Properties can be moved to inactive status following an in-person inspection and consensus by Task Force agencies on the subsequent debrief call. These properties are no longer inspected by the TQH Task Force. Examples:

- Former TQH sites that have been sold and converted to single family homes or apartment buildings registered with HPD, often undergoing significant renovations or a complete demolition in the process.
- Former TQH sites that have been reassigned to other forms of monitoring.
- Former TQH sites with a longstanding active vacate order.
