No. 311 East NINETY-FOURTH STREET, NEW YORK, March 8, 1898.

Commissioner of Public Works :

Dane Siz—I take the liberty to call your attention to an unpaved and very dangerous place, about 15 feet by 40 feet, in Nherty-seventh street, cast side of Fourth avenue.

With the exception of this small plot the avenue is in a fine condition for light driving or tracking, while in this particular place trucks are compelled to go around the block, at the expense of time and convanience.

Trusting that you will receive this communication in the friendly spirit in which it is written.

Yours truly JOHN W. EAFF. (Signed)

Hon, Augustus W. PRIERS, Problem, Rosough of Manhattan:

Dican Sin. Mr. Lambert S. Jone kenbush, Secretary of the Property Owners' Union, No. 38 East Ninety skills street, wrote to me on the 9th instant, as follows:

"The roadway of Ninety seventh steed crossing Park avenue, lying east of the railroad bridge to the east side of Park avenue, has never been paved, are about 40 by 30 feet, and is really tridge to the east side of Park accome, has never been paved, are about 40 by 30 feet, and is really impassable for heavy trucks.

"This is the only transverse rood across the Park north of Righty-sith street, and as such is a continuous trains and a busy thoroughture. Accidents for the past two years happen daily. Unless this portion of street is paved and made passable, we would advise the closing of the street and thus relieve the City of the liability."

As the part of Ninety-seventh street referred to has never been paved, and the cost of improving it will have to be assessed on the abutting and benefited property, I submit the matter to you for presentation to the Local Board of the district for action, parsuant to section 393 of the City Charter.

Very respectfully.

Very respectfully, JAMES P. KEATING, Commissioner of Highways.

DEPARTMENT OF HIGHWAYS-COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE,) No. 150 NASSAU STREET, NEW YORK, April 18, 1898.

Hon. Augustus W. Peters, President, Borough of Manhattan.

Dear Sir - Replying to your letter of March 25, from your Secretary, I beg to say that the estimated cost of paving the readway of Ninety-seventh street, crossing park avenue, lying east of the railroad bridge to the east side of Park avenue, about 40 by 30 feet, is $385. The assessed value of the property within the valuable area of assessments is $120,000.

Very respectfully,

W. H. SHANNON, Deputy Commissioner of Highways.

Ablerman Schneider offered the following resolution:
Kessived, That the Board of Lucal Improvements of the Twentieth District of the Borough Inshattan recommend to the Board of Public Improvements that the roadway of Ninetyseventh street, crossing Park avenue, lying east of the railroad bridge to the east side of Park avenue, be paved. Adopted.

To the President of the Borough of Manhattan :

DEAR SIR—I should like to call your attention to lots on the north side of Ninety-little street, about 100 feet cast of Second avenue, which are in the rear of a public school-house as well as in the rear of where I am new living, which are open lots. I have also been informed from the women falks that these upen lots are a nuisance, as men use them as urinals and water-closets, as well as carts putting in rubblash which in time cause a very had smell to our room. If these lots are fenced in I know that the nuisance would be stopped; they are about ten or twelve lots. I have been informed that the owner is Mr. New, who keeps a silk factory on the south side of Firty-fith street, west of Tenth avenue.

By attending to have these nuisances abated you will oblige a certain tenant of house No. 1844 Second avenue.
