Re: Board of Correction
Evaluation of Sexual Harassment Prevention and Response Practices
Audit Period: January 1, 2017 to December 31, 2018
Determination: PRELIMINARY

Dear Executive Director Ovesey:

On behalf of the members of the Equal Employment Practices Commission (EEPC), thank you and your agency for the cooperation extended to our staff thus far. This letter contains the EEPC's evaluation and preliminary determinations pursuant to the Board of Correction's Sexual Harassment Prevention and Response Practices for the period covering January 1, 2017 to December 31, 2018.

Purpose

Chapter 36, Sections 830(a) and 831(d)(2) and (5) of the New York City Charter (Charter) authorize the EEPC to audit, review, evaluate, and monitor the employment practices, procedures, and programs of city agencies and other municipal entities, hereinafter "entities," and their efforts to ensure fair and effective equal employment opportunity (EEO) for women and minority employees and applicants. Charter Sections 831(d)(2) and 832(c) authorize the EEPC to make a determination that any plan, program, procedure, approach, measure, or standard does not provide equal employment opportunity, require appropriate corrective action, and monitor the implementation of the corrective action prescribed.

The Board of Correction, hereinafter simply termed "agency" or "entity," falls within the EEPC's purview under Chapter 36, Sections 830(a) and 831(a) of the Charter, to review, evaluate, and monitor the coordination and implementation of affirmative employment programs of equal employment opportunity for any "city, county, borough or other office, administration, board, department, division, commission, bureau, corporation, authority, or other agency of government where the majority of the board members of such agency are appointed by the mayor or serve by virtue of being city officers or the expenses of which are paid in whole or in part from the city treasury..."

The purpose of this audit and analysis is to evaluate the subject matter referenced, not to issue findings of discrimination pursuant to the New York City Human Rights Law.

Scope

The EEPC has adopted uniform standards for auditing municipal entities¹ and minimum standards for auditing Community Boards (collectively “Standards”) to review, evaluate, and monitor entities’ employment and EEO-related practices, procedures, approaches, measures, standards, and programs. These standards are founded upon, and consistent with federal, state, and local laws and regulations, and policies and procedures to increase equal opportunity for women, minorities, and other employees and job applicants identified for protection from discrimination. Corrective actions prescribed are consistent with the aforementioned parameters including, but not limited to, the City of New York’s Equal Employment Opportunity Policy, Standards and Procedures to Be Utilized by City Agencies 2014, as amended (Citywide EEO Policy); the New York City Human Rights Law (New York City Administrative Code Title 8); New York State Human Rights Law (New York Executive Law, Article 15); the New York State Civil Service Law §55-a; and the equal employment opportunity requirements of the New York City Charter.

Policy and Plan Requirements

The aforementioned Standards require, at minimum, that mayoral entities distribute the Citywide EEO Policy; non-mayoral entities establish or adopt a comprehensive EEO policy; and Community Boards, which are comprised of members appointed by the respective Borough Presidents, adopt and distribute the corresponding Borough President’s EEO Policy.

Because the EEPC is authorized to review and recommend actions that each entity should consider including in its annual plan of measures and programs to provide equal employment opportunity, or Annual EEO Plan, entities are also required to incorporate the EEPC’s corrective actions in prospective Annual EEO Plans and programs.

Methodology

The EEPC communicates with EEO professionals (including, but not limited to, past or current EEO Officers, Deputy or Co-EEO Officers, EEO Counselors, EEO Trainers, EEO Investigators, Disability Rights Coordinators, Career Counselors, and 55-a Program Coordinators) and other employees identified as having involvement in EEO program administration such as the Principal Human Resources Professional and relevant Counsel.

The EEPC’s audit methodology includes review of the agency’s Annual EEO Plans and Quarterly EEO Reports; analysis of workforce and utilization data; and the collection and analysis of documents, records, and data an entity and its representatives provide in response to the Sexual Harassment Prevention and Response Preliminary Interview Questionnaires (PIQs). All PIQs contain requests to attach supporting documentation for the answer options selected.

EEO Professionals designated for online interviews are assigned a three-week deadline to complete and return the PIQs. The EEPC’s PIQ(s)/requests were sent to the Board of Correction on February 11, 2019; the completed PIQ(s) were returned on March 4, 2019. Supporting documentation was attached. Additional requests for information were made on March 25, 2019; June 28, 2019; and June 22, 2019.

The following determination indicates where the Board of Correction has or has not complied, in whole or in part, with the established Standards.

Description of the Agency

Pursuant to the New York City Charter, the Board of Correction (BOC) evaluates the performance of the Department of Correction, establishes and ensures compliance with minimum health standards, mental health standards and standards of confinement in all City correction facilities, reviews inmate and employee grievances, investigates serious incidents and makes recommendations in critical areas of correctional planning.

The BOC is composed of nine members, three appointed by the Mayor, three by the City Council, and three by the Mayor on nomination jointly by the presiding justices of the appellate division of the Supreme Court for the first and second judicial departments on a rotating basis. Terms six years. No compensation. Mayor designates one member as Chair. (Source: The Green Book, 3/2019). At the end of the period in review, the Board of Correction had 27 employees (CEEDS report: Workforce Composition Summary, 2nd quarter of fiscal year 2019 is attached as Appendix – 1.)

PRELIMINARY DETERMINATIONS AFTER AUDIT AND ANALYSIS

Following are the corresponding audit standards for each subject area along with the EEPC's findings and required corrective actions, where appropriate:

I. Issuance, Distribution and Posting of EEO Policies

Determination: The agency is in partial-compliance with the standards for this subject area.

1. Issue a Policy Statement or memorandum reiterating commitment to the prevention of sexual harassment annually.

✓ On September 21, 2018, Board of Correction's Executive Director emailed a digital copy of its Sexual Harassment Policy Statement to all employees. The Sexual Harassment Policy Statement iterated, "[s]exual harassment is a form of employment discrimination prohibited by the EEO Policy and law" and that "[s]exual harassment is strictly prohibited. Employees who violate this Policy may also be subject to civil damages or criminal penalties". (The Board of Correction's Sexual Harassment Policy Statement is attached as Appendix – 2.)

➤ Board of Correction did not demonstrate that, during the period in review, it issued a Policy Statement or memorandum reiterating commitment to the prevention of sexual harassment annually.

Corrective Action Required.

NOTE: Subsequent to the period in review, on August 13, 2019, Board of Correction submitted to the EEPC a draft of its Sexual Harassment Policy Statement that is scheduled to be issued in September 2019.

Corrective Action #1: Issue a Policy Statement or memorandum reiterating commitment to the prevention of sexual harassment annually.

2. Distribute/Post a paper or electronic copy of the Equal Employment Opportunity Policy, Standards and Procedures to Be Utilized by City Agencies – or an agency Policy that conforms to city, state and federal laws against sexual harassment– for use by managers, supervisors, and legal, human resources and EEO professionals. Include, or attach as addenda: uniform and responsive procedures for investigating discrimination/sexual harassment complaints, and current contact information for the agency's EEO professionals as well as federal, state and local agencies that enforce laws against discrimination/sexual harassment.

✓ On September 21, 2018, Board of Correction's Executive Director emailed all employees a digital copy of the agency's Sexual Harassment Policy Statement. Included in the Sexual Harassment Policy Statement were links to the Equal Employment Opportunity Policy, Standards and Procedures To be Utilized by City Agencies, 2014 (EEO Policy), About EEO: What You May Not Know, 2014 (EEO Handbook), and EEO Complaint Procedural Guidelines, City of New York, 2016 (Procedural Guidelines). The EEO Policy contained a link to the EEO Policy Addendum which included an updated list of protected classes. Both the EEO Policy and the EEO Handbook conformed to city, state, and federal laws against sexual harassment. The Procedural Guidelines contained uniform and responsive procedures for investigating discrimination complaints as well as contact information of federal, state, and local agencies that enforced laws against discrimination and sexual harassment. In addition, in its response to the EEOC's Preliminary Interview Questionnaire, Board of Correction reported that all new employees were physically given hardcopies of the EEO Policy, EEO Handbook, and Procedural Guidelines during the new hire process (The EEO Policy is attached as Appendix – 3 and the Procedural Guidelines is attached as Appendix – 4.)

NOTE: The address listed for the New York City Commission on Human Rights in the EEO Complaint Procedural Guidelines, City of New York 2016 is no longer current. If the Board of Correction distributes this document, it should include an updated address for the New York City Commission on Human Rights with that distribution or distribute the 2018² version of the EEO Complaint Procedural Guidelines, City of New York that includes the current address for the New York City Commission on Human Rights and other pertinent information.

II. Training for the Agency

Determination: The agency is in compliance with the standards for this subject area.

3. Establish and implement a training plan for new and existing employees to ensure that all individuals who work within the agency, including managers and supervisors, receive training on the prevention of sexual harassment as well as discrimination complaint and investigation procedures.

✓ The Board of Correction's Diversity and Equal Employment Opportunity Plan for fiscal year 2019 outlined a plan to implement "refresher" sexual harassment prevention training for all individuals who worked within the agency. A September 21, 2018 email from the Executive Director to all Board of Correction employees stated, "...be aware our agency has now complied...Each of us has completed [Department of Citywide Administrative Services] required Sexual Harassment Prevention training." Training logs from the Department of Citywide Administrative Service (DCAS) Citywide Training Center indicated that as of September 26, 2018, all Board of Correction employees completed DCAS' Sexual

Harassment Prevention: What to Know About Unlawful and Inappropriate Behaviors in the Workplace computer-based training (Sexual Harassment Prevention Training). The course objective on DCAS' Human Capital website stated that the training, "...will facilitate awareness of the City's prohibition on sexual harassment in its workplaces under applicable laws and the City's Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) Policy. Participants will learn the definitions of sexual harassment, relevant legislation, prevention techniques and a procedure for filing a complaint. This course will help participants to create an environment that is free from sexual harassment."

III. Complaint and Investigation Procedures

Summary of Complaint Activity: The agency reported 2 internal and 2 external complaints were filed during the period in review³.

Determination: The agency is in partial-compliance with the standards for this subject area.

4. Include in the complaint file a completed Complaint Intake Form, or a written complaint that captures facts (including pertinent dates) that identify the respondent(s) with reasonable specificity and provide the essence of the circumstances which gave rise to the complaint.

✓ Complaint files Nos. 1 and 2 each included a completed Complaint of Discrimination form that captured the following: Name, Division/ Office/ Agency, Civil Service Title, Office Title, and Supervisor of the complainant. The Complaint of Discrimination form also asked the complainant to provide answers to the following questions: what is the alleged basis of discrimination (a checklist of classes protected against employment discrimination was listed), please give the name, title, and division of the person(s) you believe discriminated against you, when did the alleged discrimination occur, where did the alleged incident occur, were there witnesses to the discrimination, did you report this incident to anyone, have you filed a complaint about the alleged discrimination with any of the following agencies (a checklist including the New York City Commission on Human Rights, New York State Division of Human Rights, United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, United States Department of Labor, and United States Department of Justice was provided), what corrective action do you want taken, and description of alleged unlawful discrimination. Complaint file No. 2 contained the date and the complainant's signature under the statement, "I certify that I have read the above charge and the attached pages, that it is true to the best of my knowledge information and belief, and that I have read the attached notices concerning my rights to file a complaint with federal, state, and local civil rights enforcement agencies."

NOTE: Complaint No. 1 was the result of an anonymous email sent to the Executive Director. The Complaint of Discrimination form was completed by the principal EEO Professional and was not signed.

5. Provide the option to file a complaint anonymously.

✓ Complaint No. 1 was filed anonymously via an anonymous email sent to the Executive Director. The option to file a complaint anonymously was provided to employees via the Procedural Guidelines that included the following directive, "[t]he EEO complaint or inquiry process begins when a person (the "Complainant") contacts the EEO Office regarding an alleged discriminatory incident. The person making the complaint may do so anonymously, if he or she so chooses. Anonymous complaints must be treated the same as identified complaints, to the extent possible." In addition, the EEO Policy stated, "[p]ersons who wish to discuss a possible violation of this Policy without revealing their identity may do so by telephoning or writing the EEO Office. In such cases, the EEO office will provide counseling and take such follow-up action as may be appropriate and possible, given the restraints of anonymity."

³ 50% of the complaints filed during the period in review involved sexual harassment.

6. Serve the respondent with a notice of the complaint that includes the respondent's right to respond to the allegations and right to be accompanied by a representative of his/her choice. Maintain in the complaint file documentation regarding the service of notice on the respondent.

✓ Complaint files Nos. 1 and 2 each contained a notice of the complaint that was served to the respondent that included the respondent's right to respond to the allegations.

➤ The notice of the complaint served to the respondents for complaint Nos. 1 and 2 did not include the respondent's right to be accompanied by a representative of his/her choice. Corrective Action Required.

Corrective Action #2: Serve the respondent with a notice of the complaint that includes the respondent's right to respond to the allegations and right to be accompanied by a representative of his/her choice. Maintain in the complaint file documentation regarding the service of notice on the respondent.

7. Issue/maintain written confirmation when an internal complaint/mediation is terminated, withdrawn or resolved by agreement of the parties or EEO Office.

✓ Board of Correction's Procedural Guidelines directed the maintenance of written confirmation regarding the termination or withdrawal of internal complaints by stating, "[i]f the parties agree to a resolution during mediation, a resolution agreement will be drafted and provided to the parties and the referring EEO Officer. The resolution agreement will resolve the pending EEO complaint...[a] party may withdraw from mediation at any time. The EEO Office may also terminate the mediation process if it deems that the effort has been unproductive. The EEO Office must inform all parties to the complaint, in writing, of the termination of mediation." Furthermore, the EEO Policy stated, "[i]n the event that mediation does not result in a resolution, the EEO Officer will provide the parties with a written statement informing the parties of the complainant's right to an investigation of the allegation. Where efforts to mediate complaints are unsuccessful, complaints will be investigated by the EEO office."

8. Take thorough notes, of words spoken and facts provided, during each interview. Include these notes in each complaint file.

✓ Complaint files Nos. 1 and 2 each included a conclusive report with an Appendix that contained notes of words spoken and facts provided during each interview conducted by the EEO Office during the course of the complaint investigation. The notes provided in the Appendix included the interviewees' name, agency title, and date of each interview.

9. Issue a conclusive report within 90 days of the date the complaint was filed. Commence an investigation immediately if allegations raised sufficiently warrant an investigation.

➤ The conclusive confidential report for complaint file No. 1 was issued 245 days after the complaint was filed. The conclusive confidential report for complaint file No. 2 was issued 255 days after the complaint was filed. Corrective Action Required.

