LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

From the proceedings of the Board of Aldermen, April 2, 1874:

By Alderman Van Schaick—
Whereas, both the constitution of the United States and of the State of New York require that all taxation upon citizens shall be "uniform," plainly intending thereby to secure that one class of citizens shall not be taxed beyond the proportion borne by all classes.

And whereas, the taxation of real estate enumerated by mortgage to its full taxable value, without regard to the incumbrances upon it, and then the taxation of the mortgages besides, is both a double and an unequal taxation and not "uniform," because 1st, it exacts a tax upon a double valuation upon the same property, and 2d, it taxes the owner of the equity as if he were the owner of the fee, and for a property which he does not possess; a taxation to which no other class of citizens and no other kind of property is subject.

And whereas, such system of double and oppressive taxation tends to discourage the investment of capital in real estate, and in the same degree to stop improvements and retard and hinder the development of the most substantial forms of material wealth, and has proved in every way injurious and disastrous to the growth of our city,

And whereas, appeal has been made in vain to the legislature to remedy this destructive evil by a general law exempting mortgages from taxation; and whereas, the taxation of mortgages has in fact been practically long abandoned in all other parts of the State,

Therefore, Resolved, That the Council to the Corporation be directed to make a proper case to be taken to the Court of Appeals, and, if necessary, thence to the Supreme Court of the United States, to test the question of the constitutionality of the taxation of mortgages, or of the taxation of both the fee and equity of real estate to one person, when the same are held and owned by different persons, and in the meantime and until the decision of the question, that mortgages in the City of New York be omitted from the assessment rolls and not taxed.

Which was laid over.

By Alderman Morris—
AN ORDINANCE to prevent goats from running at large in the city of New York.

The Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of New York in Common Council convened, do ordain as follows:

Sec. 1. No goat shall be permitted to go at large in any of the streets, avenues, lanes, alleys, piers, wharves or public places in the city of New York, under the penalty of three dollars for every such goat which shall be found at large, to be paid by the owner or person having charge, care or keeping thereof.

Sec. 2. All ordinances or parts of ordinances relative to swine and neat cattle running at large shall apply to this ordinance.

The President put the question whether the Board would agree with the said resolution.

Which was decided in the affirmative by the following vote:

Affirmative—The President, Aldermen Billings, Cooper, Falconer, Flanagan, Gilon, Kehr, Koch, Lysaght, Monheimer, Morris, Ottendorfer, Reilly, Van Schaick—14.

And the same was directed to be sent to the Board of Assistant Aldermen for concurrence.

By Alderman Billings—
Whereas, the necessity for rapid transit in the city of New York is urgent and imperative, and Whereas, numerous charters have been granted by the legislature for underground and elevated railroads without practical results being obtained, and

Whereas, the railroad committee of the assembly has favorably reported two bills which grant to existing corporations (whose lines are adjacent) extraordinary powers and privileges, including the unequalled right to use all public parks along their routes and the right to occupy a width of fifty feet in any street or avenue through which they pass, and

Whereas, the guarantees of good faith are so inadequate in comparison with the rights conferred and so indefinite in their terms as to increase the already wide-spread feeling of distrust of practical results from the passage of either of these bills, and

Whereas, the most speedy, certain and practical solution of this important question can be attained by referring the entire subject of rapid transit to commissioners to be appointed by the governor, with full power to provide such a harmonious system as shall with the least possible delay best accommodate the people of all sections of this city, and

Whereas, in the judgment of this Board, the bill introduced by Mr. Eastman, as amended and now in the Assembly, providing for the appointment by the Governor of five commissioners "to provide the city and county of New York with a railway system for rapid transit," fully meets the requirements of the case and insures practical results, and

Whereas, the duty of the commissioners is to select the best plans and routes and receive subscriptions to the capital stock from all who desire to so invest, so that under this bill those who honestly desire to construct rapid transit railroads can do so, and the interests of the people will be protected by the Commissioners, and

Whereas, the passage of any other bills upon this subject would embarrass the Commissioners in the exercise of their duty and delay the accomplishment of steam communication between the different sections of this city, thus retarding the growth in population and taxable property;

Therefore, Resolved, That this Board respectfully urge—in the best interests of the people of the city of New York—the immediate passage by the Legislature of what is known as the Eastman Rapid Transit bill and the defeat of all other bills covering the same subject;

Resolved, That the clerk be instructed to send—without delay—copies of this preamble and resolutions to the Governor of the State of New York, the presiding officers of the Senate and Assembly and the Senators and Members of the Assembly representing the city of New York.

