

Thu, Apr 14, 2022 at 11:10
AM

Your Bridge to the Past

CELEBRATE OLMSTED BICENTENNIAL

DATE: April 22-23, 2022

LOCATION: 31 Chambers Street, Suite 111, New York, NY 10007

In honor of famed landscape architect Frederick Law Olmsted's 200th birthday, the NYC Department of Records & Information Services will host a pop-up exhibition at 31 Chambers Street featuring the rarely seen original Greensward plan - the winning master plan submitted in 1858 by Olmsted and Calvert Vaux as part of the proposal for the Central Park design competition. Rarely seen in public, the plan is considered a masterpiece of 19th century landscape architecture. The Greensward plan will be shown alongside Egbert Viele's 1855 topographic map of the site. Original architectural drawings will also be presented. Free tickets for 30-minute slots on April 22nd, 11am - 7pm and April 23rd, 10am - 4pm are available.

CLICK HERE TO RSVP

To unsubscribe, click here!

The mission of the NYC Department of Records and Information Services (DORIS) is to foster civic life by preserving and providing access to the historical and contemporary records of New York City government, to ensure that City records are properly maintained following professional archival and record management practices and to make materials available to diverse communities both online and in person.

PLEASE DO NOT REPLY TO THIS MESSAGE!