Corrective Action #3: Issue a conclusive report within 90 days of the date the complaint was filed. Commence an investigation immediately if allegations raised sufficiently warrant an investigation.

10. In rare circumstances where a complaint investigation cannot commence immediately, or where a conclusive report cannot be issued within 90 days, specify in the complaint file the reason for the delay and project a time frame for completion of the report. Notify the complainant and respondent of the delay.

✓ Complaint file No. 2 included an email from the principal EEO Professional that was sent to the complainant acknowledging a delay in the complaint investigation.

➤ Complaint files Nos. 1 and 2 did not contain a specified reason for the delay, a projected time frame for completion of the final investigative reports, or documentation that the respondents were notified of the delay. Corrective Action Required.

NOTE: As complaint No. 1 was filed anonymously, a notice of the investigation delay to the complainant was not feasible.

Corrective Action #4: In rare circumstances where a complaint investigation cannot commence immediately, or where a conclusive report cannot be issued within 90 days, specify in the complaint file the reason for the delay and project a time frame for completion of the report. Notify the complainant and respondent of the delay.

11. Generate at the end of each complaint investigation, a conclusive confidential report which includes a summary of the allegations and responses, a summary of the procedural history of the investigation, a statement of the relevant facts gathered, a determination, a recommendation and documentation of the Agency Head's Review.

✓ Complaint files Nos. 1 and 2 each contained an EEO Complaint Final Investigative Report that included the following sections: Statement of Basis of Complaint, Summary of History of Complaint, Statement of Allegations, Findings of Fact, Finding, Determination, and Recommendation(s). In addition, the end of each EEO Complaint Final Investigative Report included space after the Recommendation(s) section for the agency head to document their review under the statement, "I have reviewed this report and the recommendation(s) made above". Complaint files Nos. 1 and 2 each contained the date and agency head's signature under the statement, "[t]he recommended actions meet with my approval and will be adopted".

12. Maintain complaint files in a secure area and ensure that they can be located and reviewed by the agency head, agency general counsel, and other appropriate staff identified by the agency head.

✓ Board of Correction reported that EEO files were stored both electronically in a password-secured digital folder and physically in a locked file cabinet within the principal EEO Professional's office. Only the principal EEO Professional had access to both electronic and physical EEO files.

➤ Board of Correction did not demonstrate that the agency head, agency general counsel, and other appropriate staff identified by the agency head had access to locate and review agency complaint files. Corrective Action Required.

NOTE: Subsequent to the period in review, screenshots provided on August 13, 2019 indicated that Board of Correction's acting Executive Director/General Counsel was given unrestricted access to the entity's digital EEO folder.

13. Establish and implement a policy whereby the agency head (or an approved direct report other than the General Counsel) reviews the principal investigator's conclusive report; issues a written/electronic determination adopting, rejecting, or modifying the recommended action; and signs each determination, via writing or electronically, to indicate it has been reviewed and adopted.

✓ Complaint files Nos. 1 and 2 included an EEO Complaint Final Investigative Report that contained space after the Recommendation(s) section for the Agency Head to document their review. For both complaint files, the Agency Head signed and dated under the statements, "I have reviewed this report and the recommendation(s) made above" and "[t]he recommended actions meet with my approval and will be adopted".

14. Inform each complainant and respondent of the conclusion and outcome of their complaint investigation in writing as part of the agency's complaint procedure.

✓ Complaint file No. 2 included letters that were emailed to both the complainant and respondent informing them of the conclusion and outcome of their complaint investigation. Complaint file No. 1 included a letter that was sent to the respondents informing them of the conclusion and outcome of their complaint investigation.

NOTE: As complaint No. 1 was filed anonymously, informing the complainant of the complaint investigation outcome was not feasible.

15. Ensure each internal discrimination complaint file contains a written determination of its outcome and corrective action(s) taken as a result.

✓ Complaint files Nos. 1 and 2 each included an EEO Complaint Final Investigative Report and notices sent to the parties, both of which provided the determination of the complaint investigation and corrective action taken as a result.

16. Notify the complainant and respondent in writing when the investigation by the EEO professional has been transferred because of the filing of an external complaint.

✓ Because none of the complaint files submitted were transferred due to the filing of an external complaint, Board of Correction's policies and procedures were analyzed to determine compliance with this standard. The Procedural Guidelines included the following directive, "[i]f an external complaint or lawsuit is filed subsequent to the filing of the internal complaint, the matter must also be transferred to the agency's Office of General Counsel. The EEO Office must notify the Complainant (and Respondent, if any) in writing of the transfer."

17. Establish and utilize a complaint tracking and monitoring system that permits the agency to identify the location, status, and length of time elapsed in the complaint investigation process, the issues and the bases of the complaints, the aggrieved individuals, and other information necessary to analyze complaint activity to identify trends.

✓ Board of Correction's Complaint Summary tracked and monitored complaint activity by capturing the following: Complaint Type, Date Filed, Complainant Name, Respondent Name, Basis of Complaint, Location/Unit/Department, Status, Determination/Disposition, Date Resolved, and Length of time elapsed in the EEO complaint process (days).

18. Ensure that the General Counsel assists the agency head in identifying and determining appropriate responses to sexual harassment; works with the principal EEO Professional in the implementation of the City's policies and procedures pertaining to sexual harassment; informs the principal EEO Professional when external complaints or litigation involving sexual harassment is brought against the agency; is available to consult on internal sexual harassment complaint investigations; and is responsible for the investigation of, and response to, external sexual harassment complaints.

✓ Board of Correction's Citywide Job Vacancy Notice indicated that its General Counsel was responsible for investigating and responding to internal and external sexual harassment complaints by including the following responsibilities: "[a]ssuring compliance with legal requirements and internal policies by reviewing and providing advice on proposed projects, agreements, communications, and ongoing policy and field work"; "[m]anaging and overseeing all legal matters arising from agency operations, including litigation support, human resources, EEO and Labor law, intergovernmental agreements, procurement, and contract disputes". Emails between the principal EEO Professional, Agency Head, and General Counsel from November 14, 2018 to February 15, 2019 demonstrated assistance and collaboration in revising and implementing policies and procedures pertaining to sexual harassment (such as the Code of Conduct and Sexual Harassment Policy Statement) in the Board of Correction's employee handbook. Additionally, emails during the period in review indicate that Board of Correction's principal EEO Professional consulted with General Counsel on various steps during the complaint investigation procedure process.

IV. Annual Review of Practices, Policies and Programs

Determination: The agency is in non-compliance with the standards for this subject area.

19. Ensure that the principal EEO Professional, HR Professional, and General Counsel, review the number of sexual harassment complaints, and the agency's employment practices, policies and programs on an annual basis to identify whether there are barriers to employment opportunities that may be related to sexual harassment and determine what, if any, actions are required to correct deficiencies.

➤ Board of Correction did not demonstrate that, during the period in review, the principal EEO Professional, HR Professional, and General Counsel reviewed the number of sexual harassment complaints, and the agency's employment practices, policies and programs on an annual basis to identify whether there were barriers to employment opportunities that may be related to sexual harassment to determine what, if any, actions were required to correct deficiencies. Corrective Action Required.

Corrective Action #5: Ensure that the principal EEO Professional, HR Professional, and General Counsel, review the number of sexual harassment complaints, and the agency's employment practices, policies and programs on an annual basis to identify whether there are barriers to employment opportunities that may be related to sexual harassment and determine what, if any, actions are required to correct deficiencies.

V. Responsibility for Implementation - EEO Professionals

Determination: The agency is in partial-compliance with the standards for this subject area.

20. Appoint a principal EEO Professional to implement EEO policies and standards within the agency. Ensure the principal EEO Professional is trained regarding city, state, federal EEO laws; the requirements of the agency's EEO policies, standards and procedures; and the prevention, investigation, and resolution of discrimination and sexual harassment complaints.

✓ On April 2, 2016, Board of Correction appointed its current principal EEO Professional and advised staff via an email sent to all employees by the Executive Director. Emails, PowerPoint presentations, and meeting agendas indicated that during the period in review the principal EEO Professional was responsible for implementing sexual harassment prevention training and other EEO policies and standards within the agency. The principal EEO Professional's resume indicated that, prior to employment at the Board of Correction, they had 10 years of experience as an EEO Officer for another New York City agency whose responsibilities included implementation of Citywide EEO policies and procedures. Certificates of completion and DCAS Citywide Training Center training logs demonstrated that the principal EEO Professional also completed the following DCAS Citywide Training Center courses: Equal Employment Opportunity computer-based training, Everybody Matters, Straight Talk: LGBTQ Community at Work, and LGBT: Are You Ready For The "T" - Creating An Inclusive Culture For Transgender in 2016, lgbTq: The Power of Inclusion, and Sexual Harassment Prevention Training in 2018, and Reasonable Accommodation Procedural Guidelines in 2019.

21. Ensure that the responsibilities of the principal EEO Professional are competently discharged by providing adequate resources such as opportunities for continuing education and professional development, and/or support staff to meet EEO obligations.

✓ Since appointment in 2016, Board of Correction's principal EEO Professional has participated in various DCAS Citywide Training Center courses (see § V.20). In February 2018, the Board of Correction reported that its EEO Office added an EEO Investigator to assist with complaint intake and interviews.

22. Where the agency's organizational structure necessitates multiple EEO professionals, select such individuals from different office locations and, where possible, from a variety of levels within the organizational structure. Appoint EEO professionals who are trained in EEO laws and procedures, and their responsibilities under the EEO Policy.

✓ During the period in review, the Board of Correction reported that its EEO Office consisted solely of the principal EEO Professional until the EEO Investigator was appointed in February 2018. Board of Correction's organizational chart indicated that the principal EEO Professional and EEO Investigator held the functional titles of Senior Research Director and Legal Associate respectively, and worked in different departments and levels within the 27 employee agency. Certificates of completion demonstrated that the EEO Investigator completed the following DCAS Citywide Training Center courses: Equal Employment Opportunity computer-based training in 2017; Everybody Matters, Sexual Harassment Prevention Training, and a 2-day EEO Investigation Workshop in 2018; and Reasonable Accommodation Procedural Guidelines in 2019.

23. Ensure that the principal EEO Professional works cooperatively and closely with the General Counsel in the implementation of policies and procedures concerning EEO and sexual harassment.

✓ During the period in review, emails between the principal EEO Professional and General Counsel discussing the complaint investigation process, employee training, and updating policies to be included in the employee handbook demonstrated close cooperation in implementing measures concerning EEO and sexual harassment.

24. Assign the principal EEO Professional (or EEO-related designee) the responsibility to supervise the activities of EEO professionals, and ensure that: the policies against sexual harassment and complaint procedures are distributed/posted at all agency locations; employees/managers receive sexual harassment prevention training; EEO-related policies are made available in alternative formats (i.e., large print, audio recording and/or Braille) upon request; managers, supervisors and human resource professionals receive guidance on issues pertaining to sexual harassment; and allegations of sexual harassment are promptly investigated.

➤ Board of Correction did not demonstrate that, during the period in review, managers, supervisors and human resource professionals received guidance on issues pertaining to sexual harassment; and that EEO-related policies were made available in alternative formats upon request. Corrective Action Required.

NOTE: A meeting agenda indicated that subsequent to the period in review, on January 15, 2019, the principal EEO Professional conducted sexual harassment prevention training for managers and supervisors during a Leadership Meeting arranged by the Executive Director. The Leadership Meeting agenda included Sexual Harassment Reminder training and Staff training needs (please come with your ideas/notes on training needs for your staff) as topics to be discussed. The PowerPoint presentation entitled Recognizing and Preventing Sexual Harassment in the Workplace that was utilized during the Sexual Harassment Reminder training included a slide entitled, "Role and Responsibilities of Managers/ Supervisors". An August 13, 2019 email from Board of Correction's IT Systems & Support Engineer to the principal EEO Professional stated, "BOC IT currently has the capacity to provision BOC staff members with Adobe Acrobat Reader DC's latest version to aide staff who may possess a visual impairment. Features include a 'Read Out Loud' capability which lends users the ability to have pdf documents read aloud to them by the Adobe Acrobat Reader application. In addition, users have the ability to zoom and print pdf documents in alternative larger formats."

25. Ensure that the principal EEO Professional reports directly to the agency head (or a direct report other than the General Counsel) in order to exercise the necessary authority and independent judgment to fulfill EEO responsibilities.

➤ Board of Correction did not demonstrate that, during the period in review, the principal EEO Professional reported directly to the agency head. Corrective Action Required.

NOTE: Subsequent to the period in review, Board of Correction's 2019 organizational chart listed the principal EEO Professional by title and showed a direct line to the agency head along with the statement "[principal EEO Professional] reports to Agency Head".

26. Maintain documentation regarding directives or decisions between the agency head (or a direct report other than the General Counsel) and the principal EEO Professional that impact the administration and operation of programs, policies or procedures concerning sexual harassment.

✓ On February 9, 2017, Board of Correction's Executive Director emailed a meeting invite to the principal EEO Professional entitled, Debrief Everybody Matters. Subsequent to the meeting, on February 13, 2017, an email from the principal EEO Professional to DCAS' Citywide Training Center inquired about conducting an all-day Everybody Matters course exclusively for Board of Correction employees. A series of emails between the principal EEO Professional and Executive Director from February 23, 2017 to February 24, 2017 demonstrated decisions made in order to implement the agency-wide training. In addition, on March 3, 2017 and again on April 20, 2017, Board of Correction's agency head emailed all staff notifying them that the mandatory agency-wide training would occur on May 11, 2017, with a debriefing of the course to occur after the training. In September 2018, emails between the principal EEO Professional and agency head documented directives and decisions that pertained to the issuance of Board of Corrections Sexual Harassment Policy Statement on September 21, 2018.

VI. Responsibility for Implementation – Supervisors/Managers

Determination: The agency is in partial-compliance with the standards for this subject area.

27. Ensure that managers and supervisors are held accountable for enforcing the agency's sexual harassment prevention policies and complaint procedures. Document this expectation and its implementation.

✓ Board of Correction's Procedural Guidelines stated that "[s]upervisors and managers are required under the Policy to timely notify their EEO Office of any alleged discriminatory conduct they observe or become aware of." Board of Correction documented the implementation of this expectation for managers and supervisors by utilizing its Employee Evaluation Form that contained an Equal Employment Opportunity (for Managers) section that set forth the following standard: "[i]ncludes responsibilities and processes for assuring ability to make employment decisions based on merit and equal consideration and treats others in an equitable and impartial manner."

