Banking Commission.

The quarterly meeting of the officers to designate city depositories, in accordance with section 196, chapter 466, Laws of 1901, was held on Tuesday, August 1, 1916.

Present—Hon. John Purroy Mitchel, Mayor; Hon. Milo R. Malbie, Chamberlain, and Alexander Brough, Deputy Comptroller.

The Chamberlain offered the following:

"Resolved, That Edward F. Barrett be appointed Secretary of the Banking Commission."

Which was unanimously adopted.

The Chamberlain reported sending the following letter to the city depositories: "July 20, 1916. Gentlemen—Pursuant to law, the Mayor, the Comptroller and the Chamberlain, constituting the Banking Commission, will meet on the 1st day of August for the purpose of designating city depositories and fixing the rate of interest for the three months succeeding. The Charter requires that the rate must be fixed 'according to the current rate of interest upon like balances deposited in banks and trust companies in the City of New York by private persons and corporations.'"

The method heretofore followed will be modified for the quarter from August 1 to October 31, 1916, in certain respects. Instead of having all of the money belonging to the City of New York on deposit with banks and trust companies in a single class, a considerable sum, somewhere between $10,000,000 and $20,000,000, will be separated from the remainder of the money, and, for the sake of convenience, will be called 'Class A,' i. e., inactive deposits. The remainder will be treated as all deposits have been treated in the past, and, for convenience, will be called 'Class B,' i. e., active deposits.

The amount of money set aside as inactive deposits for the coming quarter will be fixed at a sum considerably below the lowest amount which the City has had on deposit with banks and trust companies for many years. A study of this phase of the matter has been made, and it has been found that only once in several years has the City had on deposit less than $20,000,000, and usually considerably more. For the coming quarter, the total inactive deposits will not be allowed to exceed $12,000,000 or $15,000,000, in order that one may be reasonably certain that none of the Class A deposits will be called upon. Of course, no guarantee can be or will be given to this effect, as under the Charter all City deposits must be considered subject to call. But Class A deposits will not be called during the coming quarter unless and until the demands for City money have exhausted other deposits and a part of Class A deposits is needed.

It follows that Class A deposits will not be fluctuating accounts, and, if one may judge from the experience of past years, there will be no withdrawal of any of these deposits during the coming quarter, but, of course, no pledge can be made to this effect.

Inasmuch as Class A deposits will be even more desirable than City deposits have been, I wish to be advised what rate of interest you will agree to pay on Class A deposits placed in your institution during the three months ending October 31st, 1916, and what rate you will pay on Class B deposits. In your reply, will you please specify whether you wish a Class A or a Class B deposit, or both Class A and Class B deposits.

I shall be glad to confer with anyone who wishes further information regarding the practical operation of this plan any time from the 24th to the 26th of July, inclusive. We are desirous of receiving all replies before July 28, 1916.

Very sincerely yours,

MILO R. MALBIE, Chamberlain."

The Chamberlain reported that the banks replied to the above letter as follows:

Class A Deposits—39 banks agreed to pay 3 per cent. or more, 7 banks agreed to pay 2¾ per cent., 38 banks agreed to pay 2½ per cent., 17 banks agreed to pay 2 per cent.

Class B Deposits—1 bank agreed to pay 2¾ per cent., 32 banks agreed to pay 2½ per cent., 4 banks agreed to pay 2¼ per cent., 55 banks agreed to pay 2 per cent. Nine banks not bidding for this class of deposits.

The Chamberlain offered the following:

"Resolved, That the present city depositories be redesignated." Which was unanimously adopted.

The Chamberlain offered the following:

"Resolved, That the minimum rate of interest on deposits be fixed at two (2) per cent., that the Chamberlain be empowered, wherever he may do so in his best judgment, to enter into contract for such higher rate of interest as may be obtained." Which was unanimously adopted.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

EDWARD F. BARRETT, Secretary.
