearing snow and ice. The Department operates 59 district garages and manages a fleet of more than 2,000 rear-loading collection trucks, 450 mechanical brooms and 695 salt/sand spreaders. The Department clears litter, snow and ice from approximately 6,500 miles of City streets and removes debris from vacant lots as well as abandoned vehicles from City streets.