NOTE: Subsequent to the period in review, on January 15, 2019, the principal EEO Professional conducted training for all Board of Correction supervisors and managers during the agency's Leadership Meeting. The PowerPoint presentation utilized, entitled Recognizing and Preventing Sexual Harassment in the Workplace, specifically focused on manager and supervisor roles in preventing sexual harassment within the agency. The PowerPoint presentation contained a slide entitled, Role and Responsibilities of Managers/Supervisors that stated that managers were required to, "[i]mmediately respond to all complaints brought to your attention by referral to [the] EEO Officer." The PowerPoint also included a slide that directed managers and supervisors to "report incidents to the EEO Officer that they are aware of through direct observation or second hand information."

28. Ensure the managerial performance evaluation form contains a rating for EEO (which covers responsibilities and processes for assuring their ability to make employment decisions based on merit and equal consideration, or treat others in an equitable and impartial manner).

✓ Board of Correction's Employee Evaluation Form contained a specific section entitled Equal Employment Opportunity (for Managers) which set forth the following standard: "[i]ncludes responsibilities and processes for assuring ability to make employment decisions based on merit and equal consideration and treats others in an equitable and impartial manner."

VII. Reporting Standard for Agency Head

Determination: The agency is required to comply with the standards for this subject area.

29. Submit to the EEPCC an Annual Plan of measures and programs to provide equal employment opportunity, and quarterly reports on efforts to implement the Plan within 30 days following each quarter. Include a breakout of sexual harassment complaint activity in each quarterly report.

✓ Board of Correction provided its Diversity and Equal Employment Opportunity Plan for fiscal years 2017, 2018, and 2019.

NOTE: Board of Correction is a non-mayoral agency and therefore, submission of quarterly reports to the EEPCC is not required.

30. Upon the EEPCC's determination that the entity does not require further review or monitoring: Distribute a memorandum signed by the agency head that re-emphasizes the commitment of agency administrators to the EEO program, including the prevention of sexual harassment, and informs employees of any changes to the agency's employment practices as a result of the EEPCC's audit/monitoring. This final action is required to conclude the audit and monitoring process.

FINAL ACTION: Upon the EEPCC's determination that the entity does not require further review or monitoring: Distribute a memorandum signed by the agency head that re-emphasizes the commitment of agency administrators to the EEO program, including the prevention of sexual harassment, and informs employees of any changes to the agency's employment practices as a result of the EEPC's audit/monitoring. This final action is required to conclude the audit and monitoring process.

Summary of Corrective Actions:

The Board of Correction has 6 required corrective action(s) at this time. This includes the aforementioned final action.

Conclusion

Pursuant to Charter Chapter 36, the Board of Correction has the option to respond to this Preliminary Determination, but must respond to our Final Determination if corrective action is required. Any response must be signed by the agency head and submitted to the EEPC's Executive Director.

Optional Response to Preliminary Determination: If submitted, the Board of Correction's optional response to the EEPC's Executive Director should indicate, with attached documentation, what steps have been or will be taken to correct outstanding areas of non-compliance, and must be received in our office within 14 days from the date of this letter. No extensions will be granted for the option to respond to the Preliminary Determination.

(Optional Conference) If requested, at the Optional Conference the EEPC will discuss the immediate steps that should be taken to correct outstanding areas of non-compliance and address questions regarding the Board of Correction's implementation of the prescribed corrective action(s).

(No Response Option) If the Board of Correction does not respond to this Preliminary Determination within 14 days, it will become the EEPC's Final Determination.

Mandatory Response to Final Determination: Following this Preliminary Determination, the EEPC will issue a Final Determination where we may modify or eliminate the corrective action(s) based on verified information submitted as part of the response to the Preliminary Determination; identify remaining corrective action(s) that require further monitoring to ensure implementation; and assign a mandatory compliance-monitoring period of up to 6 months for this purpose. Pursuant to Charter Chapter 36, upon receipt, the Board of Correction must submit a response, signed by the agency head, to our Final Determination within 30 days. Your response to the Final Determination will initiate the compliance-monitoring period.

In closing, we want to thank you and your staff for the cooperation extended to the Equal Employment Practices Commission's EEO Program Analysts during the course of our audit and analysis.

Imani Bowen, EEO Program Analyst

Sexual Harassment Policy Statement
September 21, 2018

New York City Board of Correction
SEXUAL HARASSMENT POLICY STATEMENT
September 21, 2018

The City of New York is an equal opportunity employer. The City's Equal Employment Opportunity ("EEO") Policy prohibits employment discrimination based on race, creed, color, national origin, gender, disability, marital status, partnership status, caregiver status, sexual orientation, uniformed service or alienage or citizenship. Every City employee – paid or unpaid, permanent or temporary, managerial or non-managerial – is protected from unlawful discrimination by the EEO policy and by federal, state, and local anti-discrimination laws. The EEO Policy and anti-discrimination laws protect those who seek to work for the City, as well.

Sexual harassment is a form of employment discrimination prohibited by the EEO Policy and law. All NYC Board of Correction employees should be familiar with the EEO Policy's protections against sexual harassment. The EEO Policy incorporates the protections provided by federal, state and local laws and implements them by providing for disciplinary sanctions to be imposed on employees who engage in sexual harassment.

Federal guidelines define sexual harassment as "unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature . . . when: (1) submission to the conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment; (2) submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment decisions affecting such individual; or (3) such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment." Under the New York City Human Rights Law, verbal or physical conduct that treats a person "less well" because of gender is unlawful.

Sexual harassment may involve individuals of the same or different genders. A broad range of conduct by supervisors and co-workers may constitute sexual harassment, including, but not limited to, making remarks or gestures or displaying pictures that are sexually suggestive; engaging in verbal banter, abuse or harassment of a sexual nature; requesting -- directly or subtly -- sexual favors; and subjecting another person to unwelcome touching, patting, pinching or other contact.

Sexual harassment is strictly prohibited. Employees who violate this Policy are subject to discipline, including termination. Persons who violate this Policy may also be subject to civil damages or criminal penalties.

The City's Policy prohibiting sexual harassment does not forbid consensual social relationships between employees. But it does prohibit gender-based conduct that is unwanted or creates an intimidating and hostile work environment.

Managers, supervisors and human resources personnel must promptly notify the agency EEO Officer in writing, either via email or a memorandum, if they receive a complaint alleging sexual harassment or if they observe, learn about, or suspect that any violation of the Policy has occurred. Managers and supervisors should encourage subordinates to consult with the EEO Officer.

The NYC Board of Correction urges anyone covered by the NYC EEO Policy who believes he or she has been subjected to sexual harassment or any unwelcome sexual attention to report the conduct to a supervisor or manager or to the agency EEO Officer, who is Nashla Rivas Salas, who may be contacted at 212-266-4392. It is important to report all concerns about sexual harassment or inappropriate sexual conduct to the EEO Officer or a supervisor or manager as soon as possible.

Complaints of sexual harassment will be handled under the New York City Equal Employment Opportunity Policy and Procedures. See links below:

All inquiries, complaints and investigations are treated confidentially. Information is revealed strictly on a need-to-know basis. Information contained in a formal complaint is kept as confidential as possible.

No employee may retaliate against or harass any person for filing a complaint or cooperating in the investigation of the complaint. Retaliation or harassment is unlawful and subject to disciplinary action.

NEW YORK CITY EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY POLICY (2014)

Introduction

The New York City Charter provides that each agency head must ensure that his or her agency does not discriminate against employees or applicants for employment in any manner prohibited by federal, state, and local law.¹ In addition, the Charter requires agency heads to establish measures, programs, and annual EEO Plans that communicate each agency's efforts to provide equal employment opportunity ("EEO") to City employees and applicants for employment within City government.² The Department of Citywide Administrative Services ("DCAS") is required to establish uniform procedures and standards to assist City agencies in establishing annual EEO Plans, and other measures and programs to ensure equal employment opportunity.³ DCAS developed this Policy,⁴ and the standards and procedures contained herein, to implement DCAS' and the City's obligations under the City Charter; federal, state, and local laws; and the City's diversity and inclusion strategy.

The Equal Employment Opportunity Policy (2014), hereafter known as "Policy," supersedes the previous Equal Employment Opportunity Policy (2005) of the City of New York. Detailed uniform complaint and reasonable accommodation procedures are published separately. This Policy, any addenda to this Policy, and the EEO Policy Handbook are to be distributed to each agency head, EEO Officer,⁵ General Counsel, Agency Personnel Officer (APO), manager, and supervisor.

In addition to the Policy, DCAS updated the EEO Policy Handbook, "About EEO: What You May Not Know."⁶ The EEO Policy Handbook was created to provide City government employees with a user-friendly summary of the relevant laws and the Policy.

² See Charter Section 815(a)(19).

³ See Charter Section 814(a)(12).

⁴ This Policy was drafted in consultation with the Equal Employment Practices Commission, the New York City Law Department and EEO Officers from various City agencies.

⁵ Each agency head appoints an EEO Officer to assist with the implementation of the Policy, standards, and procedures. The agency EEO Officer and other personnel, including EEO counselors, investigators, liaisons, etc., are referred to in this Policy as 'EEO office or EEO representatives.'

⁶ The Policy may be downloaded at <http://www.nyc.gov/html/dcas/html/about/ecopol>. The EEO Policy Handbook, "About EEO: What You May Not Know," may be downloaded at http://www.nyc.gov/html/dcas/html/about/eo_booklet.shtml.

I. Equal Employment Opportunity Policy

The City of New York is an equal opportunity employer and prohibits discriminatory employment actions against, and treatment of, City employees and applicants for employment based on actual or perceived race, color, national origin, alienage or citizenship status, religion or creed, gender (including “gender identity” -- which refers to a person’s actual or perceived sex, and includes self-image, appearance, behavior or expression, whether or not different from that traditionally associated with the legal sex assigned to the person at birth), disability, age (18 and over), military status, prior record of arrest or conviction,⁷ marital status, partnership status,⁸ genetic information or predisposing genetic characteristic,⁹ sexual orientation, status as a victim or witness of domestic violence, sex offenses or stalking,¹⁰ and unemployment status.¹¹

A. Types of Prohibited Conduct¹²

Decisions and practices based on an individual’s protected status (e.g., race, religion, age, and the other categories listed above) that unlawfully affect employment or the compensation, terms, conditions, or privileges of an individual’s employment or potential employment with the City of New York are prohibited by this Policy. This includes unlawful decisions, actions, and practices that occur in the course of recruitment, testing, hiring, work assignments, salary and benefits, working conditions, performance evaluations, promotions, training opportunities, career development and advancement, transfers, discipline, discharge, or any other application or selection process relating to employment.

⁷ Some employment actions motivated by the reasons listed are permitted by law, such as where an employer may deny employment on the basis of an applicant’s prior record of conviction, if there is a direct relationship between one or more of the applicant’s criminal offenses and the specific employment sought, or where employing the applicant poses an unreasonable risk to property or to the safety or welfare of specific individuals or the general public. (See Correction Law, Art. 23-A, Section 752.)

⁸ “Partnership status” was added as a protected class under New York City’s Human Rights Law on October 3, 2005.

⁹ The term “predisposing genetic characteristic” was adopted on August 30, 2005 to streamline the terms “genetic predisposition” and “carrier status” in the previous version of the New York State Human Rights Law.

¹⁰ “Status as victim of sex offenses or stalking” was added as a protected class under the City Human Rights Law on December 22, 2003.

¹¹ “Unemployment status” was added as a protected class under New York City’s Human Rights Law on June 11, 2013.

¹² See also, EEO Policy Handbook: “About EEO: What you May Not Know,” for more examples of prohibited conduct.

The Policy also prohibits sexual harassment (i.e., conduct or language of a sexual nature) and harassment based on gender or any other protected characteristic (such as race, religion, disability, or sexual orientation). Forms of harassment may include, but are not limited to, the use of vulgar language, abusive acts or language, hostility, physical aggression, intimidation, or unequal treatment.

The Policy prohibits conduct which unreasonably interferes with an employee's job performance or creates an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment, or creates an abusive working environment based on any protected characteristic.

Harassment and/or retaliation against a person who opposes or complains about prohibited conduct or participates in any way in the complaint, investigation, or reasonable accommodation processes are strictly prohibited.

The Policy also prohibits the denial of reasonable accommodations for disabilities; pregnancy, childbirth, and related medical conditions; religious beliefs, observances, and practices; or for victims of domestic violence, sex offenses, or stalking that do not create an undue hardship.

Some offensive acts or remarks may violate this Policy even if they are not so severe that they violate federal, state, or local discrimination laws. The City and its agencies may discipline conduct that violates this Policy even if the conduct does not violate a law prohibiting discrimination.

The Policy also prohibits any City employee from aiding, abetting, inciting, compelling, or coercing any person present in a City facility, whether or not that person is an employee of the City, from engaging in any conduct prohibited by this Policy, including, but not limited to, conduct that creates a hostile work environment based on any protected characteristic.

B. Applicability

Everyone who works within New York City government or its workplaces, or who seeks employment within City government, is covered by federal, state, and local employment laws, and this Policy. This includes all current employees, managers (including executives and senior level staff members), supervisors, co-workers, paid and unpaid interns,¹³ and job applicants.

¹³ The prohibition of discrimination against interns was added in the New York City's Human Rights Law on April 15, 2014.

This Policy not only protects individuals from prohibited conduct because of their own protected status (such as their own actual or perceived race, religion, national origin, or disability), but also protects individuals from conduct motivated by the actual or perceived race, religion, national origin, or disability, etc., of other persons with whom they are associated. For example, this Policy applies to individuals who are subjected to adverse actions because of their marriage to, or domestic partnership or association with, persons of a particular racial, religious, or national origin group, or persons who have a disability. Moreover, discrimination based on an individual's name(s) or spouse's or domestic partner's name(s) that is associated with a particular racial, religious, or national origin group is prohibited.

These protections apply to actions, whether or not intentionally offensive or directed at a particular person or group, which violate this Policy.

This Policy extends to conduct which occurs at any location that could be reasonably regarded as an extension of the workplace, such as any field location, off-site business-related social function, City vehicle, or facility where City government business is being conducted and discussed.

In addition, Work Experience Program ("WEP") participants have a right to a workplace that is free of discrimination, including harassment based on race, color, national origin, religion, gender, disability, or age, and any basis that could otherwise be determined to be prohibited behavior pursuant to the Policy as applied to employees or applicants for employment.

