EDITOR'S NOTE: EXTRA HOLIDAY SERVICE

No Garbage, Organics, Recycling Collection, nor Street Cleaning in Observance of New Year's Day Holiday, Monday, January 2

The New York City Department of Sanitation announced that in observance of the New Year's Day holiday, there would be no garbage, organics nor recycling collection, nor street cleaning, on Monday, January 2.

BUT...

- Residents who normally receive Monday garbage and organics collection should place their materials at curbside after 4 p.m. on Monday, January 2 for pickup.

AND...

- Residents who normally receive Monday recycling collection should place their recycling materials out at curbside after 4 p.m. on Monday, January 2 for pickup. The Department usually collects recyclables the week following the holiday, and this is a departure from our normal holiday service. This special service was added as there are back-to-back Monday holidays this year.

Additionally, all Sanitation administrative offices will be closed on Monday, January 2, in observance of the holiday.

About the New York City Department of Sanitation

The Department of Sanitation (DSNY) promotes a healthy environment through the efficient management of solid waste and the development of environmentally sound long-range planning for handling refuse, including recyclables. The Department operates 59 district garages and manages a fleet of more than 2,000 rear-loading collection trucks, 450 mechanical brooms and 689 salt/sand spreaders. The Department clears litter, snow and ice from approximately 6,500 miles of City streets and removes debris from vacant lots as well as abandoned vehicles from City streets.
