Licensing

Child care provider improperly supervised toddlers.

In permit revocation proceeding, respondent, a child-care service provider, was charged with Health Code violations, including failure to properly supervise a group of infant-toddlers. Evidence, including a video, showed that a maintenance worker had left the entrance door open and two toddlers ran outside. Dep't of Health & Mental Hygiene v. Wonderful Quality Time, Inc., OATH Index No. 46/16 (Sept. 30, 2015).

Practice and Procedure

Request to remove name from decision granted.

An applicant in an appeal from a denial of a marriage license made a request that her name be removed from the published decision. ALJ Astrid B. Gloade noted that OATH proceedings are presumptively open and its decisions issued without redaction but here there was a legal basis to grant the request. Office of the City Clerk v. M.D., OATH Index No. 2620/15 (Sept. 29, 2015), adopted, City Clerk's Dec. (Sept. 30, 2015).