All City employees, interns, and WEP participants are expected to be respectful of everyone in the City's workplaces and members of the public, and to be sensitive to the effects of their behavior on those around them. All employees, interns, and WEP participants must be trained in the requirements of this Policy and must receive a copy of the EEO Policy Handbook, "About EEO: What You May Not Know."

II. Specific Protections

The following sections are provided to enable individuals to understand the unique definitions, issues, rights, and responsibilities under this Policy pertaining to sexual harassment and discrimination based on disability, religion, retaliation, and status as a victim of domestic violence, sex offenses, or stalking.

A. Sexual Harassment

Sexual harassment is a form of employment discrimination which is prohibited by law. The federal government created guidelines which define sexual harassment as “unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature . . . when: 1) submission to the conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment; 2) submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment decisions affecting such individual; or 3) such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment.”¹⁴

Sexual harassment may involve individuals of the same or different gender(s). A broad range of behavior may be considered sexual harassment, including sexually suggestive remarks, pictures or gestures, verbal abuse or harassment of a sexual nature, subtle or direct propositions for sexual favors, and any unnecessary touching, patting, or pinching.

B. Disabilities

Discrimination against a person based on that person's actual or perceived disability, record of disability, or relationship with a person with a disability will not be tolerated by the City of New York. For the purpose of this Policy, a disability is: 1) a physical, medical, mental, or psychological impairment; 2) a history or record of such impairment; or 3) being regarded as having such impairment.

The City of New York and its agencies will take appropriate action to provide reasonable accommodations to qualified employees and job applicants with disabilities, unless providing such accommodations creates an undue hardship. Reasonable accommodations include the provision of equipment, changes in workplace policies and practices, and other forms of assistance that allow people with disabilities to apply for a position, perform their jobs, or enjoy equal benefits and privileges of employment as are enjoyed by other similarly situated employees without disabilities.

Whether an accommodation is reasonable will depend upon the circumstances of the particular request. Some examples of accommodations that may be reasonable include: making facilities physically accessible to, and usable by, persons with disabilities; job restructuring; modifying work schedules; providing or modifying equipment or devices; providing qualified readers, interpreters, auxiliary aids, and/or other support services; and providing leave and/or arranging for transfer or reassignment to a vacant position, if such transfer or reassignment does not violate the Civil Service Law, Personnel Rules and Regulations, other applicable laws, or regulations and/or collective bargaining agreements.

Undue hardship may exist when an accommodation is significantly difficult, unduly costly, extensive, substantial, disruptive, or would change the nature or operation of an agency's business.

The City of New York encourages employment of and promotional opportunities for qualified persons with disabilities. For example, pursuant to Section 55-a of the New York State Civil Service Law, where agency needs and availability permit, the City encourages agencies to utilize the 55-a Program, which will allow City agencies to employ qualified persons who have been certified as disabled in competitive positions on a non-competitive basis. Individuals who wish to apply for the 55-a Program are encouraged to seek assistance from the Agency Personnel Officer or 55-a Coordinator.

C. Religion

The Policy prohibits adverse employment actions based on a person's religion. This includes discriminatory practices and decisions, harassment, hostility, or other adverse actions because of a person's actual or perceived creed, religious affiliation, religious beliefs, observances, or practices.

In addition, depending on the circumstances, agencies must try to reasonably accommodate the religious observances, beliefs, or practices of an employee or job applicant, unless the accommodation creates an undue hardship. A reasonable accommodation for religion may be a change in a workplace rule or practice that allows an individual to respect his or her religious observances, beliefs, or practices. City agencies may be required to provide accommodations for religion such as flexible arrival and departure times, and/or leave; voluntary exchanges of shifts or assignments; time and/or place to pray; accommodations relating to appearance and dress; and modifying workplace practices, policies, and/or procedures.

City agencies are not required to provide accommodations that are too costly or difficult to provide, that would be disruptive, or would interfere with job performance.

D. Retaliation

It is a violation of the Policy to retaliate against or harass any person who asserts his or her rights regarding employment discrimination by: 1) opposing discriminatory practices in the workplace; 2) complaining about prohibited conduct; or 3) participating in any way in the complaint, investigation, or reasonable accommodation processes. It is also a violation of this Policy to retaliate against or harass someone because of his or her association with such an individual.

Behaviors which may be considered retaliatory include, but are not limited to: threats, reprimands, negative evaluations, harassment, refusal to hire, denial of promotion or job benefits, demotion, suspension, discharge, negative references to prospective employers, or other actions affecting the terms, conditions, or privileges of employment.

Examples of behavior that are protected against retaliation under this Policy include, but are not limited to: expressing an intent to file a charge or complaint alleging prohibited conduct; participating as a witness in an EEO investigation, administrative proceeding, hearing, or trial; and/or seeking a reasonable accommodation.

E. Domestic Violence, Sex Offenses, or Stalking

The New York City Human Rights Law prohibits employment discrimination against persons who are victims of domestic violence, or victims of sex offenses or stalking, as defined by that law and the New York State Penal Law. Agencies shall provide reasonable accommodations that do not create undue hardship and that enable such persons to satisfy the essential requisites of a job, provided that the status as a victim of domestic violence or victim of sex offenses or stalking is known, or should have been known, by the agency.

III. Procedures

A. Reporting Violations

Anyone who believes that he or she has been subjected to any action, decision, or harassment in violation of this Policy, or who witnesses others being subjected to improper conduct, is urged to promptly report the incident(s) to his or her supervisor or manager; to agency personnel supervising the application, testing, and interviewing process; or directly to the EEO office at the agency where the violation actually occurred, or which is the employer of the individual who purportedly committed the complained of act(s). Supervisors, managers, or human resources personnel who receive EEO complaints, or otherwise become aware of any improper discrimination, must notify the agency EEO Officer. Supervisors and managers should also encourage individuals who believe that the Policy has been violated to consult with the EEO office.

An individual who believes that this Policy has been violated may report the incident orally or in writing. Where the report is taken orally, the manager, supervisor, or EEO representative shall document the report. The EEO office will assist any individual in determining whether the conduct or decision reported is appropriate for the complaint process. Where an individual chooses to file an internal complaint with the agency EEO office, that complaint must be filed within one year of the event which is the subject of the complaint.

Persons who wish to discuss a possible violation of this Policy without revealing their identity may do so by telephoning or writing the EEO office. In such cases, the EEO office will provide counseling and take such follow-up action as may be appropriate and possible, given the restraints of anonymity.

If any employee knowingly makes a false accusation of discrimination or knowingly provides false information in the course of an investigation of a complaint, such conduct may be grounds for discipline. A complaint made in good faith, even if found to be unsubstantiated, will not be considered a false accusation.

B. Contact with the EEO Office

An employee has a right to meet privately with an EEO representative. Such a meeting may take place either during or outside of office hours. If an employee makes a request to meet with an EEO representative during office hours, the employee should obtain approval from a manager or supervisor in order to leave his or her work assignment. An employee need not disclose the purpose for or details of the meeting with an EEO representative. Reasonable leave requests to meet with an EEO representative during work hours cannot be denied by managers or supervisors. Managers and supervisors shall allow employees to meet with EEO representatives at the earliest practicable time consistent with the operational needs of their units. Where an agency has more than one EEO representative, an employee is not required to meet with an EEO representative who works in the employee's division.

At the employee's request, arrangements may also be made to hold the meeting before or after office hours, or during the employee's lunch period. Should such a meeting take place entirely on the employee's own time, he or she need not advise a manager or supervisor of the meeting, or obtain the consent or approval of a manager or supervisor. The EEO representative will arrange to meet with an employee at outside premises where appropriate and/or necessary in order to ensure confidentiality. If necessary, EEO representatives will make arrangements for sign language interpreters and other forms of effective communication with persons with disabilities.

The EEO representative will discuss and research appropriate options, including actions an individual could take on his or her own behalf, referrals to other offices and/or agencies, mediation, investigation, and/or interim relief. The EEO representative may also facilitate any further discussions with other agency personnel.

In appropriate cases, an EEO investigation may be conducted in conjunction with or by an agency's General Counsel's office, Inspector General, or disciplinary officer. In addition, there may be exceptional circumstances under which an investigation may be conducted by another individual or entity, as deemed appropriate by the Law Department or DCAS.

Any person who is interviewed during the course of an EEO investigation has a right to be accompanied by a representative of his or her choice. This includes individuals who make complaints, persons against whom complaints were made, or witnesses. It is preferable that the EEO office receive advance notice that the person who is being interviewed will be bringing a representative.

Any person who is the subject of the complaint will have an opportunity to respond in writing.

All employees are expected to cooperate with EEO investigations. Failure to cooperate in an investigation may result in disciplinary action.

C. Withdrawing Complaints

A complaint of discrimination may be withdrawn at any time by the person who filed the complaint. Withdrawal of a complaint must be made or confirmed in writing. In some instances, the agency EEO Officer will find it appropriate to end the investigation when the complaint is withdrawn. Prior to ending the investigation, the EEO Officer must determine whether the agency should take corrective action to address inappropriate conduct. If the EEO Officer determines that corrective action is required, it may be necessary for the EEO Officer to continue the investigation or recommend action to remedy inappropriate behavior.

D. Mediation

Mediation is a voluntary, informal, and confidential process that provides an opportunity for everyone involved in a complaint to come to a mutual agreement about how the complaint should be resolved. It is an alternative that may quickly resolve complaints without a full investigation.

All requests for mediation should be made to the EEO Officer. Mediation may be requested by any party involved and may be declined by any party.

The EEO Officer will determine whether the complaint is appropriate for mediation. The EEO Officer may choose to conduct the mediation internally within the agency, or externally through entities that provide mediation services.

Mediation may be terminated by any party to the mediation. If this occurs, the EEO Officer will inform the other party or parties in writing that the mediation has been terminated. In the event that mediation does not result in a resolution, the EEO Officer will provide the parties with a written statement informing the parties of the complainant's right to an investigation of the allegation. Where efforts to mediate complaints are unsuccessful, complaints will be investigated by the EEO office.

E. Concluding the Complaint Investigation

The EEO Officer will submit a confidential report of the complaint investigation to the agency head at the conclusion of the investigation. If the EEO Officer concludes that a violation of this Policy has occurred, the EEO Officer will recommend appropriate corrective action. The agency head will review the EEO Officer's report and promptly issue a determination adopting, rejecting or modifying the recommended action. Such determination shall be in writing and may be issued electronically. The EEO Officer will advise all parties in writing of the outcome of a complaint.

Any person found to have engaged in conduct or practices in violation of this Policy may be subject to discipline which may include a reprimand, suspension, probation, demotion, transfer, termination, or any other measures permitted by law and/or collective bargaining agreements. In addition to implementing such disciplinary action, agencies may take such steps as may be necessary to address the impact that any violation of this Policy has had on the complainant or within the agency.

F. Other Places Where Complaints May Be Filed

The following federal, state, and local agencies enforce laws against discrimination:

- New York City Commission on Human Rights:
<http://www.nyc.gov/html/cchr/html/home/home.shtml>
- New York State Division of Human Rights: <http://www.dhr.ny.gov/>

- United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (the “EEOC”): <http://www.eeoc.gov>
- United States Department of Justice: <http://www.justice.gov/>

Information about how to contact these agencies can be found in the EEO Policy Handbook, “About EEO: What You May Not Know,” at http://www.nyc.gov/html/dcas/html/about/eeo_booklet.shtml, the DCAS website at <http://www.nyc.gov/html/dcas/html/about/eeo.shtml>, or the Office of Citywide Diversity and EEO at 1 Centre Street, 17th Floor North, New York, NY 10007, (212) 386-0257. Please note that there are statutory deadlines for filing complaints with each of these agencies.¹⁵

When a person exercises his or her right to file a complaint with a federal, state, or local administrative agency (known as an “external complaint”) based on or related to the same facts and circumstances of an internal complaint, the agency EEO Officer will transfer the matter to the agency General Counsel, who will be responsible for any further handling of the matter. The EEO Officer will notify the complainant and the parties who are the subject of the complaint, in writing, that the investigation by the EEO Officer has been transferred because of the filing of the external complaint. The agency General Counsel will be responsible for handling external complaints regardless of the timing of such complaints (whether filed before the internal complaint is filed, at the same time that the internal claim was filed, or after the internal complaint was filed). After transfer of the complaint to the agency General Counsel, the EEO Officer will cooperate with the General Counsel with respect to the ultimate resolution of the complaint.

G. Requests for Reasonable Accommodations

City agencies may be required to provide reasonable accommodations when requests are made in connection with disabilities; pregnancy, childbirth, and related medical conditions; religious beliefs, observances, and practices; or for victims of domestic violence, sex offenses, or stalking. The reasonable accommodation process should be flexible and interactive, involving agency representatives who are necessary to the reasonable accommodation process and the individual who is requesting a reasonable accommodation. In all instances, the agency EEO office should be notified of the request in order to facilitate discussions, research appropriate accommodations, and assist in the resolution of the matter.

¹⁵ The deadline in some instances is as short as 180 days. Therefore, to preserve their rights, individuals who believe that they have been discriminated against and wish to file a complaint with an external agency should promptly contact the City Commission on Human Rights, the State Division of Human Rights, the EEOC, the Department of Justice, or a private attorney for further guidance.

EEO representatives, agency personnel supervising any phase of the application process, and/or managers and supervisors involved in the process shall notify individuals who request reasonable accommodations whether the request has been granted. Where the specific accommodation requested is impracticable, agency representatives will seek to implement an appropriate alternative reasonable accommodation. The following procedures detail the specific aspects of each type of request.

1) Disabilities: An employee or job applicant with a disability who requests reasonable accommodations to enable him or her to satisfy the essential functions of the job or enjoy the rights in question may make such requests to his or her manager or supervisor, agency personnel supervising the application process, or directly to the agency EEO Officer or Disabilities Rights Coordinator.¹⁶ A request for a reasonable accommodation may be made orally or in writing. Where the request is made orally, it shall be documented by that person who receives the request.

EEO Officers and/or Disabilities Rights Coordinators, agency personnel supervising the application process, and managers and supervisors involved in the process shall provide reasonable assistance (such as help in completing forms) to an individual requesting an accommodation. Additionally, if a reasonable accommodation is requested to facilitate an individual's ability to apply for employment, the agency staff supervising the application procedures may be required to assist the applicant in completing the application process.

