DEADLINE TO RSVP TODAY: MAYOR ADAMS TO DELIVER STATE OF THE CITY ADDRESS

Speech to Be Held at Queens Theatre

NEW YORK – New York City Mayor Eric Adams will deliver his second mayoral State of the City address at the Queens Theatre in Flushing Meadows-Corona Park on January 26th, where he will discuss the past year’s accomplishments and the current state of the city, and share new plans to improve the lives of all New Yorkers in the year ahead.

“In 2022, our first year in office, we committed to ‘Get Stuff Done’ for New Yorkers — and we delivered,” said Mayor Adams. “But we know that our city, and especially working-class New Yorkers, continue to face significant challenges. I look forward to outlining our vision for keeping New Yorkers safe, strengthening our economy, tackling the housing affordability crisis, and providing care to all those in need. We are going to make 2023 our Aaron Judge year.”

WHEN: Thursday, January 26th

TIME: 12:00 PM

WHERE: Queens Theatre, 14 United Nations Avenue S, Queens, NY 11368
