IV. EEO, Diversity, Inclusion and Equity Initiatives for FY 2024

❖ Please describe your progress this quarter in implementing the primary goals in Section IV of your Agency Diversity, Equity, Inclusion and EEO Plan for FY 2024.

A. Workforce:

NYCEM's FY 2024 diversity, inclusion, equity and belonging strategic action-oriented goals are focused on promoting equity, increasing diversity, assuring equal employment opportunity, increased retention, engagement, and morale. The CEDO will work with all bureaus and offices within NYCEM infuse diversity, equity, inclusion and belonging into every area within the agency, with frequent collaborations with Human Capital Management, Office of the Chief Legal Counsel, Procurement, External Affairs, Facilities, and Learning and Development. Employing a diverse workforce leads to improved service and program delivery, increased client and workforce satisfaction and maximizes the productivity, creativity, and loyalty of our employees.

❖ Please list the Workforce Goal(s) included in Section IV: Diversity, Equity, Inclusion and EEO Initiatives for FY 2023, which you set/declared in your FY 2024 Diversity, Equity, Inclusion and EEO Plan (e.g., underutilization, workforce planning, succession planning and diverse applicant pool, among others).

1. Recruit a diverse workforce representative of the city we serve.

NYCEM FY 2024 Diversity, Equity, Inclusion and Equal Employment Quarterly Report

NYCEM has taken the following steps to meet these goals:

- Develop clear and consistent messaging to staff and in job descriptions that having a diverse workforce is an agency priority and that efforts to create and maintain a diverse, equitable, and inclusive NYCEM community include everyone at all levels of the agency.
- The CEDO will review all NYCEM job descriptions to ensure that it is screened for potential barriers to employment for women, minorities, individuals with disabilities and protected veterans.
- Provide the search panel with underutilization data specific to the job group they are interviewing for prior to the panels review of applications for employment.
- NYCEM will measure the efficacy of this goal by examining whether the number of the female, minority, applicants with disabilities, and veterans who meet the minimum qualifications increase within the applicant pool.
- The “EEO Review” will be performed by the CEDO for every new application for employment.

Communities” initiative.

of underrepresented groups (succession planning, job shadowing,) including maintaining and the further development of NYCEM's Mentor Program.

- Establish development opportunities for mid-career professionals.
- The development and roll out of professional development pathways for each Bureau and Office and initiative to codify agency job titles and pay bands.

NYCEM has taken the following steps to meet these goals:

- ❖ Please describe steps that were taken or considered to address underutilization identified through quarterly workforce reports. Please list Job Groups where underutilization exists in the current quarter.

NYCEM's CEEDS Utilization Report indicated underutilization of Blacks in the Management Specialists job group. The entity's CEEDS: Work Force Composition Summary indicated that the Management Specialists job group was comprised of one non-competitive (discretionary) title. The agency conducted a broader analysis of underutilization and has developed recruitment and selection improvements to address underutilization. While the underutilization of black candidates for this job group persists, the organization notes that nominal mitigation has been observed from FY24 Q1 to FY24 Q2.

Based on an analysis of agency demographic data and changes from FY24 Q1 through FY24 Q2, overall agency diversity metrics are trending positively, especially among leadership roles and including the Emergency Preparedness Specialist civil service title that is part of the CEEDS "management specialist" title.

- CEEDS data continue to flag underutilization of Black "management specialists."
- The CEEDS "management specialist" category does not correspond with internal agency titles. It loosely represents agency non-managers with the civil service title of Emergency Preparedness Specialist outside of the IT and Legal teams and a few other exceptions.
- CEEDS Q3 workforce data take aways:
  - Of the 122 employees included in the management specialist category, 17% self-identify as black. This is slightly higher than QFY24Q2 where black employees made up 19% of the Management Specialist job group. In Q3, underutilization of black employees in this job group persists. Additionally, NYCEM showed a marked increase the separation of minority employees from 38% in FY24 Q2 as compared to 88% of all separations were by minority employees. The CEDO to continue to monitor.