By law, all documentation and information concerning the medical condition or history of an individual requesting a reasonable accommodation for a disability must be collected and maintained on separate forms, and in separate medical files, apart from other personnel data. Such information must be treated as confidential medical records, except that managers and supervisors may be informed of necessary restrictions on work and accommodations required. Furthermore, medical information may be provided: 1) to first-aid and safety personnel, if the disability might require emergency treatment; 2) to government officials investigating the agency's compliance with applicable laws; 3) to workers' compensation offices in accordance with Workers' Compensation Law; and 4) for insurance purposes.

2) Religious Accommodations: An employee or applicant requesting reasonable accommodations for religion may make such requests to his or her manager or supervisor, agency personnel supervising the application process, or directly to the agency EEO Officer. Requests for religious accommodation should be documented by the individual receiving the request.

¹⁶ A Disability Rights Coordinator is responsible for ensuring compliance with federal, state, and local laws and the Policy regarding people with disabilities.

3) Victim of Domestic Violence, Sex Offenses, or Stalking: An employee or applicant requesting reasonable accommodations for domestic violence, sex offenses or stalking may make such requests to his or her manager or supervisor, agency personnel supervising the application process, or directly to the agency EEO Officer.

Agencies may require a person requesting a reasonable accommodation to provide certification that the person is a victim of domestic violence, sex offenses, or stalking. The person requesting the reasonable accommodation shall provide a copy of such certification to the agency within a reasonable period after the request is made. A person may satisfy the certification requirement by providing documentation from an employee, agent, or volunteer of a victim services organization, an attorney, a member of the clergy, or a medical or other professional service provider from whom the individual seeking a reasonable accommodation, or that individual's family or household member, has sought assistance in addressing domestic violence, sex offenses, or stalking and the effects of the violence or stalking; a police or court record; or other information consistent with the disclosure and the request for accommodation.

4) Pregnancy:¹⁷ An employee or job applicant requesting reasonable accommodations due to pregnancy and those who suffer medical conditions related to pregnancy, childbirth, or a related medical condition may make such requests to her manager or supervisor, agency personnel supervising the application process, or directly to the agency EEO Officer or Disability Rights Coordinator. Such a reasonable accommodation may include bathroom breaks; leave for a period of disability arising from pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical conditions; breaks to facilitate increased water intake; periodic rest for those who stand for long periods of time; and assistance with manual labor, among other things.

All information, including a statement of the person requesting a reasonable accommodation or any other documentation, record, and the fact that the individual has requested or obtained a reasonable accommodation, shall be retained in the strictest confidence by City agencies, except to the extent that disclosure is requested or consented to in writing by the person requesting the reasonable accommodation, or is otherwise required by applicable federal, state, or local law.

Where an employee or job applicant has requested a reasonable accommodation consistent with these procedures and the agency representative has not provided the reasonable accommodation, an appeal may be made to the agency head. Within 10 business days of receipt of an appeal, the agency head, or his or her designee, shall:

¹⁷ The City's Human Rights Law was amended to include reasonable accommodations related to pregnancy, childbirth or related medical conditions effective January 30, 2014.

1. obtain the request for reasonable accommodation made by the employee or applicant and review all related documentation, standards, procedures, and potential accommodations;
2. meet and/or consult with the employee or applicant, the EEO Officer, and any agency representative that the agency head deems necessary to the reasonable accommodation request;
3. evaluate the reasonableness of employee's or applicant's and agency representative's preferences regarding the accommodation request, giving primary consideration to the employee's or applicant's preferences; and
4. consult with the DCAS Office of Citywide Diversity and EEO or the Law Department.

Within 15 business days of receipt of the appeal, the agency head or his\her designee, shall issue a written determination on the request for reasonable accommodation, specifying what accommodation shall be provided, if any, and, where necessary, directing the appropriate agency representative to implement such accommodation promptly. The EEO Officer or Disability Rights Coordinator shall monitor implementation of the reasonable accommodation.

G. Confidentiality

All complaints, investigations, requests for accommodations, and records will be handled, to the extent possible, in a manner that will protect the privacy interests of those involved. EEO matters may be discussed with other persons who may have information about a complaint or who are necessary to implement reasonable accommodations for disability, religion, status as victims of domestic violence, sex offenses or stalking, and pregnancy, childbirth, or a related medical condition. Therefore, it may be necessary to disclose information to persons with a legitimate need to know about the matter.

H. Documentation

All inquiries, complaints, requests, mediation efforts, investigations, requests for accommodation, and their outcomes will be documented by the EEO office.

IV. Agency-Specific Diversity and EEO Plans

Agency heads are required by the New York City Charter to annually prepare, adopt, and implement a plan to provide equal employment opportunity. The plan must be prepared based on uniform procedures and standards provided by DCAS. DCAS will work with agency heads to help them develop realistic and achievable objectives.

Each agency head or, at his or her direction, the agency EEO Officer and/or APO, should review agency statistical information (including total employment and new hires and promotions, by race/ethnicity, and gender), EEO complaints made during the previous fiscal year and the agency's employment practices, policies, and programs. The agency head should then work with the EEO Officer, General Counsel and APO to identify: 1) whether there are any barriers to equal opportunity within the agency; 2) the agency's obligations as a result of government grants and/or contracts; and 3) what, if any, corrective actions are required under court decrees and/or governmental audits. Agencies may wish to seek the advice of the Law Department or consult with the DCAS Office of Citywide Diversity and EEO regarding the development of agency Diversity and EEO Plans.

The Diversity and EEO Plan should communicate the agency's intention to promote equal employment opportunity and diversity and inclusion by continuing effective measures or implementing new strategies and programs (i.e., preventive, corrective and risk management strategies in areas such as recruitment, training, selection, promotion, and policy dissemination standards) that prevent, diminish, or eliminate barriers to equal opportunity employment. DCAS will provide agencies with formats and recommendations for Diversity and EEO Plan development that are consistent with employment practices recommended by human resources management organizations and enforcement entities.

Although each agency's Diversity and EEO Plan will be tailored to the specific issues of that agency, there are some general measures that all agencies are required to implement. Each agency's Diversity and EEO Plan must, at a minimum, include the following:

- A commitment to ensure fair employment practices, and promote a workplace that values its employees in support of the City's diversity and inclusion strategy. The commitment will hold EEO Officers and representatives, human resources professionals, managers and supervisors accountable for ensuring that the agency does not discriminate against employees or applicants for employment and support the diversity and inclusion initiatives at the agency. This commitment should be reflected in the agency strategic plan, mission, vision, and performance metrics. It should also include the agency's strategy to ensure equal employment opportunity and to implement the best diversity and inclusion practices at the agency. The commitment should also be communicated to all employees through a Commitment Statement to affirm the principles of equal employment opportunity and diversity and inclusion.
- A commitment to assess recruitment efforts to determine whether such efforts adversely impact any particular group and what recruitment sources yield a diverse pool of qualified candidates. It should also include the agency's strategy to implement the best diversity and inclusion recruitment practices to ensure equal employment opportunity. Minimally, agencies should identify relevant professional and community organizations serving women and minorities throughout the City, review and update listings of recruitment outreach sources, and contact such organizations when positions not filled through civil service lists become available or where agencies may otherwise use discretion in hiring.
- A commitment to assess agency job postings to ensure appropriate diversity, inclusion, and equal opportunity employer messaging.
- A commitment to assess the manner in which candidates are selected for employment, to determine whether there is any adverse impact upon any particular racial, ethnic, disability, or gender group. To the extent that adverse impact is discovered, the agency head will determine whether the criteria being utilized are job-related. If the criteria are not job-related, the agency will discontinue using that method. Methods which diminish adverse impact will be preferred over those with greater impact, provided that the agency's job-related aims are not compromised by using the method with a diminished impact. Examples of selection methods which may diminish adverse impact include race/ethnicity-neutral and gender-neutral questions in interview materials and assembling interview panels that reflect gender, race and ethnic diversity. The agency will also ensure that, to the extent practicable, agency personnel involved in both the discretionary and the civil service hiring pool process receive structured interviewing training and use structured interviewing in the selection process.

- A commitment to assess criteria for selecting persons for mid-level to high-level discretionary positions.
- A commitment to make career counseling about civil service jobs available for employees. Employees should be reminded of the identity of the agency's Career Counselor and the type of guidance which is available from the Career Counselor, at least once each fiscal year. Each agency should promptly notify agency employees and DCAS of any change in the identity of the agency Career Counselor.
- A commitment to ensure that all new employees are advised of this Policy, their rights and responsibilities under it, the discrimination complaint and investigation procedures, and the reasonable accommodation procedures.
- A commitment to establish a diversity, inclusion, and EEO training plan to ensure that all individuals who work within the agency, including managers and supervisors, are trained concerning diversity, inclusion, and EEO-related rights and responsibilities in a manner consistent with the minimum standards for diversity, inclusion and EEO training established by DCAS.
- A commitment to review on a regular basis and retain information about personnel actions, discretionary hiring, applicants, promotions, demotions, transfers, rates of pay, terms of compensation, and selection for training or apprenticeship as required by federal, state, and local law, and/or the City's official records retention schedule.
- A plan to meet obligations or remedies required or recommended as a result of government grants or contracts, court orders, consent decrees, or any audit/review conducted by a governmental agency.

Other measures which may be used to ensure fair employment practices include, for example:

- Advertising job vacancy notices in periodicals and websites with a diverse and inclusive readership.
- Sending job vacancy notices to professional and community organizations serving diverse and inclusive populations.

- Participating in career and job fairs.
- Whenever possible, promoting public service as a career choice at schools, colleges and universities.
- Using internships, work/study, co-op, and scholarship programs to attract interested persons and to develop and hire interested and qualified candidates.
- Sponsoring open houses (i.e., networking events, facilities tours).
- Working with appropriate DCAS personnel to review the competencies, skills and abilities required (as presented in job vacancy notices and notices of examination) for available positions to ensure that these standards are updated, job-related, and required by business necessity.
- Reviewing application forms and agency materials and products in order to ensure that they do not contain discriminatory language or images.
- Ensuring that human resources personnel, managers, supervisors, and other personnel involved in the recruitment and hiring process are trained in interviewing, selection, hiring skills, and EEO, to enable such individuals to correctly identify the most capable candidates.
- Implementing and encouraging inclusive skills and behavior standards for managers to ensure that they are able to maximize their professionalism, performance and communication skills.
- Conducting or encouraging the use of training and development programs to improve skills, performance, and career opportunities of all employees.
- Creating talent pools through employee surveys and databases, to promote cross-training, mentoring, coaching, stretch assignments, cross divisional assignments, job transfers, and rotation programs for career enhancement and development experiences.
- Planning and administering employee incentives, quality of work life and recognition programs, engagement surveys, performance evaluations, employee resource groups, and diversity councils.
- Promoting employees' awareness of opportunities for promotion and transfer within the agency, publicizing promotions and changes in the managerial ranks, and ensuring that the agency engage in succession planning for top managerial positions. The agency considers its own employees for such opportunities by having programs that identify ready now and high potential talents.

The City of New York, through DCAS, will also:

- Provide the uniform procedures, formats, and reports required by the New York City Charter to facilitate the planning and review of the City's efforts to provide equal employment opportunity for employees and applicants for City government employment.
- Assess qualifications required for most civil service positions and ensure that civil service examinations are job-related and consistent with business necessity.
- Provide assistance to agencies to ensure that recruitment efforts fit particular human resource needs.
- Encourage agency job postings internally through City Jobs and externally through the City's website: <http://www1.nyc.gov/jobs/>
- Continue to conduct on-site EEO monitoring visits to agencies.
- Continue efforts to better ensure the accuracy of ethnicity and gender data.

V. Enforcement and Accountability Standards

A. Department of Citywide Administrative Services

DCAS is required to: 1) establish and enforce uniform procedures and standards for use by City agencies in establishing measures, programs, and plans to ensure equal employment opportunity, including a time schedule for the development, review and adoption of EEO plans; 2) establish a uniform format for use by City agencies for the presentation of statistical information on the workforce of City agencies; and 3) develop resources regarding information on employment and educational programs.¹⁸ DCAS is also required to publish and submit annual reports on the activities of DCAS and the other City agencies with respect to equal employment opportunity.¹⁹

¹⁸ See Charter Sections 814(a)(12)-(15).

¹⁹ See Charter Section 814(b)(8).

Within DCAS, the Office of Citywide Diversity and EEO assists the Commissioner to develop and enforce the Policy, standards, and procedures. The Office of Citywide Diversity and EEO will assist City agencies by developing or collaborating on solutions, strategies and initiatives to effectively implement the provisions of the City Charter and other federal, state, and local laws, and monitoring the EEO-related activities of City agencies. In addition, DCAS maintains the data that is necessary in order to fulfill the City's EEO obligations under the City Charter and other federal, state and local laws.

B. Agency Heads

Each agency head will ensure that his or her agency does not discriminate against employees or applicants for employment as prohibited by federal, state and local laws.²⁰ Agency heads are accountable to their respective Deputy Mayors for their agencies' EEO practices. Agency heads will also ensure that legal, human resources, and EEO personnel, managers, and supervisors: 1) receive a copy of this Policy (including any addenda); 2) are trained in EEO laws and procedures; and 3) know how to carry out their responsibilities under this Policy. Agency heads must distribute a copy of the EEO Policy Handbook, "About EEO: What You May Not Know" to all employees and ensure that a copy is available on the agency's website.

As discussed in Section IV, each agency head must annually adopt and implement a Diversity and EEO Plan that communicates measures and programs that the agency will undertake to ensure fair and effective efforts to provide equal employment opportunity. Draft Diversity and EEO Plans are to be developed and submitted each fiscal year according to the timetable and format established by DCAS, and must be reviewed and approved by DCAS. Agencies are required to file copies of finalized agency Diversity and EEO Plans with the Mayor, the City Council, the Equal Employment Practices Commission ("EEPC"), and the City Civil Service Commission, and to also make Diversity and EEO Plans available for reasonable public inspection.²¹

Each agency head will then submit quarterly reports to DCAS, as well as to the Mayor, City Council, and EEPC, on the agency's efforts during the previous quarter to implement the agency Diversity and EEO Plan. Such quarterly reports will also include a review and documentation of EEO complaints and requests for reasonable accommodations for said quarter. Quarterly Diversity and EEO reports must, pursuant to the City Charter, be timely submitted to DCAS and the other entities mentioned above, no later than thirty (30) days following the reporting period using the reporting format provided by DCAS.

²⁰ See Charter Section 815(h).

²¹ See Charter Section 815(a)(19).

