

THE CITY RECORD.

OFFICIAL JOURNAL.

VOL. III.

NEW YORK, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1875.

NUMBER 743.

PROCLAMATION.

The season recurs, when, according to custom, there is designated a day of General Thanksgiving to Almighty God for all the mercies of the closing year. The President of the United States and the Governor of this State have appointed Thursday, the 25th of November for this annual festival; and, following the practice of my predecessors, I commend to the people of the City of New York a grateful observance of that day.

Although, here as elsewhere, business has been dull and failures have been many, the year which is passing has been accompanied by blessings which afford plentiful occasion for thanksgiving. The harvests upon which we depend have been abundant, and no pestilence has scourged the City. We have enjoyed civil liberty regulated by equal laws; and this community has had that which is the foundation of both our laws and our liberties—a social order, established in the intelligence of the people, and transmitted from the elder to the rising generation in the precepts of religion, the discipline of our common schools, and the moralities and the mutual trust of social and commercial intercourse.

For these and other benefits it behooves us to return thanks to the Ruler of the Universe.

And may we not well avouch the sincerity of grateful hearts by doing, each what he can, to give cause for thankfulness to the poor among us, who need always the forethought of the prosperous to help them to earn their daily bread, and who, suffering now for lack of employment, appeal to us to remember, as the winter comes on, that, in whatsoever we economize, we should be bountiful in our charities.

Given under my hand and the seal of the Mayoralty, this 20th day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

WILLIAM H. WICKHAM, Mayor.

JURORS.

NOTICE

IN RELATION TO JURORS FOR STATE COURTS.

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER OF JURORS, NEW COUNTY COURT-HOUSE,
NEW YORK, June 1, 1875.

APPLICATIONS FOR EXEMPTIONS WILL BE heard here, from 9 to 4 daily, from all persons hitherto liable or recently serving who have become exempt, and all needed information will be given.

Those who have not answered as to their liability, or proved permanent exemption, will receive a "jury enrollment notice," requiring them to appear before me this year. (Whether liable or not, such notices must be answered (in person, if possible, and at this office only) under severe penalties. If exempt, the party must bring proof of exemption; if liable, he must also answer in person, giving full and correct name, residence, etc., etc. No attention paid to letters.

When possible and legal, serving jurors will be allowed to select a convenient season—if application be made in time.

Persons "enrolled" as liable must serve when called or pay their fines. No mere excuse will be allowed or interference permitted. The fines, received from those who, for business or other reasons, are unable to serve at the time selected, pay the expenses of this office, and if unpaid will be entered as judgments upon the property of delinquents.

The Commissioner will receive applications for relief from those jurors who have served continuously and promptly for several years, or have done excessive jury service in the State Courts.

All good citizens will aid the course of justice, and secure reliable and respectable juries, and equalize their duties by serving promptly when summoned, allowing their clerks or subordinates to serve, reporting to me any attempt at bribery or evasion, and suggesting names for enrollment.
Persons between sixty and seventy years of age, summer absentees, persons temporarily ill, and United States and District Court jurors are not exempt.

Every man must attend to his own notice. It is a misdemeanor to give any jury paper to another to answer.
It is also punishable by fine or imprisonment to give or receive any present or bribe, directly or indirectly, in relation to a jury service, or to withhold any paper or make any false statement, and every case will be fully prosecuted. No fees of any kind exist or are allowed in regard to jury notices, and any one asking, receiving, or giving any such "fee" or "present" will be arrested, and, if possible, punished to the full extent of the law.