Alderman Flanagan moved to amend by striking from the first resolution the words "and the defeat of all other bills covering the same subject."

Alderman Koch moved that the preamble and resolutions be laid over until the next meeting.

The President put the question whether the Board would agree with said motion.

Which was decided in the negative by the following vote:

Affirmative—Aldermen Flanagan, Gilon, Kehr, Koch—4.

Negative—The President, Aldermen Billings, Cooper, Falconer, Lysaght, Monheimer, Morris, Ottendorfer, Reilly, Van Schaick—10.

The President put the question whether the Board would agree with the motion of Alderman Flanagan to amend.

Alderman Gilon called up

G. O. 390,

being a resolution and ordinance as follows:

AN ORDINANCE in relation to the burial of strangers or unknown persons who may die in any of the public institutions of the City of New York.

The Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of New York do ordain as follows:

SECTION 1. The Commissioners of Charities and Corrections are hereby instructed and required to advertise in THE CITY RECORD, on the day succeeding the death of any stranger or unknown person who may die in any of the institutions under their charge, a notice giving a full description of such person, and a statement of all the property found in his or her possession at the time such person became an inmate of any such institution, together with such other information as in the opinion of the officers in charge of any such institution would be most likely to lead to the identification of the person so dying.

SEC. 2. Hereafter all interments in the City cemetery on Hart's Island, shall be in trenches to be numbered consecutively commencing with number 1; every such trench shall contain 150 bodies no more, and each coffin shall be numbered by figures to be made of iron or other metal, or engraved into the lid or cover of such coffin so as to be indelible, in the manner shown in the annexed diagram, viz.: each trench shall be constructed, running in a direction from east to west; shall be of a size sufficient to contain the said number of 150 bodies, which shall be laid therein in the order following, to wit: No. 1 at the northeast corner; No. 2 adjoining, and so on in regular order until No. 25 is deposited, when a layer of earth shall be placed on the twenty-five coffins thus deposited; No. 26 shall then be placed at the southeast corner, directly in the rear and in a line with No. 1; No. 27 adjoining and so on until No. 50 is interred, which will be directly in the rear, and on a straight line with No. 25, then covered with a layer of earth, similar to those numbered from 1 to 25, thus completing the first stratum of coffins in the trench. No. 51 shall then be placed directly over No. 1; No. 52 over No. 2, and so on until No. 75 is interred over No. 25, then covered, as before, from 1 to 25; No. 76 being placed directly over No. 26; and so on in the regular order until No. 100 is interred directly over No. 50, thus completing the 2nd stratum of coffins; No. 101 shall then be placed directly over Nos. 1 and 51, and so on in regular order until No. 125 is placed directly over No. 75, then half the trench shall be permanently covered. No. 126 shall then be placed directly over Nos. 26 and 76, and so on in regular order until No. 150 is placed directly over Nos. 50 and 100, when the trench shall be considered full, and finally covered; a new trench to be numbered Trench No. 2 shall then be commenced and filled in the manner above provided and succeeded by trench No. 3, and so on for the future in this and all other of the city cemeteries. At the head of each tier of coffins shall be placed a proper and durable board or stone, with the numbers corresponding with the number on such coffins placed therein with figures made of iron or other durable metal, or engraved thereon in such a manner as to be indelible. Each trench, when completed, and the numbers placed at the head of each tier of coffins shall be inclosed by a substantial fence, leaving a space sufficient to pass between it and the head-boards to admit of the passage of two persons to afford an opportunity to inspect each head-board, to ascertain the numbers therein.

SEC. 3. A register of burials shall be kept by the Superintendent, or other person in charge of the city cemetery which shall be so arranged that the name of each person interred shall be numbered to correspond with the numbers on the head-boards of the tiers of coffins deposited in each trench, and shall be accessible, at all reasonable times for the inspection of the public or the use of any person desiring to ascertain the particular place in which any person may be buried. A duplicate copy of such register shall be kept in the office of the Commissioner of Charities and Corrections.

SEC. 4. This ordinance shall take effect immediately.