In order to meet the City's obligations under the City Charter and other federal, state and local laws, and to achieve the goals of the agency Diversity and EEO Plan, each agency head must appoint a trained EEO Officer whose responsibility it will be to implement the Policy within that agency. Because EEO Officers will need independence of judgment as well as the authority of the agency head in order to carry out their responsibilities, the EEO Officer must report directly to the agency head, or if approved by DCAS, to a direct report to the agency head. In order to avoid potential conflicts of interest, under no circumstances should the EEO Officer report to the General Counsel. Where the agency's organizational structure necessitates multiple EEO representatives, such individuals should be selected from different office locations and, where possible, from a variety of levels within the organizational structure. The agency head must ensure that the responsibilities of the EEO Officer are competently discharged.

Agency heads should appoint at least two EEO representatives, who may not be of the same gender, to receive discrimination complaints and conduct investigations. Each agency head must designate a Career Counselor with appropriate training and knowledge, who is familiar with civil service jobs, to provide career counseling to employees who request such guidance. The agency head should also designate a Disabilities Rights Coordinator, whose responsibility it will be to ensure compliance with all federal, state, and local laws, as well as City and agency policies, pertaining to persons with disabilities. Usually the EEO Officer of each agency should serve as the Disabilities Rights Coordinator; however, when circumstances warrant, an agency head may designate another person to serve as the Disabilities Rights Coordinator.

Agency heads are required to sign off on all agency Diversity and EEO Plans and final determinations concerning EEO complaint resolutions and should conduct a quarterly review of EEO complaints and requests for accommodations. Such sign off may be in written or electronic form. Each agency head will ensure that all employees are provided with information that complies with the standards provided by DCAS regarding employee rights and obligations contained within this Policy, and with information about the complaint, investigation and reasonable accommodation procedures. The agency head will also ensure that the Policy, standards, and procedures are posted at each site where the agency conducts business. Such posting may include postings on electronic bulletin boards and intranet sites. Each agency head will ensure that each of the agency's employees is accountable for his or her compliance with EEO-related policies, and receives training in EEO laws.

Agency heads should ensure that information regarding employee rights and obligations, and the complaint, investigation, and reasonable accommodation procedures are available in appropriate alternative formats to employees and job applicants with disabilities.

C. EEO Officers

The agency's EEO Officer has primary responsibility for assisting the agency head in implementing the Policy, standards, and procedures. Specifically, the agency's EEO Officer must be knowledgeable regarding EEO laws, the requirements of the Policy, standards, and procedures, and how to prevent, investigate, and resolve discrimination complaints. The EEO Officer and/or Disability Rights Coordinator will also receive requests for accommodations, and recommend appropriate action to the agency head regarding EEO-related issues. The EEO Officer will also provide guidance to the agency head in submitting the agency's annual Diversity and EEO Plan and in preparing and reviewing quarterly reports. The EEO Officer should work closely and cooperatively with the agency's General Counsel and the DCAS Office of Citywide Diversity and EEO, and provide guidance and assistance to agency managers, supervisors, and human resource professionals in addressing issues relating to equal employment opportunity.

The EEO Officer will also: 1) set training objectives that ensure that all agency employees receive diversity and inclusion and EEO training; 2) supervise the EEO-related activities of EEO counselors and/or investigators; 3) ensure that the Policy, standards, and procedures are posted at each site where the agency conducts business; and 4) ensure that the Policy, standards, and procedures are available in alternative formats (i.e., large print, audio tape, and/or Braille). Each agency's EEO Officer shall make a copy of these standards and procedures, and any subsequent revisions and supplemental materials, available upon request by an employee or applicant.

D. Agency General Counsels

Agency General Counsels should: 1) assist the agency head in identifying and determining appropriate responses to EEO issues; 2) work cooperatively and closely with the EEO Officer in the implementation of the Policy, standards, and procedures; 3) inform the EEO Officer when external complaints or litigation involving EEO matters are brought against the agency; 4) be available to consult on internal EEO investigations; and 5) be responsible for the investigation of, and response to, external EEO complaints.

E. Managers and Supervisors

Managers and supervisors will make every effort to maintain a work environment that fosters sensitivity and respect for the diversity of all individuals. Specifically, each agency manager or supervisor shall: 1) be accountable to the agency head for effectively implementing EEO-related policies; 2) perform managerial or supervisory responsibilities in a non-discriminatory manner; 3) receive training in EEO laws; 4) cooperate with the EEO Officer in the implementation of the Policy, standards, and procedures (including training, complaint resolutions, processing, recording, and reporting reasonable accommodation requests, EEO-related recruitment, and selection standards; and modifying agency procedures to ensure equal employment opportunity for applicants and employees); 5) promptly consult with the agency's EEO Officer if he or she observes, learns about, or suspects that a violation of this Policy has occurred; 6) where appropriate, encourage subordinates to consult with an EEO office; 7) allow employees to meet with EEO representatives at the earliest practical time consistent with the operational needs of his or her unit; and 8) maintain confidentiality with respect to EEO-related matters.

F. Personnel Officers

Personnel Officers have primary responsibility for assisting the agency head in implementing the City's personnel policies and shall be knowledgeable regarding the interplay of EEO-related laws and other work-related legal regulations including Family Medical Leave Act, New York State Civil Service Law, and Workers' Compensation Law. Personnel Officers should cooperate with EEO Officers in the implementation of the Policy, standards, and procedures including training objectives, complaint resolutions, and modifying agency procedures to ensure equal employment opportunity for applicants and employees.

Personnel Officers will also: 1) ensure that employees know the identity of the agency Career Counselor and ensure that all employees have access to information regarding job responsibilities, performance evaluation standards, examinations, training opportunities and job postings; 2) ensure that all new employees are advised of the Policy, standards, and procedures, the employees' rights and responsibilities under such policies, and the discrimination complaint procedures; 3) inform the EEO Officer on a quarterly basis of the number of 55-a Program participants and efforts that the agency has made to employ, promote, or accommodate qualified individuals with disabilities; 4) involve the agency EEO Officer in the review of EEO-related decisions, actions, and practices; and 5) promptly consult with the agency's EEO Officer if he or she knows, has been informed of, or suspects that a violation of this Policy has occurred.

THE CITY OF NEW YORK
EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY COMPLAINT
PROCEDURAL GUIDELINES

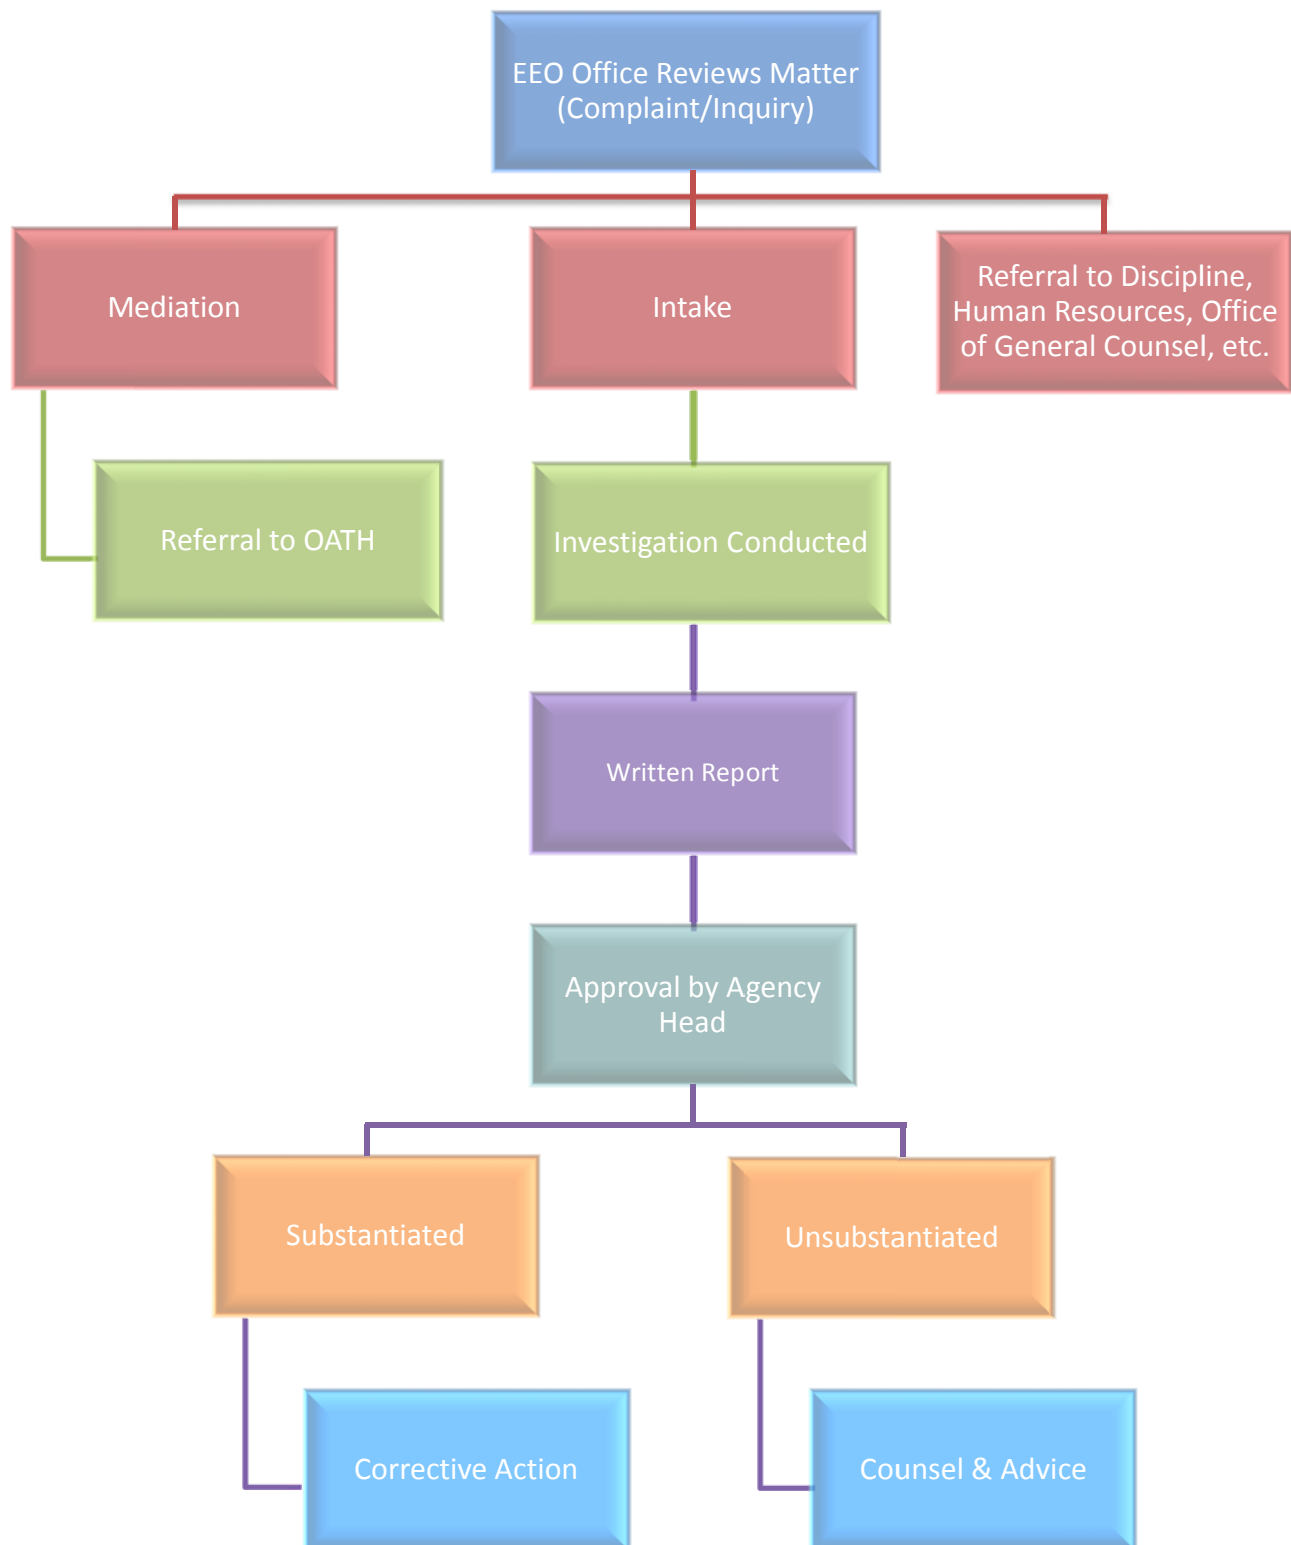

Overview

These Equal Employment Opportunity Complaint Procedural Guidelines (the “Guidelines”) are designed to assist Equal Employment Opportunity (“EEO”) Officers, Investigators and Counselors in handling EEO complaints and inquiries in a fair, consistent, and timely manner. A person who wishes to make an EEO complaint, or who inquiries about a possible EEO complaint, should be referred to the City’s EEO Policy (the “Policy”) and the “About EEO: What You May Not Know” Handbook (the “Handbook”).¹

As provided in the Policy, the City prohibits discriminatory employment actions against, and treatment of, City employees and applicants for employment based on actual or perceived race, color, national origin, alienage or citizenship status, religion or creed, gender (including “gender identity” --which refers to a person’s actual or perceived sex, and includes self-image, appearance, behavior or expression, whether or not different from that traditionally associated with the legal sex assigned to the person at birth), disability, age (18 and over), military status, prior record of arrest or conviction, marital status, partnership status, genetic information or predisposing genetic characteristic, sexual orientation, status as a victim or witness of domestic violence, sex offenses or stalking, and unemployment status. Harassment and/or retaliation against a person who opposes or complains about prohibited conduct or participates in any way in the complaint, investigation, or reasonable accommodation processes are also prohibited. The Policy also prohibits the denial of reasonable accommodations for disabilities; pregnancy, childbirth, and related medical conditions; religious beliefs, observances, and practices; or for victims of domestic violence, sex offenses, or stalking that do not create an undue hardship. Persons who claim discrimination in violation of the Policy may file a complaint within one year of the alleged discriminatory incident, with the EEO Office at the City agency where the incident occurred (“internal complaint”) or with a Civil Rights enforcement agency, subject to its filing requirements (“external complaint”).

The EEO Complaint Process at a Glance

THE INTAKE PHASE

The EEO complaint or inquiry process begins when a person (the “Complainant”) contacts the EEO Office regarding an alleged discriminatory incident.

The person making the complaint may do so anonymously, if he or she so chooses. Anonymous complaints must be treated the same as identified complaints, to the extent possible.

