APPROVED PAPERS.

APPROVED PAPERS FOR THE WEEK ENDING SEPTEMBER 13, 1902.

No. 458.

The emblems of mourning that drape the Aldermanic Chamber to-day emphasize the solemn fact that James J. Bridges, our beloved colleague, is dead. To us this bereavement seems as untimely as unexpected. The echoes of his voice seem yet to resound through this chamber, and each of us, with saddened heart, recalls pleasant memories of this esteemed friend and co-laborer. His lifework is finished. The clock has struck the hour of his departure, and his vacant chair speaks to us as eloquently as the words he uttered in life. We mourn his death as a personal loss. We all loved him for that kindly spirit which seemed to dwell within, and for the pleasant words and pleasant manner with which he greeted each of us. He was a man of the people, greatly beloved by his neighbors and friends for those sterling qualities and virtues which mark true manhood everywhere. He was diligent in business, attentive to his public duties, thoroughly in earnest, and of uncompromising integrity.

He served his constituency with unflagging energy and with single-minded devotion. He was punctual in his attendance at the meetings of this Board, and strenuous in furthering measures which he believed to be right. Earnestness is an essential of eloquence, and he was eloquent because he was earnest. He was friendly with all, therefore had no enemies. During his life he was a Deputy Revenue Collector, a Dock Master, and an officer in the County Court, until his election as Alderman in 1897. He was kind and charitable to his neighbors and generous to his church, personally laboring for its welfare as well as contributing of his means. He was a good husband and father, and leaves a family of four sons and three daughters to lament their parent.

Nothing which can be said is so expressive of the virtues of the man as the sight of the thousands who gathered by his bier from all walks in life, and we who were privileged to stand by that bier know how he was beloved by the people with whom he lived and who met him in his daily life. True to those higher principles which honor life, he was greatly beloved by all who knew him, and the falling tears of those who wept by his grave were expressive of their love toward the departed. Each member of this Board of Aldermen will cherish his memory and each one feels that he has lost a friend. He sleeps in peace. Our sincere sympathies go out to his children who survive, and we would place upon the records of this Board our testimony to the virtues, the integrity, the honor of our brother Alderman, James J. Bridges; therefore be it

Resolved, By this Body now in session, that these expressions of our sympathy be tendered to his surviving children, that the same be spread in full upon the minutes of this Board, and that a copy of this preamble and resolution, suitably engrossed, and duly authenticated by the City Clerk, be presented to the family of the deceased.

Adopted by the Board of Aldermen August 12, 1902.
Approved by the Mayor August 18, 1902.

Whereas, The survivors of the Civil War who are members of the Grand Army of the Republic will hold their annual encampment in the City of Washington on the 8th and 9th of October, 1902; and

Whereas, These aged heroes are fast marching towards the grave, and it will be but a little while until all have joined the great left flank on the other side of the river of life, and

Whereas, Many of the men who enlisted in the New York regiments and fought for the honor of the flag we are so proud of are employed in the different offices of this City; and

Whereas, Under the two last administrations of this City, all honor was paid to these worthy veterans and time was allowed them to attend the encampments held in the cities of Buffalo and Washington; and

Whereas, We feel that it is but doing justice to the men who in their youth risked their lives that the Union might live, and the stars of Old Glory remain undivided; be it therefore

Resolved, That all employees of The City of New York who are veterans of the Civil War be allowed one week's time with pay, in order that they may attend the annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, which is to be held in the City of Washington during the week beginning October 6, 1902. And be it further

Resolved, That his Honor, Seth Low, the Mayor of The City of New York, be respectfully requested to attach his signature of approval to this resolution of the Board of Aldermen of The City of New York.

NOTICES TO CONTRACTORS.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS TO BIDDERS.

The person or persons making a bid or estimate for any services, work, materials or supplies for The City of New York, or for any of its departments, bureaus or offices, shall furnish the same in a sealed envelope indorsed with the title of the supplies, materials, work or services for which the bid or estimate is made, with his or their name or names and the date of presentation to the President or Board or to the head of the department at his or its office, on or before the date and hour named in the advertisement for the same, at which time and place the estimates received will be publicly opened by the President or Board or head of said department, and read, and the award of the contract made according to law as soon thereafter as practicable.

Each bid or estimate shall contain the name and place of residence of the person making the same, the names of all persons interested with him therein, and, if no other person be so interested, it shall distinctly state that fact; also, that it is made without any connection with any other person making an estimate for the same purpose, and is in all respects fair and without collusion or fraud, and that no member of the board of aldermen, head of a department, chief of a bureau, deputy thereof, or clerk therein, or other officer of The City of New York is, shall be or become interested, directly or indirectly, as contracting party, partner, stockholder, surety or otherwise in or in the performance of the contract, or in the supplies, work or business to which it relates, or in any portion of the profits thereof. The bid or estimate must be verified by the oath, in writing, of the party or parties making the estimate that the several matters stated herein are in all respects true.

Each bid or estimate shall be accompanied by the consent, in writing, of two householders or freeholders in The City of New York, or of a guaranty or surety company duly authorized by law to act as surety, and shall contain the matters set forth in the blank forms mentioned below. No bid or estimate will be considered unless accompanied by a certified check upon one of the State or National banks of The City of New York, drawn to the order of the Comptroller, or money to the amount of five per centum of the amount of the bond required, as provided in section 420 of the Greater New York Charter.

For particulars as to the quantity and quality of the supplies, or the nature and extent of the work, reference must be made to the specifications, schedules, plans, etc., on file in the said office of the President, Board or Department.

No bid shall be accepted from or contract awarded to any person who is in arrears to The City of New York upon debt or contract, or who is a defaulter, as surety or otherwise, upon any obligation to The City.

The contracts must be bid for separately. The right is reserved in each case to reject all bids or estimates if it is deemed to be for the interest of The City so to do.

Bidders will write out the amount of their bids or estimates in addition to inserting the same in figures.

Bidders are requested to make their bids or estimates upon the blank forms prepared and furnished by The City, a copy of which, with the proper envelope in which to inclose the bid, together with a copy of the contract, including the specifications, in the form approved by the Corporation Counsel, can be obtained upon application therefor at the office of the department for which the work is to be done. Plans and drawings of construction work may also be seen there.
