Adopted by the Board of Aldermen, October 22, 1878.

Approved by the Mayor, October 24, 1878.

Whereas, The Government of the United States has undertaken the work of improving the Harlem river and Spuyten Duyvil creek, so that the same may be rendered freely navigable for vessels from the Hudson river to the East river and Long Island Sound, saving in the passage not less than twenty-four miles of intricate navigation around the Battery, a work in which the transportation interests of the country are so largely concerned as to place it among those of national importance; and

Whereas, The completion of this work is not less important to the City of New York, in the midst of which these waters lie, and the want of conveniences for crossing them has become a source of great inconvenience and annoyance to the population on either side; and

Whereas, It is evident that the work of improving the navigation of these waters and the providing of tunnels and bridges for crossing them should proceed upon one settled plan, so that the expenditure to facilitate one object may not prove an obstacle to the other equally important object; therefore

Resolved, That General John Newton, under whose enlightened management and direction the improvements of the river are placed by the United States authorities, be respectfully requested to inform this Board whether in his judgment it is consistent with the plans of the Government of the United States or with the most favorable and convenient navigation of these waters that bridges or other structures be built across them on or at slight elevations above their surface, and in order that any wasteful expenditure of money may be avoided, the Departments of the city government which have jurisdiction in the matter of building bridges or other structures over these waters are requested to refrain from proceeding with or building any low bridges or any other structure calculated to obstruct the free use and navigation of these water ways until the plans thereof are brought in harmonious agreement with those of the United States Government.

Adopted by the Board of Aldermen, October 22, 1878.

Approved by the Mayor, October 24, 1878.

JURORS.

NOTICE IN RELATION TO JURORS FOR STATE COURTS

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER OF JURORS, NEW YORK COURT-HOUSE, NEW YORK, June 1, 1877.

APPLICATIONS FOR EXEMPTIONS WILL BE heard here, from 9 to 4 daily, from all persons hitherto liable or recently serving who have become exempt, and all needed information will be given.

Those who have not answered as to their liability, or proved permanent exemption, will receive a "jury enrollment notice," requiring them to appear before me this year. Whether liable or not, such notices must be answered (in person, if possible, and at this office only) under severe penalties. If exempt, the party must bring proof of exemption; if liable, he must also answer in person, giving full and correct name, residence, etc., etc. No attention paid to letters.

Persons "enrolled" as liable must serve when called or pay their fines. No mere excuse will be allowed or interference permitted. The fines, received from those who, for business or other reasons, are unable to serve at the time selected, pay the expenses of this office, and if unpaid will be entered as judgments upon the property of the delinquents.

All good citizens will aid the course of justice, and secure reliable and respectable juries, and equalize their duty by serving promptly when summoned, allowing their clerks or subordinates to serve, reporting to me any attempt at bribery or evasion, and suggesting names for enrollment. Persons between sixty and seventy years of age, summer absentees, persons temporarily ill, and United States and District Court jurors are not exempt.

Every man must attend to his own notice. It is a misdemeanor to give any jury paper to another to answer. It is also punishable by fine or imprisonment to give or receive any present or bribe, directly or indirectly, in relation to a jury service, or to withhold any paper or make any false statement, and every case will be fully prosecuted.