A complaint may be filed by an employee a former employee, independent contractor, a consultant, a volunteer, an intern, a WEP worker, or an applicant for City employment.

A complaint may be filed on the Complainant’s own behalf or on behalf of someone else.

Supervisors and managers are required under the Policy to timely notify their EEO Office of any alleged discriminatory conduct they observe or become aware of.

Upon receiving an EEO complaint or inquiry, the EEO Office must memorialize the complaint or inquiry and enter it into the complaint tracking system,² as well as schedule, by email or letter, an intake session with Complainant, if known, for purposes of assessing or confirming the following:

- Is the complaint timely?
 - Determine when the alleged discriminatory conduct occurred. A complaint must be filed within one year of the date the alleged discriminatory conduct occurred.
 - While a Complainant may not be able to file a complaint and obtain specific relief sought if the complaint is untimely, the EEO Office may conduct an investigation and may make recommendations to address inappropriate conduct.
- Has Complainant previously filed a lawsuit or complaint with an enforcement agency regarding the same claims of discrimination? If so, the matter must be transferred to the agency’s Office of General Counsel.
 - If an external complaint or lawsuit is filed subsequent to the filing of the internal complaint, the matter must also be transferred to the agency’s Office of General Counsel. The EEO Office must notify Complainant (and Respondent³, if any) in writing of the transfer.
 - If the Complainant alleges retaliation after filing the external complaint, the retaliation complaint must also be transferred to the Office of General Counsel.
 - If a subsequent complaint involves allegations unrelated to the initial external complaint, the EEO Office may retain and investigate the subsequent complaint as a separate complaint. The EEO Office must consult with the Office of General Counsel in determining whether the subsequent complaint involves separate allegations.

² The complaint tracking system is available at <https://mspwwa-dcslnx01.csc.nycnet/Login.aspx>.

³ The Respondent is the person or entity alleged to have engaged in the discriminatory conduct.

- ☑ Has Complainant previously raised the same issues with others at the agency?
 - Did Complainant discuss the alleged discriminatory conduct with a supervisor/manager, Human Resources, or co-workers?
 - Has Complainant filed a grievance with his or her union regarding the same conduct, practice or policy?
- ☑ Does the complaint or inquiry raise one or more of the protected categories under the City's Policy, including when discrimination is based on perception or association (see the Handbook, pages 8-10, for definitions of the protected categories)?
 - If the complaint or inquiry does not raise an EEO basis, the EEO Office should make a referral, as appropriate.
- ☑ If the complaint or inquiry raises an EEO basis, what specific conduct, practice or policy is the person alleging violates the Policy? The issues raised could involve one or more of the following issues:
 - Harassment, including, but not limited to "the use of vulgar language, abusive acts or language, hostility, physical aggression, intimidation or unequal treatment" based on any of the protected categories (see the City's EEO Policy, page 3).
 - Adverse employment actions, such as negative performance evaluation or denial of promotion or benefits, allegedly based on one or more protected categories as shown by, for example, discriminatory comments or different treatment of other employees who are similarly situated.
 - Failure to reasonably accommodate disability, pregnancy, childbirth and related medical condition, religion/religious observance, victims of domestic violence, sex offenses or stalking.
 - Retaliation due to opposition or complaining about discrimination or participating in the complaint, investigation or reasonable accommodation process. Retaliatory conduct includes conduct reasonably likely to dissuade a person from engaging in protected activity.
 - Policy alleged to have a discriminatory impact on a protected category that is not job-related or justified by business necessity.
- ☑ What is Complainant's status with the agency?
 - Does Complainant work at the agency?
 - What is Complainant's civil service status?
 - Is Complainant an employee of the agency or different agency or an independent contractor?
 - The EEO Office must contact the EEO Office of the employing agency and coordinate the investigation.
- ☑ Which person(s), if any, is alleged to have engaged in the discriminatory conduct (the "Respondent")?
 - Complaints against the EEO Officer and agency heads should be referred to the City's Law Department or Department of Citywide Administrative Services ("DCAS").
 - Complaints by employees or others against a member of the public visiting the agency should be referred to the agency's EEO Officer.

- Complaints by the public against persons working at the agency should be handled by the agency's EEO Officer.
- In the case of complaints against employees of other agencies, the EEO Office of each agency should conduct a joint inquiry or investigation of the complaint.

Is there a specific document or rule that applies to the conduct or practice complained about? For example:

- Personnel Services Bulletins (<http://www.nyc.gov/html/dcas/html/employees/psbtoc.shtml>)
- Personnel Rules and Regulations of the City of New York (http://www.nyc.gov/html/dcas/html/employees/personnelrules_regs.shtml)
- Collective bargaining agreements (<http://www1.nyc.gov/site/olr/labor/labor-recent-agreements.page>)
- Title Specifications and Notices of Examinations (<http://mspwwa-dcstso01.dcas.nycnet/TitleSpecs/home.aspx>)
- Agency Code of Conduct

Do the allegations involve conduct which must be reported to or investigated by a different office or agency? For instance:

- Discipline (Advocate): violations of code of conduct.
 - The EEO Office may rely on fact-findings of Discipline or may conduct separate or additional investigation.
- Inspector General: fraud, corruption and unethical conduct.
- Police/Law Enforcement: criminal conduct.
 - The EEO Office may have to place an investigation or inquiry on hold if the matter is referred to law enforcement.

Is it necessary that action be taken prior to the investigation of the complaint?

- After consultation and approval from appropriate agency personnel, it may be necessary to provide interim relief to alleged victims of harassment.
- Interim relief may include, among other actions, temporary transfers and assignment or shift changes.

Inform Complainant regarding confidentiality and anonymity, and the Policy regarding retaliation.

Prior to meeting Complainant, inform Complainant of the right to be accompanied by a representative.

Begin investigation immediately after determining that the allegations raised, if true, are sufficient to establish a case of discrimination under the Policy, that the complaint is timely, and that the EEO Office is responsible for investigating the complaint. Complete an investigation within 90 calendar days of the filing of the complaint.

- Ensure a Complaint Form is completed, preferably by Complainant although it can be done by the EEO Office, but should be signed by Complainant.

MEDIATION

Mediation is a voluntary approach to dispute resolution in which the parties try to resolve the dispute themselves on mutually agreeable terms, with the help of a trained third party mediator. The EEO Officer may recommend mediation, or either party to the complaint may request mediation.

The EEO Office may recommend mediation at the inquiry/intake stage and/or the parties may subsequently request mediation during the investigation, subject to the approval of the EEO Officer. Requests for mediation must be made in writing.

Mediation may be conducted by a trained third party mediator. The Center for Creative Conflict Resolution, which is part of the Office of Administrative Trials and Hearings (“OATH”), conducts mediation free of cost to City agencies and employees. More information about OATH is available at <http://www.nyc.gov/html/oath/html/about/the-center.shtml>.

Mediation is most appropriate for complaints involving interpersonal conflict, and should not be considered in certain cases, such as when the complaint includes allegations of sexual harassment or criminal conduct.

Mediation efforts must not exceed 45 days from the start of mediation. The EEO Office may extend the mediation for good cause.

While mediation continues, the 90-day period for completion of the investigation is suspended.

If the parties agree to a resolution during mediation, a resolution agreement will be drafted and provided to the parties and the referring EEO Officer. The resolution agreement will resolve the pending EEO complaint. Any resolution agreement requiring agency action or approval will only become effective subject to agency approval. If a resolution is not reached, the matter is returned to the EEO Officer and the 90-day investigative period resumes. The EEO Officer may also determine if an agreement has been violated and if so, whether to refer it for further mediation or declare the agreement void.

A party may withdraw from mediation at any time. The EEO Office may also terminate the mediation process if it deems that the effort has been unproductive. The EEO Office must inform all parties to the complaint, in writing, of the termination of mediation. The notice must also inform the parties that the EEO Office will resume its investigation of the complaint.

INVESTIGATION

- The purpose of the investigation is to determine whether there are facts supporting the allegations of discrimination.
- The complaint investigation should begin immediately after a determination that the allegations raised, if true, are sufficient to establish discrimination under the Policy, that the complaint is timely, and that the EEO Office is responsible for investigating the complaint.
- The complaint investigation should be completed and the Complainant should be notified of the outcome within 90 calendar days of the filing of a complaint.
 - The EEO Office should ensure that a Complaint Form is completed, preferably by Complainant although it can be done by the EEO Office, but should be signed by Complainant, and logged into the complaint tracking system.
 - Complainants should be provided the following upon filing a complaint:
 - a copy of the written complaint
 - acknowledgement of receipt of the complaint
 - a copy of or links to the City' EEO Policy and Handbook
- Meet with Complainant to supplement or clarify information provided during the intake phase.
 - Confirm if there any persons who witnessed the alleged discriminatory conduct.
 - Does the Complainant have or know of any documents, such as emails or photos, containing information about the alleged conduct?
- Conduct a thorough investigation that provides answers as to:
 - who was involved in the alleged discriminatory conduct;
 - what occurred during the alleged conduct;
 - when and where the alleged conduct took place;
 - the identity of all witnesses to the alleged conduct, anyone with whom the alleged conduct has been discussed, or anyone who may have identified as having been subject to similar conduct as that alleged or who has information concerning any aspect of the alleged conduct;
 - whether this was an isolated conduct or part of a pattern;
 - what impact, if any, the alleged conduct has had on the Complainant and/or the work environment;
- Determine whether the action alleged to be discriminatory was based on a legitimate, nondiscriminatory reason.
- Obtain and review any available and relevant notes, recordings, photographs, physical evidence, or other documentation.

Conducting Interviews

- Explain objective of the interview.
- Explain City's EEO Policy on retaliation.
- Ask open-ended interview questions in a non-judgmental manner.
- Determine what witnesses know based on personal knowledge versus what they have heard.
- During each interview, take thorough notes, as close to verbatim as possible. Notes should reflect the content of the interview, both the questions and answers, as completely as possible.

Notice to Respondent of the Complaint

- The EEO Office must serve Respondent with a notice of complaint along with a redacted copy of the complaint or a summary of the complaint and allegations after interviewing the Complainant. The following information must be redacted: the Complainant's home address and telephone number, and the name(s), title(s), and division(s) of witnesses.
- Schedule a meeting with Respondent, ensuring that Respondent is informed of the right to be accompanied by a representative.
- Remind Respondent of the City's EEO Policy against unlawful discrimination and retaliation.
- Inform Respondent of the right to respond in writing to the complaint, and that the response should be submitted as soon as possible.
- Give Respondent an opportunity to offer his/her version of events and any other relevant information, including any witnesses who are likely to have relevant information. The EEO Office should interview witnesses identified by Respondent.

Amending the Complaint

The complaint may be amended in writing, for any reason, prior to conclusion of the investigation and notice of outcome to the parties. For purposes of the one-year filing period, amendments to the original complaint will be deemed timely if the original complaint was itself timely. However:

- If a Complainant, after filing an initial complaint, seeks to file a subsequent complaint based on different facts than those alleged in the initial complaint, the subsequent complaint should be treated as a separate complaint.
- If a Complainant, after filing an initial complaint, seeks to file a subsequent complaint alleging retaliation for making the initial complaint, the later complaint should be treated as a separate complaint.

- All initial, amended, and new complaints should be cross-referenced in the EEO Office's complaint file and the complaint tracking system.

Right to be Accompanied by a Representative

Any person who is interviewed during the course of an EEO investigation has the right to be accompanied by a representative of his or her choice. This includes individuals who make complaints, persons against whom complaints were made, or witnesses. It is preferable that the EEO Office receive advance notice that the person who is being interviewed will be bringing a representative. The representative may not respond on behalf of the party being interviewed or interfere with the interview.

Confidentiality and Record Keeping

Complaints and complaint investigations should be accorded the strictest confidentiality possible. The EEO Office should make every effort to protect from disclosure the complaint allegations, the identity of parties to the complaint and any witnesses. Exceptions include disclosing to persons with a legitimate need to know certain information in order to respond to the complaint allegations or implement interim or corrective action. All persons with whom the EEO Office interacts concerning the complaint and its investigation should be asked to refrain from discussing the complaint beyond their interaction with the EEO Office.

All complaints and related documents, including any investigative notes, records, or copies, are strictly confidential and must be maintained by the EEO Office. The EEO Office may consult the agency's Office of General Counsel concerning a request to view or have copied, in whole or part, the EEO Office's files.

Meeting with EEO Office and Obligation to Cooperate

Anyone has the right to meet privately with the EEO Office during its office hours. An employee seeking to meet with the EEO Office at a reasonable time during that office's hours must secure prior permission for same from his/her appropriate supervisor. Such requests must be granted as a matter of right, but the supervisor may determine a reasonable time for the employee to visit the EEO Office. The employee is not required to disclose to the supervisor or anyone the reason for the employee's visit to the EEO Office. If appropriate or preferred by the employee, the meeting between the employee and the EEO Office may be scheduled before or after that office's hours, or during the employee's lunch break or personal time.

All employees are expected to cooperate with EEO investigations. Failure to cooperate in an investigation may result in disciplinary action.

False Allegations

If an employee knowingly makes a false complaint or knowingly provides false information to the EEO Office in the course of a complaint or complaint investigation, such conduct may be grounds for disciplinary action. A complaint made in good faith, even if found to be unsubstantiated, will not be considered a false accusation.

Agency As Respondent

Whenever an agency and/or subdivision of an agency are named as a Respondent in a complaint, the Agency Head should designate an appropriate person to respond to the allegations in the complaint on behalf of the agency or subdivision.

PREPARING THE FINAL REPORT

The final investigative report must be completed and the parties must be notified of the outcome within 90 calendar days from the date the complaint was filed with the EEO Office, unless the time period is extended by the EEO Office for good cause, with written notice to the parties and memorialized in the investigative file and/or the complaint tracking system. The EEO Office must document the reason for the delay, and project a time frame for the completion of the report.

The EEO Officer should routinely consult the agency's Office of General Counsel on questions that arise while preparing the written report or at any phase of the investigation.