NYCEM's strategy to meet these goals is as follows:

- A new cohort of NYCEM Equity & Diversity Council members for FY 2024, will be announced in Q2. The second transition since the Council's inaugural members began serving in 2021. In August 2023, Curtis Brown, Founder of the Institute for Diversity, and Inclusion in Emergency Management, spoke at NYCEM during the IDIEM HERicane program.
- NYCEM will continue to foster DEI principles through our Equity and Diversity Council. The Council has recommended DEI practices and principles across the agency and in all aspects of our mission. The Council is heavily involved in workplace initiatives and is a guiding force for the agency. Council FY2023 goals include defining and standardizing processes for promotions, salary increases, and professional development; improving managerial and non-managerial evaluation processes; standardizing exit interview processes and collecting data from employees for review.
- Ensuring resources to support NYCEM's Equity, Diversity & Inclusion Council to provide constructive feedback, identify issues needing attention, and assist in implementing policies to enhance diversity and equity at NYCEM.
- NYCEM will also use data from climate studies to frame and direct future action on diversity, equity, inclusion and belonging initiatives.

5. Process, resolve, and adjudicate claims of discrimination, including EEO retaliation.

NYCEM's strategy to meet these goals is as follows:

NYCEM FY 2024 Diversity, Equity, Inclusion and Equal Employment Quarterly Report

Changes to the Performance Evaluation Process were implemented in 2023. The agency introduced Managerial Effectiveness Evaluations, a mandatory self-assessment, and a new Tasks and Standards Template incorporating Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion tasks and standards. NYCEM continues to pilot a Managerial Effectiveness Evaluation. Employees are asked to evaluate their managers on key performance areas: Valuing Behaviors; Interdependent Behaviors; Communication Behaviors; Valuing Diversity Behaviors; Leadership Behaviors. This has afforded employees the opportunity provide candid, constructive feedback on their direct supervisors' performance this past year to Human Capital Management (HCM). HCM soon will summarize all feedback received for each individual supervisor. Feedback will be averaged to protect anonymity and ensure confidentiality. HCM will also prepare an overall summary of recommend areas for additional management training.

In FY24 Q3, January 8, 2024, the aforementioned updated Tasks and Standards template with D.E. I. B. focused observations were included.

In FY24 Q4, June 2024, NYCEM's revised Performance Improvement Plan policies and procedures to include mechanisms to monitor its implementation and impact on underrepresented staff.

1. Career Counseling: Advising employees of opportunities for promotion and career development; Notification of promotion/transfer opportunities. All agency job postings and promotional opportunities were and continue to be shared with agency staff via email as positions become available.
2. Reviewing the methods by which candidates are selected for appointment, promotion, or to fill vacancies (new hires), especially for mid- and high-level discretionary positions.

New changes to the hiring process were socialized in September 2023, with implementation at the start of FY 2024 or when the hiring freeze is lifted. As part of the new process, hiring memos must clearly highlight why the candidate was selected and how the candidate satisfies NYCEM's values.

3. Describe the role of agency EEO Officer and other EEO staff in the selection of candidates for appointment or promotion (pre- and post-appointment).

Assist the hiring manager if a reasonable accommodation is requested during the interview and/or onboarding; observe interviews, periodically review candidate evaluation forms and candidate demographics included in applicant logs. Review hiring packages to evaluate that the selection process was conducted in accordance with EEO best practices.

4. Analyzing the impact of layoffs or terminations on racial, gender and age groups.

NYCEM abides by DCAS Layoff Procedure guidance, in the event of layoffs, terminations, and demotions due to legitimate business/operational reasons in FY 2023. The agency will analyze the impact of layoffs or terminations on racial, gender, age groups, and people with disabilities. Where layoffs or terminations would have a disproportionate impact on any of these groups, the agency will document that the targeted titles or programs were selected based on objective criteria and justified by business necessity. NYCEM, HCM, the CEDO and the Office of Chief Legal Counsel will be involved in making layoff or termination decisions.
