COLLECTION SPOTLIGHT: BIOGRAPHICAL CLIPPINGS COLLECTION

Do you want to learn something about the first woman candidate for a borough presidency? (Dorothy Bell Lawrence, Republican, Manhattan, 1961). What was Michael Quill best known for? (Leadership of the Transport Workers Union during the 1966 transit strike). When did Fiorello LaGuardia's wife die? (September 22, 1989). The City Hall Library's collection of biographical clippings holds the answers to such questions. Over 150 binders feature newspaper and magazine articles, press releases and other writings on the famous and obscure. Consult the biographical files for career information, personal and educational background, accomplishments and disasters in the lives of New York City politicians and others.

Clippings are arranged alphabetically by last name. Material on mayors and other major figures, such as Robert Moses, are kept separately from the other binders. Time and again, this has proven to be an important information trove for researchers, city employees, students and others. Please feel free to come in and ask the staff for assistance in using this valuable source.