- After all the relevant facts have been gathered, the EEO Officer must prepare a confidential written report on the complaint investigation and must submit the report to the Agency Head for review.
- In preparing the written report, the EEO Officer should determine the credibility of the parties and witnesses, including their motives and biases. The EEO Officer should routinely consult the agency's Office of General Counsel on questions that arise while preparing the written report or at any phase of the investigation.
- If, based on the facts, the EEO Officer determines that it is more likely than not that the Respondent engaged in unlawful discriminatory conduct in violation of the City's EEO Policy, the EEO Officer must determine the most appropriate action to be taken in light of the facts and circumstances and make a written recommendation to the Agency Head.
- Corrective action may include measures necessary to address the impact that the violation of the City's EEO Policy had on the Complainant or within the agency. Disciplinary action must be taken in accordance with provisions of law, rules and regulations and any relevant collective bargaining agreement. Determining the appropriate disciplinary action is often a difficult and sensitive matter with potential legal consequences. Therefore, the agency's Office of General Counsel, Agency Advocate and/or Labor Relations Office must concur in any recommendation to pursue discipline before it can be adopted as part of a written report.
 - The written report should include a summary of the allegations and responses, a summary of the procedural history of the investigation, a statement of the relevant facts gathered during the investigation, a conclusion/determination and recommendation. Conclusions must be supported by facts uncovered during the investigation.
- The Agency Head must sign each written report and indicate that it has been reviewed and whether the determination and recommendation, if any, is adopted, rejected or modified. After review of the report by the Agency Head, the EEO Office should inform all parties in writing of the outcome of the investigation.

Informing Parties of Outcome

The decision after investigation should be communicated to the parties, in writing, in a discreet and confidential manner, indicating the conclusion reached, whether the misconduct alleged has been substantiated, and the agency's opposition to that kind of activity.

APPENDICES

The following pages contain templates in the form of sample documents and letters that were developed to promote consistency in the complaint and investigative processes. Although agencies are not mandated to use these specific templates, the information captured in these templates should be considered the minimum requirement.

Regarding the sample final investigative report included here, this format is strongly encouraged in the interest of consistency and clarity of reporting.

All EEO complaints are to be entered in the complaint tracking system.

- It is recommended that this be done immediately following the initial intake interview with the Complainant(s).
- It is required that this be done before the end of the quarter.

Board of Correction
Evaluation of Sexual Harassment Prevention and Response Practices
Audit Period: January 1, 2017 to December 31, 2018
Determination: FINAL

Dear Executive Director Ovesey:

On behalf of the members of the Equal Employment Practices Commission (EEPC), thank you for the continued cooperation extended to our staff. This document serves as a follow-up evaluation and Final Determination to the following:

Preliminary Determination Issued on: August 23, 2019
Response Received: September 6, 2019

Purpose

Chapter 35, Sections 815(a)(15) and (19) of the New York City Charter (Charter) calls for agency heads to ensure and promote equal opportunity for all persons in appointment, payment of wages, development, and advancement, and to establish measures and programs to ensure a fair and effective affirmative employment plan to provide equal employment opportunity (EEO) for minority group members and women.

Charter Chapter 36, Sections 830(a) and 831(d)(2) and (5) authorize the EEPC to audit, review, evaluate, and monitor the employment practices, procedures, and programs of city agencies and other municipal entities, hereinafter "entities," and their efforts to ensure fair and effective EEO for women and minority employees and applicants. Charter Sections 831(d)(2) and 832(c) authorize the EEPC to make a determination that any plan, program, procedure, approach, measure, or standard does not provide equal employment opportunity, require appropriate corrective action, and monitor the implementation of the corrective action prescribed. The attachment contains the EEPC's final determination regarding the audit, review, and evaluation of the Board of Correction's Sexual Harassment Prevention and Response Practices.

As the Board of Correction falls within the EEPC's purview under Charter Chapter 36, Section 831(a), the EEPC is authorized to review, evaluate, and monitor the coordination and implementation of its affirmative employment programs of EEO and related practices. As indicated in our Preliminary Determination, the EEPC has adopted uniform standards¹ to this end. The purpose of this Final Determination, as authorized by Charter Chapter 36, Section 832(c), is to determine the sufficiency of the Board of Correction's actions taken or planned thus far to correct areas of non-compliance identified in the EEPC's Preliminary Determination. Further, Chapter 36, Section 832(c) requires that: (1) the EEPC assign a compliance-monitoring period of up to six (6) months to monitor efforts taken to eliminate areas of non-compliance, if any; and (2) the agency respond in thirty (30) days and submit a report each month during this period on the progress of efforts taken to correct outstanding areas of non-compliance.

Next Steps

The assigned compliance-monitoring period is: October 1, 2019 to March 31, 2020. Correcting all outstanding areas of non-compliance without delay is highly encouraged and will serve to shorten this period.

If corrective actions remain: Corrective actions will be listed under the Monitoring Required section of the attached Final Determination. The EEPC requires that the agency head submit a signed response to this Final Determination. The signed response should indicate what steps the Board of Correction has taken, or will take, to correct outstanding areas of non-compliance during the designated compliance-monitoring period. The Board of Correction will be monitored monthly until all outstanding areas of non-compliance have been sufficiently corrected. The Board of Correction is required to submit documentation that supports the implementation of each corrective action via TeamCentral, the EEPC's Automated Compliance-Monitoring System. Instruction on how to access and navigate TeamCentral is attached.

Final Memorandum: Upon the Board of Correction's implementation of the final corrective action, if any, the EEPC requires that the Board of Correction submit a final memorandum, signed by the agency head, that recognizes the EEPC's audit and reiterates commitment to equal employment practices. Upon receipt of this final memorandum, the EEPC will issue a Determination of Compliance.

If no corrective actions remain: In lieu of a response to this Final Determination, the Board of Correction must submit a final memorandum (See Next Steps, Final Memorandum). Upon the EEPC's receipt of the final memorandum, the Board of Correction will be exempt from the abovementioned compliance-monitoring period.

¹ The EEPC's uniform standards for auditing municipal entities and minimum standards for auditing community boards (collectively "Standards") are founded upon, and consistent with, federal, state, and local laws and regulations, and policies and procedures, including, but not limited to, the City of New York's Equal Employment Opportunity Policy, Standards and Procedures to be Utilized by City Agencies 2014; New York City Human Rights Law (NYC Administrative Code 8); New York State Human Rights Law (New York Executive Law, Article 15); New York State Civil Service Law §55-a; and the equal employment opportunity requirements of the New York City Charter.

Conclusion

This is the EEPc's Final Determination. Questions regarding next steps may be addressed to Jennifer Shaw, Esq., Executive Agency Counsel/Director of Compliance at jshaw@eepc.nyc.gov or 212-615-8942.

Thank you and your staff for your continued cooperation.

Sincerely,

Charise L. Terry

FINAL DETERMINATION

A response indicating progress of Board of Correction's efforts to correct outstanding areas of non-compliance, with supporting documentation, is due within 30 days.

The Equal Employment Practices Commission's findings and corrective actions required to remedy areas of non-compliance are based on the audit methodology, which included collection and analysis of the documents, records, and data provided; the EEPC's Preliminary Interview Questionnaires (PIQs) for EEO professionals and others involved in EEO program administration; and, if applicable, the EEPC Employee Survey; the EEPC Supervisor/Manager Survey; the Annual EEO Plans and Quarterly EEO Reports of the audited entity; and workforce data from the Citywide Equal Employment Database System. Additional research and follow-up discussions or interviews were conducted as appropriate.

After reviewing the optional response² (if applicable) to the EEPC's Preliminary Determination, our Final Determination is as follows:

Agree

Regarding your responses to the following EEPC required corrective actions, we Agree based on documentation that is attached to your response.

Corrective Action #1:

Issue a Policy Statement or memorandum reiterating commitment to the prevention of sexual harassment annually.

Agency Response:

The Board of Correction provided a copy of its Sexual Harassment Policy Statement that was distributed on September 4, 2019 by the Acting Executive Director via email to all employees that stated, "I am pleased to share the attached New York City Board of Correction 2019 Sexual Harassment Policy Statement. Sexual harassment is a form of employment discrimination prohibited by the EEO policy and law. The Board is committed to creating an environment that is free from sexual harassment."

EEPC Response:

The EEPC accepts the agency's response and documentation provided as confirmation that corrective action #1 has been implemented.

² Excerpts are italicized.

Corrective Action #5:

Ensure that the principal EEO Professional, HR Professional, and General Counsel, review the number of sexual harassment complaints, and the agency's employment practices, policies and programs on an annual basis to identify whether there are barriers to employment opportunities that may be related to sexual harassment and determine what, if any, actions are required to correct deficiencies.

Agency Response:

"Continue to ensure that the principal EEO Professional, HR Professional, and General Counsel, review the number of sexual harassment complaints, and the agency's employment practices, policies and programs on an annual basis to identify whether there are barriers to employment opportunities that may be related to sexual harassment and determine what, if any, actions are required to correct deficiencies. A recurring calendar invite has been created with a proposed agenda for the meeting." The Board of Correction submitted to the EEPC an Annual Review of EEO Data meeting invite, scheduled to recur yearly, that contained the following agenda: "[a]nnual review of BOC data related to: 1. EEO sexual harassment data, 2. CEEDS data, 3. Employment practices, policies, and programs. Meeting will be done on an annual basis with Agency's EEO Officer, HR Director, General Counsel and Agency Head."

EEPC Response:

The EEPC accepts the agency's response and documentation provided as confirmation that corrective action #5 has been implemented.

Monitoring Required

The agency's implementation of the following required corrective actions will be monitored during the assigned compliance-monitoring period.

Corrective Action #2:

Serve the respondent with a notice of the complaint that includes the respondent's right to respond to the allegations and right to be accompanied by a representative of his/her choice. Maintain in the complaint file documentation regarding the service of notice on the respondent.

Agency Response:

"Created a finalized form that will be served to respondents who file EEO complaints that includes the respondent's right to respond to the allegations and right to be accompanied by a representative of his/her choice." The Board of Correction provided a draft copy of its Letter to Respondent that included the respondent's right to respond to allegations and their right to be accompanied by a representative of their choice.

EEPC Response:

The EEPC recognizes the agency's commitment to implement corrective action #2. Upon review of the Board of Correction's Letter to Respondent, the EEPC recommends that the document be consistently labeled and contain fields in the header that provide space to record: date, addressee, and the complaint file number. The finalized document should be provided to the EEPC during the compliance-monitoring period for review.

Corrective Action #3:

Issue a conclusive report within 90 days of the date the complaint was filed. Commence an investigation immediately if allegations raised sufficiently warrant an investigation.

Agency Response:

"Made a commitment to issue a conclusive report within 90 days of the date the complaint was filed. Commence an investigation immediately if allegations raised sufficiently warrant an investigation. Created a finalized form that will be shared with respondent and complainant in the rare circumstance that a complaint investigation cannot commence immediately or where a conclusive report cannot be issued within 90 days. This form includes the reason for the delay and project a time frame for completion of the report." The Board of Correction provided a draft of its Inquiry Letter to Complainant, which stated, "[t]he New York City Board of Correction is committed to commencing investigations immediately and will make every effort to complete investigation within 90 calendar days as required by NYC's EEO policy. If there is a delay, both the respondent and complainant will be notified in writing."

EEPC Response:

The EEPC recognizes the agency's commitment to implement corrective action #3. The Board of Correction must include language in its procedure/policy that is consistent with this standard and, in the case of an open complaint investigation during the compliance-monitoring period, provide the EEPC with a redacted conclusive confidential report issued within 90 days of the date the complaint was filed. The Board of Correction should note that the EEPC does not require the creation of a letter/form to the complainant/respondent that includes this commitment.

Corrective Action #4:

In rare circumstances where a complaint investigation cannot commence immediately, or where a conclusive report cannot be issued within 90 days, specify in the complaint file the reason for the delay and project a time frame for completion of the report. Notify the complainant and respondent of the delay.

Agency Response:

"Created a finalized form that will be shared with respondent and complainant in the rare circumstance that a complaint investigation cannot commence immediately or where a conclusive report cannot be issued within 90 days. This form includes the reason for the delay and project a time frame for completion of the report." The Board of Correction provided a draft copy of its Delay Letter to be provided to the complainant and respondent that stated the following, "[p]lease be advised that the EEO investigative report scheduled to be completed on [blank] has been delayed due to [blank]. We expect the investigative report to be completed by [blank]."

EEPC Response:

The EEPC recognizes the agency's commitment to implement corrective action #4. Upon review of the Board of Correction's Delay Letter, the EEPC recommends that the form be appropriately named and contain fields in the header that provide space to record: date, addressee, and the complaint file number. The Board of Correction should note that EEPC does not require the complainant/respondent to be notified of the reason for the delay, so long as the reason is documented in the complaint file. The finalized document should be submitted to the EEPC during the compliance-monitoring period for review.

FINAL ACTION:

Upon the EEPC's determination that the entity does not require further review or monitoring: Distribute a memorandum signed by the agency head that re-emphasizes the commitment of agency administrators to the EEO program, including the prevention of sexual harassment, and informs employees of any changes to the agency's employment practices as a result of the EEPC's audit/monitoring. This final action is required to conclude the audit and monitoring process.

The EEPC thanks you and your staff for your continued cooperation.

RE: Sexual Harassment Prevention and Response Practices Board of Correction

The New York City Charter requires the Equal Employment Practices Commission (EEOC) to conduct an audit once every four years to ensure each City agency or municipal entity (collectively "agency") complies with federal, state, and local laws and regulations, and policies and procedures that increase equal opportunity for employees and applicants.

The EEOC recently concluded an audit and evaluation of the Board of Correction's practices and procedures for compliance with city, state, and federal equal employment opportunity laws and regulations, and identified enhancement by means of the following:

- Issue a Policy Statement or memorandum reiterating commitment to the prevention of sexual harassment annually.
- Serve the respondent with a notice of the complaint that includes the respondent's right to respond to the allegations and right to be accompanied by a representative of his/her choice. Maintain in the complaint file documentation regarding the service of notice on the respondent.
- Issue a conclusive report within 90 days of the date the complaint was filed. Commence an investigation immediately if allegations raised sufficiently warrant an investigation.
- In rare circumstances where a complaint investigation cannot commence immediately, or where a conclusive report cannot be issued within 90 days, specify in the complaint file the reason for the delay and project a time frame for completion of the report. Notify the complainant and respondent of the delay.
- Ensure that the principal EEO Professional, HR Professional, and General Counsel, review the number of sexual harassment complaints, and the agency's employment practices, policies and programs on an annual basis to identify whether there are barriers to employment opportunities that may be related to sexual harassment and determine what, if any, actions are required to correct deficiencies.

Through successful completion of the EEP's audit, evaluation, and monitoring processes and the aforementioned enhancements Acting Executive Director Ovesey reaffirms the commitment to ensuring that the Board of Correction's employment practices encourage and maintain a workplace free from unlawful discrimination and sexual harassment, and that all employees are aware of their rights and obligations under the agency's equal employment opportunity policies.
