LAW DEPARTMENT.

The following opinion constitutes a portion of the proceedings of the Law Department for the week ending September 13th, 1873:

THE COMMISSIONERS OF THE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC CHARITIES AND CORRECTION HAVE POWER TO EMPLOY CHAPLAINS, AND IT IS THE DUTY OF THE BOARD OF APPORTIONMENT TO PROVIDE FOR THEIR PROPER COMPENSATION.

CITY OF NEW YORK, OFFICE OF COUNSEL TO THE CORPORATION, September 8, 1873.

Hon. WILLIAM LAIMBEER, President of the Department of Public Charities and Correction.

SIR-Your letter of the 1st was received on the 3d instant, transmitting the following resolution adopted by your Board: That the Counsel to the Corporation be respectfully requested to give this Board his opinion as to the right of this Board to employ and pay any chaplains or ministers of the Gospel for theseveral institutions under our charge.

The act of the Legislature passed April 6, 1849, authorizes the governors of the almshouse to appoint such chaplains as may be necessary, to hold office during the pleasure of the Board of Governors (Davies Laws, page 980, sections 4

The act of April 17, 1860, chapter 510, creates a Department of Public Charities, to possess and exercise full and exclusive powers for the government, management, maintenance, and direction of the several institutions, premises and property which were under the conrrol of the Board of Governors of the Almshouse, with powers to appoint and remove such subordinate officers as it shall see fit, and also with the power to define the duties of such subordinates and fix their compensation (Hoffman Laws, Volume First, page 616, sections 1, 4 and 5.)

The act of May 30, 1866, provides that no monies are to be expended by the Board unless a proper appropriation for the expenditure thereof has been made. (Hoffman's Laws, volume 3,

The act known as the Charter of 1870, section 80, as amended by section 15 of chapter 574 of the Laws of 1871, organizes a Department of Public Charities and Correction, to possess all the powers and discharge all the duties theretofore conferred upon such Department by special laws and by the provisions of Chapter 510, of the Laws of 1860, and of all acts and parts of acts amendatory thereof.

The act known as the Charter of 1873, lately enacted, provides that the Department of Public Charities and Correction shall be composed of a Board of three persons, possessing all the powers and duties conferred upon such Department by special laws and by all the provisions of Chap.

510, of the Laws of 1860, and the acts and parts of acts amendatory thereof, with full power over all matters relating to persons who are criminals, and persons, subject of charity, who are not criminals. (Laws of 1873, Chapter 335.)

The same act, in section 28, gives the heads of all Departments power to appoint and remove all officers, employes and subordinates in their respective Departments except as otherwise specially provided.

The duties of all officers and clerks, employes and subordinates in every department, except as otherwise provided, are to be such as the heads of the respective departments shall designate and approve; but subject, however, to the revision of the Board of Apportionment; and also provided that the aggregate expense shall not exceed the total amount appropriated to the respective departments.

It will thus be seen that among the powers conferred upon your predecessors (who were called the Governors of the Almshouse) was that of appointing chaplains, and this authority stands unrepealed in the course of legislation relating to your department perpetuating therein the powers granted to your predecessors.

It is true that by section 10 of chap. 757 of the laws of 1873, amendatory of what is known as the new Charter, the Legislature undertake to expressly forbid the appropriation of money in aid of any religious or denominational school.

Whatever may be the practical construction of this inhibition when the various schools of this city shall be subjected to the test of the characterizing the "religious" or "denominational," the language certainly cannot be construed to deprive the unfortunate perunder your charge of the benefit consolations of those religious ministrations which they have heretofore received according to their respective faiths in which to a greater or less extent, they have generally been

My answer to your resolution, therefore must be in affirmative of the power as to which it in-

It will at the same time be observed that the co-operation with your Board and the Board of Apportionment will be necessary in order to furnish you with sufficient funds to pay Chaplains whom you may designate and appoint. With regard to this qualification there will hardly be any difficulty, because it is the clear duty of the Board of Apportionment to provide for the payment of such officers and persons as the head of a Department of the City or County government is legally empowered to appoint.

I am, sir, very respectfully yours, E. DELAFIELD SMITH, Counsel to the Corporation.
